WASHINGTON NATIONALS FOUNDATION

The Washington Nationals Baseball Club is in the process of establishing its charitable arm, Washington Nationals Foundation, which will distribute monetary and in-kind donations. This 501(c) 3 will provide grants and monetary donations to non-profit organizations in the Greater Washington area. These grants will be made available through grant applications that will be reviewed quarterly. As soon as the Foundation has been fully established, grant applications will be made available on our website, www.nationals.com.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS FOUNDATION MISSION STATEMENT

The Washington Nationals are committed to serving the community in which it is located. This includes the Greater Washington Metropolitan Area (District of Columbia, Virginia, and Maryland). The Washington Nationals Foundation will focus on providing grants to non-profit organizations that serve youth, assist youth baseball and softball development and improve the quality of life for our local community.

COMMUNITY INITIATIVES

Jr. Nationals Kids Club

Children 4 to 14 years old will be eligible to sign up for the Jr. Nationals Kids Club. Members will receive exclusive Jr. Nationals Kids Club merchandise as well as other rewards. Log on to our website, www.nationals.com to become a member and receive a special prize!

Educational Programs

The Washington Nationals are working closely with DC Area groups to promote scholastic achievement. We will find innovative and exciting ways to combine math and reading with baseball in order to engage young people and keep them in school. Through these programs we will promote student-athleticism and educational growth.

Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington

Since 1997, Boys & Girls Clubs of America has been the Official Charity of Major League Baseball. As a result, the Washington Nationals have created a strong relationship with the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Washington and will work closely with them to assist with the development of their youth baseball and softball programs.

Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities (RBI)

RBI was started in Los Angeles, CA in 1989 by former Major Leaguer and scout, John Young. Since its inception, the purpose of RBI has been to bring baseball and softball to inner city youth. The Washington Nationals look forward to further developing the RBI program in Washington, DC.

Physical Fitness

The Washington Nationals realize how important physical fitness is to kids and the community. As part of our commitment to youth, the Nationals will develop, implement and participate in initiatives that will promote physical fitness, health and wellness.

PLAYERS IN THE COMMUNITY

Our Players look forward to being a part of the Washington, DC community. As a testament to their enthusiasm, a number of players have visited Washington, DC recently to meet and greet their new fans. On January 31, 2005, the Washington Nationals participated in NBC 4's Health and Fitness Expo which took place at the Washington Convention Center. Brad Wilkerson and Brian Schneider were on hand to sign autographs, shake hands and take pictures with fans.

On February 2, 2005, the Washington Nationals hosted a media luncheon at the ESPN Zone in Washington, DC for the local media where the team uniforms were unveiled. On hand for the unveiling were some Nationals players, Jose Guillen, Zach Day, Chad Cordero, and Cristian Guzman. After meeting with the media, the session was opened to the public where they were able to meet the players and get autographs.

During the course of the season, our players and coaches will participate in community activities and reach out to youth and non-profit organizations in the area.

EXECUTIVES

TONY TAVARES

President / CEO

Tavares, 55, was appointed President of the Montreal Expos by Major League Baseball on February 12, 2002. Currently the club's President and CEO, Tavares has spearheaded the historic relocation to Washington, D.C. While the franchise relocation incorporated a dramatic shift in markets, it has also included a change in name, status and work force reflective of the Nationals' new home, Washington, D.C.

On November 22, 2004, Tavares shared center stage with various D.C. dignitaries, including Washington, D.C. Mayor Anthony A. Williams, while announcing that the new Washington Major League Baseball franchise would be named the Washington Nationals. As part of the ceremony, Tavares noted that the Nationals' color scheme of red, white and blue would "not only represent our new home, but symbolize the joining together of Washington's baseball past and its future."

Yet, that thrilling afternoon was just the beginning. Tavares' task was to plant the Nationals flag in the Nation's Capitol. To do this, he has hired an almost entirely new work force, a vast majority of which already lived in and around the Beltway.

The job at hand is to introduce the Nationals to the masses and rekindle the passion for Major League Baseball to various communities that have not had a team to call their own for the last 33 summers. Easier said than done.

To that end, Tavares has touched on a series of issues, including but not limited to, hiring a new general manager, closing down the club's Montreal operations, designing the Nationals logo/uniforms, choosing a ticketing company, devising ticket maps and prices, getting RFK Stadium ready for baseball, picking a stadium food-service vendor and negotiating radio broadcast rights.

In just three seasons on the job, the club has twice contended for the National League Wild Card. In 2003 and 2004, the Expos recorded consecutive winning campaigns for the first time since '92-94. The 2002 and '03 seasons also resulted in a 20-plus percent increase in attendance compared to the season prior.

Upon arrival in Montreal, Tavares inherited the unique plight of the Expos, a Major League Baseball-owned franchise at risk of being either relocated or contracted. Despite the numerous potential pitfalls, Tavares' role was to run the Montreal franchise as he would any other: Provide a quality, competitive, fan-friendly product on the field while adhering to a budget. And this is exactly what Tavares accomplished during his three years in Montreal. Despite being affixed to a trio of limited budgets, Tavares and General Manager Omar Minaya joined creative forces to acquire, among others, Bartolo Colon, Cliff Floyd and Livan Hernandez, as well as free agent Tony Batista.

The 2004 season was as tough as any experienced in recent memory, as the apprehension tied to the potential relocation of the Montreal franchise finally became reality. Thus, after years of admirable resolve and fight, the Expos' performance on the field finally began to reflect the various stresses they were put under. Then on September 29, MLB

Commissioner Bud Selig announced the Montreal Expos would relocated to Washington, D.C. for the 2005 season.

Jim Bowden, (left) General Manager and Tony Tavares, President of the Washington Nationals, proudly display the new Nationals team logo at the press conference held on November 22, 2004.

In 2003, Tavares' input coupled with the club's strong play helped the Expos eclipse the one-million mark in attendance for the first time since 1997. An impressive feat considering Tavares and the Expos had to navigate the club's historic, yet politically sticky, split schedule, which featured 22 games played in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Never before had a major sports franchise played a significant portion of its schedule outside of the United States or Canada. However, the Puerto Rico trial proved fruitful, as the Expos went 13-9 (.591) on the island while playing in front of raucous crowds, including four sellouts. The Expos averaged 14,222 at Hiram Bithorn Stadium (79% capacity) for the 22 Puerto Rico openings.

Tavares previously served as President of the Anaheim Angels for six years, a position he assumed on May 15, 1996. He was appointed the first-ever President of Anaheim Sports, Inc. (ASI) on March 1, 1993 and was responsible for the overall team operation of the Angels and the NHL's Mighty Ducks of Anaheim.

During his tenure in Anaheim, Tavares spear headed the transformation of Anaheim Stadium from a dank multi-purpose facility to a beautiful ballpark reflective of its Southern California/Orange County surroundings. Tavares' knowledge of the game-both on and off the field-has rendered appointments on numerous Major League Baseball committees, including the American League Board of Directors, MLB Enterprise Board of Directors and MLB Realignment Committee.

Tavares joined Anaheim Sports, Inc., after serving as a consultant with The Walt Disney Company, helping plan the organization's entry into professional hockey. Before that, he spent 11 years with Spectacor Management Group, a major facilities management company, rising to the position of president and chief executive officer. There, Tavares held several senior management positions, directing the activities of the Centrum in Worcester, MA, the Providence (RI) Civic Center, New Haven (CT) Veterans Memorial Coliseum and the Nassau Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Uniondale, NY.

Born in Fall River, MA, on October 17, 1949, Tavares grew up in Bristol, RI, and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Roger Williams College. He is a member of the International Association of Assembly Managers. Tony and his wife Elizabeth have three grown children: daughters Sheila and Kristen, and son Mark. The couple resides in Reno, NV. When in Washington, he is a resident of Georgetown.

KEVIN UHLICH

Executive Vice President

Uhlich, 47, first joined the Nationals as a high-level consultant before being promoted to Executive Vice President in November of 2004. Uhlich was tapped for the position by Nationals President and CEO Tony Tavares, whom he worked closely with for nearly a decade in Anaheim. Uhlich will plot course and oversee all facets of the Nationals' historic move into the greater Washington, D.C. community.

Uhlich begins his 29th season in baseball, the first 28 of which came with the Anaheim/California Angels. In 2002, his first season as Sr. Vice-President, Business Operations, Anaheim won its first World Championship by defeating San Francisco in seven games.

Uhlich had previously served the club as Vice-President, Sales, Marketing and Operations. It was Uhlich who implemented the Angels' change in uniforms and color scheme to predominately red. The reason for the change was twofold: bring focus upon a bright future for the franchise while paying homage to its storied past, specifically the legacy of former owner Gene Autry, whose favorite color was red.

A native of Anaheim, Uhlich's responsibilities encompassed all facets of the club's business operation, including, but not limited to, booking stadium events at then-Edison International Field and Tempe Diablo Stadium, the Angels' spring training home just outside Phoenix. He also worked hand-in-hand with Angels General Manager Bill Stoneman.

As Director of Stadium Operations, a position he assumed on October 1, 1996, Uhlich spearheaded the renovation process of Anaheim Stadium from multi-purpose stadium to beautiful ballpark. The ambitious project took less than two years (October of 1996-April of 1998), yet rendered spectacular results that were admired throughout the baseball community. To this end, Uhlich served as lead liaison between Anaheim Sports, Inc. and all contractors during the renovations, all the while overseeing day-to-day project operations. His insight was deemed crucial to the development, completion and ultimate success of the ballpark.

Uhlich was appointed Angels Assistant Director of Stadium Operations in 1981 and later was promoted to Director of Operations in 1985. Upon being named Vice President of Stadium Operations in 1991, Uhlich handled all matters between the Angels, the City of Anaheim and third-party operations.

Uhlich began his career in baseball in 1976 as an Angels batboy. He was later promoted to assistant clubhouse attendant in 1978.

Uhlich is a graduate of Anaheim (CA) High and attended Cypress College. He and wife, Juanita, reside in Foothill Ranch, CA with their twin boys Chase and Cody, and daughter Katie.

JIM BOWDEN

Vice President/General Manager

Bowden was appointed interim General Manager of the Washington Nationals on November 2, 2004. He did not wait long to bolster the Nationals' talent pool. Despite his new surroundings and a secluded office located 900 miles from the Nation's Capital, Bowden needed just 17 days on the job to add the reigning National League RBI champ (free-agent 3B Vinny Castilla), a 100-RBI corner-outfield bat (trade for OF Jose Guillen) and a 26-year-old shortstop who has anchored the infield defense of a three-time division champ (SS Cristian Guzman), and later signed two-time AL All-Star RHP Esteban Loaiza.

Bowden (pronounced "BOE-den") made history on October 16, 1992, when, at age 31, he became the youngest General Manager of a Major League Baseball Franchise. Three years later, he became the youngest GM in baseball history to lead his Club, the Cincinnati Reds, to the League Championship Series. Bowden continued to serve as General Manager of the Reds through July 28, 2003. At the time, Bowden's 10.5 consecutive seasons as Reds' GM rendered him the second-longest serving GM in Baseball to be with the same club, behind only John Schuerholz of the Atlanta Braves.

Following the 1999 season, during which the Reds won more games (96) in a single season since 1976, Bowden was named "Executive of the Year" by Baseball America, as well as the Boston chapter of the BBWAA, Mike Mittleman of Stats, Inc., and the Touchdown Club of Columbus. Additionally, Bowden was named the National League's "Executive of the Year" by national baseball writer Jon Heyman of Newsday.

Prior to joining the Nationals, Bowden worked as a baseball analyst, guest host and contributor for the morning television program, Cold Pizza, which airs on ESPN2. He also did some work as a baseball analyst for ESPNews, Baseball Tonight and SportsCenter.

In 1984, Bowden began his baseball career with the Pittsburgh Pirates prior to moving on to the New York Yankees for one season (1989) as Assistant to the Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations. In December 1989, Bowden joined the Reds as an assistant in Player Development and Scouting. Subsequently, he was promoted to Director of Player Development before being named General Manager of the Reds in the fall of 1992. After being named General Manager, Bowden also temporarily assumed the duties of Team President and CEO during Managing Partner Marge Schott's absence from the Club.

A native of Weston, Massachusetts, and Boothbay Harbor, Maine, Bowden was born on May 18, 1961. A 1979 graduate of Weston High School, Bowden received a bachelor's degree in business administration/communications from Rollins College in Florida in 1983. Ten years later, Bowden received Rollins' Young Alumnus Special Achievement Award, and, in 1999, he was inducted into the Rollins College Sports Hall of Fame. In addition, Bowden was the 17th recipient of the School's Athletic Achievement Award.

Engaged to actress Joy Browning, Bowden has five sons: J.B., March 10, 1987; Tyler, July 7, 1991; Chad, February 17, 1994; and, identical twins Trey and Chase, October 20, 1998.

TONY SIEGLE

Assistant General Manager

Siegle was appointed Assistant General Manager of the Montreal Expos on February 16, 2002 and added the title of Director of Baseball Operations a year later. Now in his fourth decade in baseball, Siegle is widely viewed as a specialist in rules interpretation, contract negotiations and big league administration. Including Jim Bowden and Frank Robinson, Siegle has worked closely with/for 23 general managers and 22 managers, numbers believed to be unrivaled in baseball annals.

In 2004, thanks to well over 800 games lost to injury, Siegle was again a busy man, as the Expos employed 46 players, including 22 pitchers. As always, Siegle was omnipresent with the Expos on the road. He represented the Expos on over 90 percent of all roadtrips, including all six of the club's treks to Puerto Rico in 2003 and '04. In 2002, Siegle employed all of his many talents while jumping into the Expos unique fray. In all, the '02 club club signed 14 free agents (many within two weeks of Spring Training) and made eight big league trades involving 34 players.

Before joining the Expos in February of 2002, Siegle served as a Special Assistant to the General Manager with the San Francisco Giants after spending the previous seasons as consultants with the Phillies and Giants organizations.

After beginning in baseball in 1965 in general operations with the Astros and stadium operations with the Phillies, he moved to the baseball side when he joined the Brewers in 1970 and worked in the minor-league and scouting departments, heading the farm system from 1975-79. He rejoined the Astros as Assistant General Manager from 1979-82, returned to the Phillies in 1982 as Executive Assistant in Baseball Operations and was promoted to Vice-President a year later. He spent the majority of the 1989 season as Padres' Vice-President of Player Personnel. He later joined the California Angels as a special assignment scout, the Giants as Farm Director and Vice-President, Baseball Administration in 1990, and the Rockies after the 1994 season as Director of Baseball Administration.

A former officer in the U.S. Navy, Tony resides in Denver with his wife, Cynthia. The couple have four children (Andrew, Amy Beth, Zachary and Gregory) and five grandchildren (Zachary, Tim, Samantha, Abigail and Teddy).

BOB BOONE

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Was appointed by Jim Bowden on December 11, 2004 as Special Assistant to the General Manager. Will work closely with Bowden and be involved in every aspect of the Nationals' baseball operations department. Boone joins Washington after spending the 2004 campaign with Philadelphia as a Special Assignment Scout, a position he accepted on December 3, 2003 after a 22-year hiatus from the Phillies organization.

One of the premiere catchers of his generation, Bob was named to four All-Star teams (1976, 78-79, 83) and won seven Rawlings Gold Gloves (1978-79, 82, 86-89), including two at ages 40 and 41, during his 19-year career. Only Johnny Bench and Ivan Rodriguez have won more Gold Gloves for catching.

Selected by the Phillies in the sixth round of the 1969 draft as a third baseman out of Stanford University-where he graduated with a degree in psychology-Bob spent the first ten years of his major league career with the club (1972-81). During his time with the Phillies, the club won four division titles and one World Series Championship in 1980.

Following his time with the Phillies, Bob played for Anaheim (1982-88) and Kansas City (1989-90). Upon retirement, Boone held the major league records for games caught in a career (2,225), a record which was later broken by Carlton Fisk, and most seasons catching at least 100 games (15).

In October of 1994, Bob was named manager of the Kansas City Royals, a position he held until July of 1997. Following tenure with Kansas City, Boone joined Cincinnati as a special assistant under then-Reds GM Jim Bowden before being named manager of the Reds in November of 2000. He held that position until July of 2003.

Bob was born on November 19, 1947 in San Diego, CA and resides in Villa Park, CA with his wife, Sue. Two of their sons play major league baseball: Bret plays for the Mariners, Aaron with the Indians. His father, the late Ray Boone, was an All-Star infielder during his 13-year career in the big leagues (1948-60). His brother, Rodney, played in the Kansas City and Houston farm systems from 1972-75. The Boones are one of only three 3-generation baseball families, along with the Bells (Gus, Buddy and David) and the Hairstons (Sam, Jerry Sr. and Jerry Jr.).

BARRY LARKIN

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Was named Special Assistant to General Manager Jim Bowden on February 13, 2005, thus ending a legendary 19-year playing career spent with one team, his hometown Cincinnati Reds. Will take part in every facet of Washington's baseball operation, including but not limited to, player development and scouting (pro and amateur).

At the time of his appointment, Larkin's tenure with the Reds was baseball's longest streak among active players having played with just one club.

Born in Cincinnati and a 1982 graduate of Moeller High School, Larkin hit .295 (2340-for-7937) with 441 doubles, 76 triples, 198 home runs, 960 RBI and 379 stolen bases in 2,180 games spanning 19 seasons with Cincinnati. Larkin's 19-year tenure with the Reds matched Pete Rose and Dave Concepcion as the longest in the annals of baseball's oldest franchise.

A 12-time National League All-Star, Larkin served as Reds' captain from 1997-2004. He was named MVP of the Reds on four occasions, including 1990, when Cincinnati won the National League West wire-to-wire en route to a World Series sweep of the heavily-favored Oakland Athletics. Larkin batted .300 during the Reds' 1990 post-season run, including .353 in the Fall Classic. However, Larkin's extended offensive excellence is best represented by his nine Louisville Silver Slugger Awards.

In 1995, Larkin was named National League Most Valuable Player, becoming the Reds' first MVP since George Foster won the same award in 1977. He garnered the citation by hitting .319 with 29 doubles, 15 home runs, 66 RBI and 51 stolen bases while leading the Reds to a National League Central Division title.

Larkin followed up his '95 MVP season with an even better effort the following year. In 1996, Larkin hit 33 home runs and swiped 36 bases to become the first shortstop in major league history-and only the second non-outfielder-to post 30-or-more home runs and 30-or-more stolen bases in the same season.

Larkin left the Reds ranked among the franchise's top five in numerous categories, including games (third), hits (second), total bases (third with 3,527), doubles (second), runs (second with 1,329), extra-base hits (third with 715).

On the field, Larkin's rare combination of arm strength and range resulted in three Rawlings Gold Gloves (1994-96) and the admiration of a generation of shortstops.

Off the field, Larkin's 19-year tenure was filled with tireless efforts in the Cincinnati community. In 1993 Larkin received the Reds' Roberto Clemente Award for performances both on and off the field. He was also twice a finalist for Major League Baseball's Branch Rickey Award. For years, Barry hosted underprivileged children at Reds games as part of his "Barry's Bunch" program.

JOSE RIJO

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Was appointed by Jim Bowden as Special Assistant to the General Manager on January 5, 2005. Rijo, 39, will aid in Washington's Latin American operations, specifically scouting and development. He will also serve as special on-field instructor during Spring Training.

Joins the Nationals after beginning his post-playing career as a scout/instructor with Cincinnati. He was hired by Bowden in 2003 to scout his native Dominican Republic and administrate the Reds' Dominican Academy in San Cristobal.

During his playing days, Rijo went 116-91 with a 3.24 ERA in 14 major league seasons with New York-AL (1984), Oakland (1985-87) and Cincinnati (1988-2002). Rijo made his big league debut with the Yankees in 1984 as a hard-throwing phenom. He was just 19 and the youngest player in baseball. Two eye-catching trades later-deals that included Rickey Henderson and Dave Parker, among others-Rijo landed in Cincinnati, where he would win 97 games and help the Reds claim, in 1990, their first World Championship since 1976.

A 1994 National League All-Star, Rijo went 3-0 with a 2.28 ERA in four post-season starts for the 1990 World Champion Cincinnati Reds. In the World Series, Rijo went 2-0 with a 0.59 (1 ER/15.1 IP) in two starts and was named Most Valuable Player as Cincinnati stunned the baseball world by sweeping the heavily favored Athletics in four games.

In four seasons from 1990-93, Rijo won 58 games for the Reds and twice finished among the top five in National League Cy Young voting (4th in 1991, 5th in 1993). He won a career-high 15 games in both 1991 and 1992. Thanks to a 15-6 record in 1991, Rijo led the National League in winning percentage. Two years later, in 1993, he paced the NL in strikeouts (227) and finished 2nd in the league's ERA (2.48) chase.

Rijo's playing career appeared to be over in 1995 at the age of 30 due to chronic elbow problems. However, thanks to six elbow surgeries, including three "Tommy John" procedures, and an unheard of amount of perseverance, Rijo returned to the mound six years later in 2001. He pitched two more seasons for Cincinnati before retiring at the completion of the 2002 campaign.

Has been elected to the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame and will be inducted sometime in 2005.

Rijo is single and resides in San Cristobal, DR.

DANA BROWN

Director, Scouting

Brown, 38, was promoted to Nationals Director of Amateur, Professional and International Scouting on November 20, 2004. Brown was originally named Expos Scouting Director on March 7, 2002 after working with the Pittsburgh organization for 8 years as area scouting supervisor and East Coast scouting coordinator. With Montreal in 2003, Brown oversaw 2003 First-Year Player Draft which rendered the signings of top 19 selections, including Chad Cordero, Montreal's first pick (20th overall out of Cal-State Fullerton) who reached the big leagues less than 3 month later (2nd '03 draftee to reach the big leagues). Brown also plotted course during Montreal's '02 First-Year Player Draft, during which 23 of club's top 26 picks signed, including top pitching prospect, righthander Clint Everts. Brown is also credited with signing Washington's top hitting prospect, 1B Larry Broadway. A graduate of Seton Hall University, Brown played with Pirate teammates Craig Biggio, Mo Vaughn and John Valentin in 1987 prior to being drafted by Philadelphia in 1989 as an outfielder. He played three pro season in the Phillies' chain before enjoying a two-year stint as a minor-league coach. Brown began scouting career in 1994. Dana and wife, Casandra Waters, live in Somerset, NJ and have 2 children: Dana Jr. and Autumn.

BRIAN PARKER

Assistant Director of Scouting

Parker, 28, was promoted to Assistant Director of Scouting on November 1, 2004 after spending the previous year in the scouting department. Primary duties include coordinating all scouting-related activities of the organization. Parker joined the club prior to the 2003 season after spending two years with the Arizona Fall League, where he served as Director of Baseball Operations for the 2002 season. During AFL tenure, was responsible for all baseball-related activities with the 30 MLB clubs. Parker began his baseball operations career as an intern with the Colorado Rockies player development & scouting department in 1997. Also spent three years in the NFL with the Buffalo Bills, the final two as Media Relations Assistant. Originally hails from Morristown, IN and graduated with a business management degree from Indiana State University in 1998.

LEE MacPHAIL

Director, Baseball Administration

MacPhail IV, 35, currently holds the title of Director of Baseball Administration. He was named Expos Director of Professional Scouting on March 7, 2002 after working for three and a half years with Minnesota as an area scout, covering Arizona, Colorado, Hawaii, Nevada, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.

He served as Director of Scouting for Cleveland in 1996-98, coordinating the '97- 98 amateur drafts. He began his baseball career with Baltimore in 1986 and was named Assistant, Player Development & Scouting in 1991. He also served as Assistant to the General Manager with Texas in 1996.

MacPhail comes from a long line of baseball experience, as he is the great-grandson of Larry MacPhail, former owner of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees; the grandson of Lee MacPhail, Jr., American League president and general manager of Baltimore and the Yankees; and is the nephew of Andy MacPhail, Chicago Cubs' President and CEO. His father, Lee III, was GM of the Reading Phillies upon being killed in an tragic auto accident in 1969. Lee and his wife Kristin have 2 daughters: Ellie and Olivia and reside in Shaker Heights, OH. He graduated Cum Laude from Lafayette College in 1991 and is originally from Hunt Valley, MD.

ADAM WOGAN

Director, Scouting

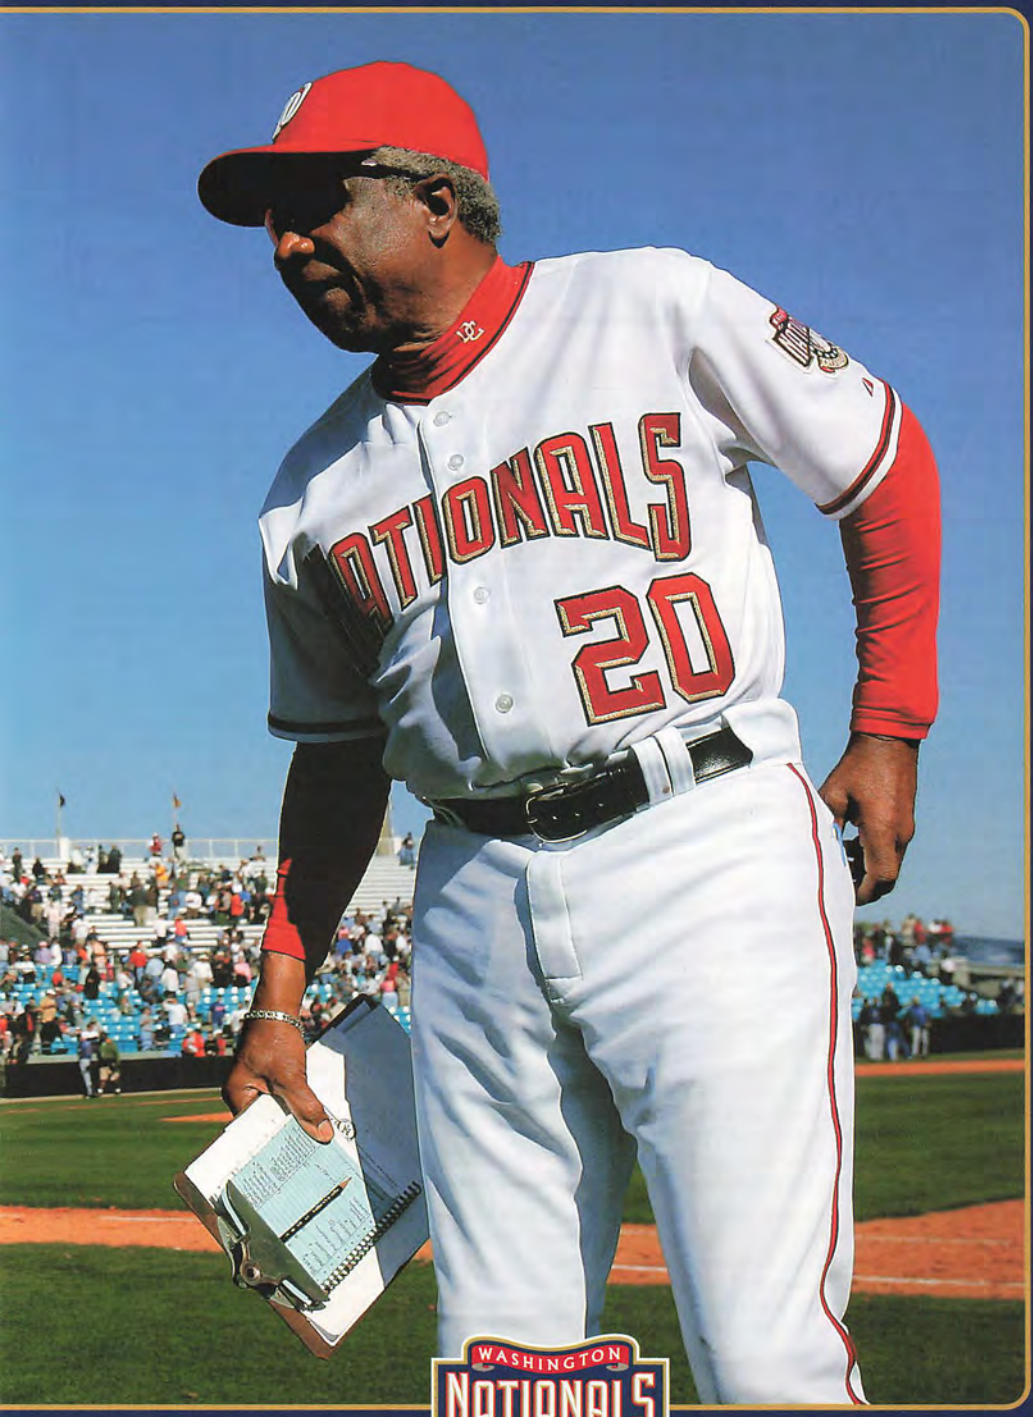
Wogan, 30, enters his fourth season as Nationals Director of Player Development. Duties encompass overseeing every facet of the National minor-league operation, including six minor league clubs in the United States, as well as the franchise's entry in the Dominican Summer League. Wogan joined the Expos as an intern in Player Development and Scouting in May of 1998 and was promoted to Player Development Assistant that November. With his initial duties including all business operations of the player development department, Wogan was promoted to Assistant Director, Player Development in November of 1999. He spent three seasons in that capacity before being promoted to current post on February 22, 2002. Wogan began a career in baseball in 1992 as an intern with Boston, where he worked in the Red Sox's ticket office in 1994. Wogan is a native of Manchester, MA and graduated Magna Cum Laude with Honors in Economics from Wake Forest University in 1996. Wogan then earned a Master's Degree in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1998. He married Amy Dotson on November 14, 2004. The couple lives in Washington, DC.

NICK MANNO

Assistant Director, Player Development

Manno, 25, begins his fourth season with the Nationals, his first as Assistant Director, Player Development. Among other duties, oversees the business operations of the player development department. Manno joined the Expos as an intern in March 2002, working out of the spring training complex in Melbourne, FL, before accepting a full-time position with the club in Montreal in January of 2003. He spent two seasons as minor league operations coordinator before being promoted to his current post on November 1, 2004. A native of North Royalton, OH, Manno graduated with a Bachelor's degree in Sport Management from Mount Union (OH) College, where he played collegiately for three seasons before foregoing his final season to begin a career in baseball operations. Manno comes from baseball bloodlines, as his father Bruce Manno, has worked in baseball since 1979, spending time with Milwaukee and Baltimore before accepting his current position as Director, Player Development, with St. Louis prior to the 2002 campaign. Manno is single and currently resides in Melbourne, FL.

MANAGER & COACHING STAFF



FRANK ROBINSON

MANAGER

Born: August 31, 1935 in Beaumont, TX
Opening Day Age: 69 (turns 70 on Aug. 31)
Career Player Position: OF

CAREER AS MANAGER

Familiar face to Beltway baseball fans enters 4th season as manager of the Nationals/Expos...2005 will be 15th season as big league skipper...clubs have posted 6 winning seasons...current big league managerial record is 913-1,004 (.476)...went 233-253 (.479) in 3 seasons as Montreal skipper...Expos announced one-year extension of contract on November 18, 2004 (just 3 days before team name was changed to Nationals)...enters season 69 years young...is MLB's 3rd-oldest manager...only Jack McKeon (5 years older) and Felipe Alou (3.5 months) are longer in the tooth...has served baseball in nearly every conceivable position: player, player/manager, coach, front-office executive, administrator.

TENURE IN MONTREAL

2004 SEASON: In 14th season as big league manager, guided the Expos to a 67-95 (.414) record in 3rd season with the club...Expos were again burdened with a split schedule that featured only 59 true "home" games at Olympic Stadium...played 21 games in Puerto Rico, going 7-14...also battled slew of injuries to key personnel, including every starting pitcher minus Livan Hernandez...after winning 83 games in both 2002 and 2003, 67-win campaign was Montreal's first losing season since 2001...the Expos were absent from the post-season hunt for the first time since 2001, due largely to 5-19 mark in April...pocketed 900th career managerial victory with 6-3 win on August 25 vs. LA...became the 58th manager to reach 900 wins...at the time of Frank's 900th, active managers on the 900-win list included STL's Tony LaRussa, ATL's Bobby Cox, NYY's Joe Torre, NYM's Art Howe, CHI's Dusty Baker and FLA's Jack McKeon...joins Fred Clarke, Cap Anson, Joe Cronin, Lou Boudreau, Frankie Frisch, Hughie Jennings, Red Schoendienst and Frank Chance as Hall-of-Famers who also won at least 900 games as a manager...was ejected from just one game: June 16 vs. MIN...was thrown out by first-base umpire Mike Fichter for arguing Luis Rivas game-winning home run to left field, which replays later showed was actually a foul ball...has been ejected only three times the last 2 seasons...on July 13 at Minute Maid Park in Houston, was honored during All-Star Game festivities as one of 14 living members of the 500-home runs club.

2003 SEASON: Guided the Expos to a second 83-79 mark (.512) in his 2nd season while navigating the club's historic split-home schedule which featured 59 games in Montreal and 22 in San Juan, PR...the winning season—the club's 14th in 35 National League campaigns—was Frank's 6th in 13 years as a big league manager...with identical 83-79 marks the last 2 years, Montreal recorded consecutive winning campaigns for the first time since a 3-year stretch, 1992-94...despite a rash of injuries (10 different players spent 721 games on the Disabled List), the Expos fell below .500 just once all season (at 72-73 with a 4-3 loss vs. CHI on September 9 in San Juan)...a 4-game home sweep of the Phillies, August 25-28, pulled the Expos into a tie for the N.L. Wild Card...was ejected from 2 games in 2003...(May 9 vs. LAD and May 16 at COL (both for arguing balls and strikes)...on September 26, the Reds unveiled a bronze statue likeness of Frank Robinson outside Great American Ball Park on the Crosley Terrace...the statue, sculpted by local artist Thomas Tsuchiya, was the 3rd in a series of 4 that augment the Reds new home...all 4 immortals—Ted Kluszewski, Joe Nuxhall and Ernie Lombardi being the other 3—are from the club's Crosley Field era...after the season, Robinson managed the 2003 USA Baseball Olympic Qualifying Team, which attempted to secure a berth in the 2004 Athens Olympic Games...however, Robinson's USA club was stunned by Mexico in the quarterfinals, thus clearing the way for Canada to clinch a spot.

2002 SEASON: Robinson was officially appointed Expos' field manager only 5 days before the opening of Spring Training...became the franchise's 11th manager...did a commendable job in putting together a coaching staff and bringing confidence and pride to a team threatened by contraction since November...led the Expos to a 2nd-place finish in the NL East with an 83-79 record—Montreal's best season since 1996—and 15 wins better than the previous year...finished 3rd in the BBWAA's NL Manager of the Year voting (behind Tony La Russa and Bobby Cox)...was the recipient of Baseball America's inaugural Lifetime Achievement Award, in recognition of his career as a player, manager and executive...the award was presented to him during the Baseball Meetings in December in Nashville...reached the 700-win plateau as a manager on May 12 at Olympic Stadium with a 4-2 victory vs. SFG...was invited by Bob Brenly to serve as a coach at the 2002 All-Star Game July 9 at MIL's Miller Park...as a player, participated in 12 All-Star games and was MVP of the '71 Classic as a member of the Orioles.

MORE MANAGERIAL HIGHLIGHTS

DAVE HUPPERT

THIRD-BASE COACH

Born: April 17, 1957 in Southgate, CA
Opening Day Age: 47 (turns 48 on April 17)
Career Player Position: C

AT A GLANCE

Makes big league coaching debut after 18 seasons as minor league manager...returns to major leagues for first time since serving as CWS' bullpen catcher in 1992...at the conclusion of the '04 minor-league campaign, spent 10 days with Expos last September as extra coach/observer...perhaps best known in baseball circles for having caught all 33 innings of the longest game in professional baseball history (more details below).

COACHING CAREER

Joins Frank Robinson's staff after managing in Expos' system the last 3 seasons...clubs have posted winning records 11 times in 18 seasons as skipper...despite a 2-year rash of injuries with Montreal, and thus a subsequent roster move at the Triple-A level seemingly every day, went 142-137 (.514) in 2 seasons as manager with Edmonton of the Triple-A International League in 2003-04...guided the '03 Trappers to a 73-60 record, a Northern Division title and a berth in the PCL semi-finals...in 2002, first season in the Expos' chain, managed Double-A Harrisburg to a 79-63 record and within one game of an Eastern League championship (lost deciding Game 5 to Norwich in finals)...in 2001, was named Florida State League Manager of the Year, as Brevard County club won the FSL's co-championship...was the Single-A California League Manager of the Year award in 1988, after leading Stockton to a 94-49 record...prior to his arrival in Expos' system, worked in the FLA chain in 1999-2001, working all three years as manager with Brevard County...before joining FLA, enjoyed 6-year tenures with both CWS (1993-98) and MIL (1986-91) organizations.

PLAYING CAREER

Signed with BAL as a free agent in 1977...appeared in 17 big league contests with BAL and MIL...played in two games for the Orioles in 1983, while playing in 15 games for the Brewers in 1985...combined to go 1-for-21 with a pair of walks...laced 5th-inning single on October 1, 1985 at NYY off Hall-of-Famer-to-be Phil Niekro...playing for the Rochester Red Wings of the Triple-A International League, recorded first career Triple-A hit and caught 31 of 33 innings in the longest professional baseball game ever played, April 18, 1981 at Pawtucket's McCoy Stadium...the game suspended on Easter Sunday, April 19 at 4:09 a.m. (there had been a misunderstanding about the IL's "curfew" rule, so the game continued later than it should have)...the game was resumed on July 23, 1981 and lasted just 18 minutes before completion (Pawtucket won, 3-2)...final time of game: 8 hours, 25 minutes, or 65 days, 22 hours and 116 minutes...Cal Ripken Jr. and Wade Boggs were the starting 3B for Rochester and Pawtucket, respectively...Bobby Ojeda and Bruce Hurst also pitched in the marathon contest.

PERSONAL

David Blain Huppert...currently resides in Zephyrhills, FL, with daughter Megan (born July 23, 1994).

AT A GLANCE

Career in baseball comes full circle with return to DC as Nationals' hitting coach...was member of 1971 Washington Senators...hit .213 with 7 home runs and 25 RBI in 122 games in '71 (was only season with organization)...recorded the last hit, the last RBI and the last inside-the-park home run (May 17, 1971 vs. CLE) at RFK Stadium (with return of the Nationals, perhaps most recent is a better term)...one of baseball's top hitting coaches...many hitting techniques and philosophies were moulded while playing under Ted Williams in 1971...was appointed hitting coach of the Montreal Expos on February 17, 2002...was named as first hitting coach of the Nationals on November 20, 2004 by GM Jim Bowden...has been associated with professional baseball for 46 years and is entering his 30th in a coach or instructor roll.

COACHING CAREER

Begins 4th season as the Nationals' hitting coach...in 2004, Expos offense struggled with injuries to core of lineup (Nick Johnson, Jose Vidro, Carl Everett), change in field dimensions at Hiram Bithorn Stadium and departure of Vladimir Guerrero...even without Guerrero, 151 home runs hit were 6 more than season prior...Brad Wilkerson (career-high 32 home runs), Brian Schneider (career-best 12 homers) and Tony Batista (team-high 132 RBI) among those to thrive under McCraw's tutelage...Wilkerson and Batista formed Montreal's first 30-30 home run tandem in 36 National League seasons.

in 2003, the Expos offense battled numerous injuries, including Vladimir Guerrero's 50-game stint on the Disabled List...Expos did enjoy the new surrounds of San Juan, where they hit at least one homer in each of the first 17 games at Hiram Bithorn Stadium (the longest such homer streak in the club's 36 National League seasons)...among McCraw's top pupils in 2003 were club-MVP Orlando Cabrera (ranked among the top 2 among N.L. shortstops in nearly every offensive category), Brad Wilkerson (improved on-base percentage while posting 18 more RBI than in 2002) and Jose Vidro (named to 2003 National League Silver Slugger Team despite battling rash of nagging injuries).

Under McCraw's tutelage in 2002, the Expos ranked 7th in NL with a .261 batting average...also ranked 2nd in the National League with 300 doubles and a club-record 85 intentional walks...Montreal also ranked among the National League's top 6 clubs in triples (4th with 36), runs (6th with 735) and slugging percentage (6th at .418).

Before joining the Expos, worked for MLB the 2 previous two years...previously, spent 4 years as hitting coach for HOU...guided HOU to record offensive numbers, including a club-record 874 runs scored in 1998, surpassing the previous mark of 777, which the Astros reached in first year as hitting coach in 1997...was one of 3 members of HOU's coaching staff who had to take a leave of absence from the team during the 1999 campaign due to health reasons...was away from the club from May 17-August 14, 1999 while being treated for prostate cancer...from 1992-96, was NYM's hitting instructor...was hitting coach for BAL from 1989-91 before joining the Mets...was on CLE's coaching staff in 1975 and again from 1979-82...also coached with SFG from 1983-85... from 1976-78 and 1986-88, was a minor league instructor with CLE and NYM, respectively.

PLAYING CAREER

Played 13 seasons in the major leagues...was with the White Sox for 8 years and also spent time with the Senators, Angels and Indians...with CWS, posted 3 home runs and 8 RBI on May 24, 1967 at MIN...in 1968, led AL first basemen with 93 assists and 103 double plays, and was second with 12 triples and ninth with 20 stolen bases...led the majors with three pinch-hit homers that season...all 3 pinch long balls came in the 9th inning...was acquired by CLE, along with OF Roy Foster, on April 3, 1972 in exchange for OF Ted Ford...was then dealt to CAL along with 2B Bob Marcano in exchange for SS Leo Cardenas, April 2, 1973...had contract purchased by CLE, July 17, 1974...served as a player-coach with CLE in '75 under Frank Robinson...posted a lifetime .310 batting average in the minor leagues...won the American Association batting title with a .326 mark in '62...ranked 5th in the Pioneer League with a .327 batting average the year before.

BOB NATAL

BULLPEN COACH

Born: Nov. 13, 1965 in Long Beach, CA
Opening Day Age: 39
Career Player Position: C

AT A GLANCE

Serves Nationals as bullpen coach and big league catching instructor...is one of MLB's top dual-role coaches...is Washington's youngest on-field coach (roving coach Jack Voigt is younger, but not in uniform come game time).

COACHING CAREER

Back for 4th season as Nationals bullpen coach...doubles as the club's big league catching instructor...has influenced the development of Brian Schneider, who many believe is MLB's top defensive catcher...not only has Schneider paced MLB backstops in throwing out runners each of the last 2 seasons (gunned down 54 of 114, 47.4%) in 2004, Brian also owns the franchise's best fielding percentage (.994) among catchers with have appeared in at least 250 games behind the plate (better than even Hall-of-Famer Gary Carter)...despite rash of injuries, Brian ranked 5th in MLB with a 3.86 catcher's ERA in 2004 (among those with 90 or more starts)...in the bullpen, worked in tandem with pitching coach Randy St. Claire with the accelerated development of Chad Cordero, who set franchise rookie record with 14 saves in 2004...Natal's work with Brian Schneider and Michael Barrett really began to pay dividends in 2003, as Montreal's catchers combined to allow the fewest stolen bases against in MLB with 40 (St. Louis ranked 2nd in the same category with 55)...the catching corps reputation proceeded them, as Montreal also led baseball in fewest stolen base attempts against (71)...in the bullpen, Natal had a hand in the breakthrough performances turned in by, among others, Rocky Biddle (career-high 34 saves after entering the season with one) and Luis Ayala (team-high 19 holds in big league debut)...before returning to his original club—was the Expos' 13th selection in the 1987 First-Year Player Draft—as a coach, Natal spent the previous three seasons with FLA as a minor league coach and catching coordinator.

PLAYING CAREER

Earned All-Star status at all minor league levels, from Rookie- to Triple-A...reached the big leagues for the first time in 1992 with Montreal, playing in 5 games...was an original Marlin, as he was selected in the 1992 Expansion Draft (55th overall selection)...was 0-for-11 in the big leagues before going 3-for-4 with a home run on July 4, 1993 at ATL's Fulton-County Stadium...first big league hit was a home run off John Smoltz...spent first full season in the big leagues in 1996 with FLA...in 1997, joined the Marlins in September...hit final big league homer on September 22 vs. NYM off Joe Crawford...is one of 6 players to play for the Marlins in each of the club's first 5 years of existence...the other 5: Jeff Conine, Alex Arias, Robb Nen, Gary Sheffield and Pat Rapp...in all, tallied 4 homers and 19 RBI in 120 big league games.

PERSONAL

Bob and his wife, Audry Lynn, have three sons, Colby (12/17/93) and Cooper (8/7/96) and Cavan (1/11/02)...graduated from Hilltop (CA) High outside San Diego in 1983...attended the University of California at San Diego, where he was an NCAA Division III First-Team All-America selection...among the San Diego-area's 4 major college baseball programs, ranks among all-time leaders in home runs (first with 53), RBI (first with 208) and hits (3rd with 257)...among the greats to play college ball in San Diego: Tony Gwynn, Chris Gwynn, Mark Grace, Travis Lee and Bobby Mecham...enjoys golf.

RANDY ST. CLAIRE

PITCHING COACH

Born: August 23, 1960 in Glens Falls, NY
Opening Day Age: 44 (turns 45 on Aug. 23)
Career Player Position: RHP

AT A GLANCE

Returns for 3rd season as Nationals pitching coach...was named Expos pitching coach on December 4, 2002...replaced Dick Pole, who accepted coaching position in CHI...since arrival in Montreal, has helped put Livan Hernandez's career back on track and cultivated the talents of Luis Ayala, Zach Day and Chad Cordero, among others.

COACHING CAREER

Followed up superb debut with more positive results in 2004...staff performed at high level despite significant injuries to 4 of 5 starting pitchers (Tony Armas Jr., Zach Day, Tomo Ohka and John Patterson)...despite tough luck and the employment of 22 pitchers (12 different starters), Expos posted a 4.33 team ERA...broke in 4 rookie pitchers (Chad Bentz, Shawn Hill, Joe Horgan and Gary Majewski)...Hernandez led MLB in innings (255.0) and tied for the lead in starts (35)...Chad Cordero's 14 saves established a new franchise rookie record...in 2003 debut as pitching coach, staff performed at a high level despite employing 25 different pitchers...lost 4 projected starting pitchers to injury for extended periods, including Orlando Hernandez (did not pitch in 2003) and Tony Armas Jr. (made only 5 starts)...St. Claire's starting staff ranked 4th in MLB—3rd in the NL—with a 3.82 ERA...his starters also led the NL with 15 complete games (only Oakland, with 16, recorded more in MLB)...helped Livan Hernandez, who accounted for 8 of Montreal's aforementioned 15 complete games, regain top form...acquired late in Spring Training, Hernandez led the Expos in wins, innings, complete games, and ERA among pitchers making 20 or more starts...in the bullpen, St. Claire's nurtured the development of Rocky Biddle (team-high 34 saves after entering the season with just one) and Rule 5-selection Luis Ayala (team-high 19 holds and 5 saves)...overall, the Expos ranked 6th in the NL—8th in MLB—with a 4.01 ERA...St. Claire's staff also walked the fewest batters (463) in the National League.

St. Claire made his big league pitching coach debut in 2003 after seven seasons in the minor leagues, including 5 years in the Expos' chain...advanced as far as Triple-A Ottawa in 2002...signed on to be TOR's Triple-A pitching coach for 2003 before getting the call from the Expos to join their big league staff...began coaching career with the Brewers' Single-A Stockton entry from 1996-97...joined the Expos organization in 1998 as Single-A Cape Fear's pitching coach...became the 10th former Expo to return to the organization as a coach...the first 9: Brad Mills, Bob Natal, Claude Raymond, Pete Mackanin, Joe Kerrigan, Jerry Manuel, Felipe Alou, Ken Macha and Bob Gebhard.

PLAYING CAREER

Former right-handed reliever...in 9 big league seasons, went 12-6 with 9 saves and a 4.14 ERA (116 ER/252.0 IP)...was signed as a free agent by the Expos, September 9, 1978... made big league debut with Montreal on September 11, 1984 at PIT...notched first major league win at SFG on June 3, 1986 (thanks in part to bunt single in the 15th inning which ignited game-winning rally)...spent parts of 5 seasons with the Expos from 1984-88...recorded a career-high 7 saves for the Expos in 1987...traded to CIN with C Jeff Reed and OF Herm Winningham in exchange for OF Tracy Jones and RHP Pat Pacillo on July 13, 1988...joined MIN in 1989 and made 14 relief appearances...with ATL in 1991, took Armando Reynoso's place on the post-season roster the day before the series began...did not pitch in the NLCS vs. PIT, but pitched 1.0 inning in Game 5 of the World Series against MIN...with Syracuse in 1994, led the Triple-A International League in games (65), games finished (59) and saves (33)...last appeared in the big leagues with TOR in '94.

PERSONAL

Randy and his wife Liz have two daughters: Monique (born June 9, 1984) and Chantal (born September 18, 1986)...a '78 graduate of Central (NY) High School...son late big league-catcher Ebba St. Claire...Ebba hit .249 with 7 home runs and 40 RBI in 164 big league games with MIL and NYG from 1951-54...brother, Steve, played was a minor league OF in the Montreal organization...enjoys golf and snowboarding.

CAREER NOTES

Is in 2nd season after having rotator cuff surgery...signaled return to form with strong winter ball stint...posted 1.29 ERA in 5 starts for the Oriente Carires of the Venezuelan Winter League (fanned 11 in 14.0 innings)...22 of 32 career wins have come before the All-Star break...only 4 of 32 career wins have come in the months of July and August...however, went 1-1 with a 2.73 ERA in 5 July starts in 2004...son of slugger Tony Armas Sr., who blasted 251 career home runs (led MLB with 43 home runs and 123 RBI in 1984) in 14 big league seasons with PIT, OAK, BOS and CAL...was the player to be named in the December 18 deal that sent RHP Pedro Martinez to BOS (RHP Carl Pavano was the other player acquired by the Expos in the deal)...was teammates with RHP Zach Day, 1B Nick Johnson and SS Cristian Guzman on 1996 GCL Yankees club that claimed league championship...signed by Rudy Santin (NYY).

Went 2-4 with a 4.88 ERA in 16 starts, but more importantly, returned to the mound healthy after having May 23, 2003 season-ending surgery to repair labrum in right shoulder...was potential member of the Expos' starting rotation entering Spring Training, but began the season on the DL (placed there on April 3) as rehab progress continued at steady pace...missed season's first 49 games before making 2004 debut on June 1 at ATL...encountered the usual "ups and downs" associated with major shoulder surgery...did not pitch after September 12, as the Expos' medical staff concluded Tony had reached an unspecified number of target innings...made emotional return to the mound on June 1 at ATL...went 5.2 innings, allowing 2 runs on just 3 hits...walked 3, struck out a season-high 7 and threw 88 pitches...left in line for the win, but was relegated to no-decision as the bullpen squandered 6-2 lead in the 8th inning in eventual 7-6 loss...pitched best on extended rest...in 6 starts when pitching on 6 or more days rest, ERA was 2.27 (8 ER/31.2 IP)...when pitching on 4 or 5 days rest, posted a 6.92 ERA (31 ER/40.1 IP) in 10 assignments...continued 2-year evolution into fly-ball pitcher...posted more fly-ball outs (101) than ground outs (74)...ground ball-to-fly ball ratio was 0.73...as recently as 2002, Tony's ground ball-to-fly ball ratio was 1.42 (225 gbo, 158 fbo)...was to start on August 3 at STL, but was scratched minutes prior to first pitch when he could not get right-shoulder loose in bullpen...thus, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Armas was credited with having played in the game (on lineup card), but NOT a game started...after 8/3 scratch, flew to LA to meet with Dr. Lewis Yocum for precautionary exam...was diagnosed with deltoid strain in right shoulder...returned to action on August 14 vs. HOU with 5.0 no-hit scoreless innings...did not garner a decision...since teammate Jon Rauch worked 4.2 no-hit innings the day prior, Armas and Rauch became the first teammates to not allow a hit in consecutive starts since the Fritz Peterson and Al Downing turned the trick, September 29-30, for the 1967 NYY...Montreal went 8-8 in Tony's 16 starts...7 of Armas Jr.'s 16 starts resulted in one-run games...Montreal went 4-3 in those 7 contests...Expos won 5 straight games started by Armas Jr., July 23-August 25...went 1-0 with a 4.26 ERA in that span...limited opposing batters to a .247 batting average against...BAA was under .250 for a 5th straight season...struggled with control...issued 5.6 walks per 9 innings pitched, the highest mark of his career...did record 6.75 K's per 9 innings...threw 18.4 pitches per inning, up 2.9 from abbreviated 2003 campaign (15.5)...went 0-1 with an impressive 0.82 ERA (1 ER/11.0 IP) in a pair of starts at Hiram Birthorn Stadium...struggled on the road, going 0-3 with a 7.81 ERA in 7 starts.

Rehab Assignment: Made 5 minor league rehab starts in May, going a combined 0-1 with a 4.19 ERA (9 ER/19.1 IP)...went 0-0 with a 1.80 ERA (2 ER/10.0 IP) in a pair of starts for Edmonton, the last of which came May 27 at Oklahoma...allowed only 2 unearned runs in 4.2 innings in his first Triple-A start, May 22 at New Orleans...made his 2004 debut pitching for Single-A Brevard County on May 6 at Vero Beach...in all, made 3 Florida State League starts, going 0-1 with a 6.75 ERA (7 ER/9.1 IP).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Both wins came at Olympic Stadium...spun 6.0 shut-out innings in a 3-2 win on June 24 vs. PHI...the win was his first since April 10, 2003 at CHI and his first at The Big O since September 26, 2002 vs. FLA...allowed one run on 3 hits in 5.0 innings to nab the win in a 2-1 victory, July 23 vs. FLA..the 7/23 win vs. FLA was Armas Jr.'s first victory in the month of July since July 14, 2001 vs. TB (W10-2)...returned to Hiram Bithorn Stadium—the site of his final start of the '03 campaign—on July 3 vs. TOR...took the loss despite allowing only one run on 4 hits in 4.0 innings...went season-long 7.0 innings on July 8 vs. PIT...went more than 3.2 innings only once in final 5 starts (6.0 innings on September 1 vs. CHI).

Began 5th big league campaign as the Expos Opening Day starter...was off to the best start of his young career—had allowed one or fewer runs in 3 of his 5 starts—but did not pitch after April 20 due to season-ending right-shoulder surgery...last pitched on April 20 in Puerto Rico vs. CIN...allowed 5 runs in 6.0 innings...was touched for 4 home runs (had not allowed a homer in first 4 assignments of '03)...had allowed only 4 runs in his first 4 starts...was placed on the 15-Day DL on April 24 (retroactive to April 21) with a strained-right rotator cuff...was transferred to the 60-Day DL on July 10...had surgery performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum in Los Angeles, CA on May 23...the procedure to repair the labrum in Tony's right shoulder was successful...spent majority of the season rehabbing in Atlanta, GA...with March 31 Opening Day win on at Turner Field, became the 4th Montreal pitcher to earn the win in his first career Opening Day starting assignment...the remainder of the quartet: Bill Stoneman (1972), Charlie Lea (1984) and Dustin Hermanson (1999)...April 9-10 at CHI, teamed with Javier Vazquez to record the Expos' first set of back-to-back 10-K performances since Carlos Perez (10 K) and Pedro Martinez (12 K) turned the trick, August 13-14, 1997 at LA...Vazquez struck out 14 Cubs on April 9 before Armas fanned a career-high 11 the following day (also April 9-10 at CHI, the Expos set a club 2-game record by fanning 29 Cubs)...Montreal was 2-3 in Tony's 5 starts...tossed 17.0 consecutive scoreless innings, April 5-19...went 1-0 with a 1.42 ERA (3 ER/19.0 IP) in the spring to earn the Opening Day start...posted 3 quality starts.

2002

Battled through adversity in 2002 to finish with a 12-12 record and a 4.44 ERA in 29 starts...won his final four decisions to finish the season at .500...set a career high earlier in the season with a five-game losing streak...spent time on 15-day DL, July 27-August 18, causing him to miss 23 days or 20 games...held opposing batters to a .243 batting average against, tops among Montreal starters...14 WP tied with FLA's A.J. Burnett for the most among NL pitchers...went 8.1 innings in 2nd start, April 8 at FLA...was struck on the right ulnar bone (forearm) by a Mike Sweeney line drive, June 18 vs. KC...went 0-4 against ATL...earned the win in Frank Robinson's 700th career victory, May 12 vs. SF.

2001

Led the Expos with 34 starts in first full big league season...ranked 11th in the NL with 176 K's…also ranked 6th in the NL with a 2.70 day ERA and tied for 4th with 34 starts...lost his first 4 starts before picking up his first win May 2 vs. ARI...nabbed the win in a 2-1 victory, August 19 at SD with a career-best 8.2 innings...held SDP to one run on 2 hits, while striking out a career-high 10...won a career-high 6 straight decisions, May 12-June 22...pocketed the win in 5 straight starts before recording 3 straight no-decisions, June 7-17...then won against on June 22 at PIT...posted a 2.56 ERA during the 6-win stretch...became the first Expos starter to win 6 consecutive decisions since Carlos Perez (May 7-June 3, 1998)...worked a career-best 20.0 consecutive scoreless innings May 12-27...went 5-1 with a 2.53 ERA in May and was named Expos' Molson Player of the Month by the Montreal BBWAA...tossed 22.0 consecutive scoreless innings at The Big O, April 15-May 22.

Made 17 starts after making just one prior appearance in a big league uniform (August 16, 1999 at SF)...went 7-9 with a 4.36 ERA, and recorded a decision in 16 of 17 starts (exception: May 19 vs. HOU)...placed on the DL twice...made his debut in Montreal on May 13 vs. CHI (loss, allowing 2 runs on 3 hits in 5.0 innings)...worked team season-best 19.0 straight scoreless innings from September 12-22...Montreal went 8-9 in Tony's 17 starting assignments...limited opposing batters to 7.0 hits per 9.0 innings, the best mark by an Expo since Floyd Youmans (6.7) in '85...posted a team-leading .218 batting average against...right-handed batters hit just .183...ranked among NL rookies in wins (4th with 7) and starts

(10th with 17)...battled right elbow tendinitis in the spring (likely injured elbow in winter ball)...did not appear in a Grapefruit League contest...started the month of April in extended Spring Training...on June 17 vs. ATL, became the first Expo to beat Tom Glavine since August 25, 1992 (Glavine enjoyed a 13-game winning streak against the Expos).

1999

Dominated in first exposure to Double-A, posing a 2.89 ERA...ranked by Baseball America as the 4th-best pitching prospect in the Eastern League and was selected to the circuit's post-season All-Star team...season was highlighted by 3 important events...the first was his selection to the Future Stars Game, July 11 at Fenway Park (father, Tony Sr., had been a member of the Red Sox's organization from 1983-86)...tossed 1.0 scoreless inning...was also selected to participate in the Double-A All-Star Game in Mobile, AL on July 14...earned the win...also made big league debut on August 16 at SF...was recalled after Montreal wrapped up a 5-game, 3-day series at COL (necessitated by Columbine shootings earlier in the season)...was impressive despite taking the loss in a 7-4 final…allowed four runs (only one earned) on 8 hits...SF plated a trio of unearned runs in the 3rd inning...was selected the Expos' Player Development Pitcher of the Month twice (May and July)...was selected the Eastern League Pitcher of the Week on 2 occasions...tossed 23.0 consecutive scoreless innings from July 7- August 5.

1998

Completed first season in the Expos' organization with Jupiter of the Single-A Florida State League...ranked 3rd in the FSL with a 2.88 ERA...also ranked among league leaders in wins (T4th with 12) and strikeouts (6th with 136)...selected to the mid-season All-Star team...pitching for Oriente, led the Venezuela Winter League in strikeouts.

1997

One of baseball's top/hottest prospects...posted 10-4 record with 3 Single-A teams in first full minor league season (140 games)...participated in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game during stint with Greensboro.

1996

Combined to post 59 strikeouts in 61.1 innings for Rookie-level GCL Yankees and Single-A Oneonta of the NY-P League...pitched in 11 games (10) starts for the 2 clubs...notched first save as a pro while with the GCL Yankees.

1995

Broke into pro ball and posted a stellar 0.64 ERA in 5 games (4 starts) for the GCL Yankees...fanned 13 in 14.0 innings.

LUIS AYALA ★ RHP

HT: 6'2" WT: 186 Bats: R Throws: R
Born: 1/2/78, Los Mochis, MEXICO
Opening Day Age: 27 MLB Service: 2.000
Obtained: Selected by MON from ARI with 14th selection in Major League Rule 5 Draft, December 16, 2002.

CAREER NOTES

The most successful Rule 5 selection in the 36-year history of the Montreal Expos...joins fellow Mexicans Vinny Castilla (Oaxaca, MEX), Esteban Loaiza (Tijuana, MEX) and Antonio Osuna (Juan Jose Rios, MEX) in Washington...in 146 career appearances, has walked the first batter faced only 4 times...worked a remarkable 26.2 consecutive scoreless innings from June 18-August 4, 2004...among relief pitchers, Ayala's single-season streak was the longest in MLB since NYY's Mariano Rivera capped the '99 season with a streak of 30.1 innings...it was also the last such streak turned in by a Montreal reliever since Mike Marshall threw 29.1 scoreless innings in '72...other scoreless streak tidbits: Luis' streak was the longest by an Expo since Javier Vazquez tossed a MLB season-high 29.0 consecutive scoreless innings, Aug. 18-Sept. 2, 2003...in '03, Ayala pitched a pseudo perfect game: from May 7-June 1, 2003, retired 27 straight batters, the longest such streak in MLB since '01...pitched winter ball in '04-05, going 0-0 with 4 saves and a 0.84 ERA in 11 games for the Culiacan Tomato Growers in the Mexican Winter League...walked one, fanned 9 in 10.2 innings.

Followed up stellar rookie season with improved sophomore campaign...was again one of NL top middle relievers, but battled periods of inconsistency...led Montreal relievers and ranked 8th in the NL by appearing in 81 games...set career bests in games, innings (90.1), home runs allowed (6), strikeouts (63), strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.2/1), ERA (2.69), holds (21), games finished (21) and pitches per inning (14.6)...12 losses not only led all MLB relievers, they established a new Expos record for relievers...loss on September 22 vs. NYM was club single-season record 12th loss in relief this season...Mike Marshall lost 11 games for the 1973 Expos...pitched in every series of the season except 2 (June 11-13 at SEA and August 27-29 vs. SD)...worked 2.0 or more innings 16 times, including a career-long 2.1 scoreless innings on May 11 at MIL...Ayala' ERA when pitching at least 2.0 innings was 1.11 (4 ER/32.1 IP)...issued only 1.49 walks per 9 innings pitched...6 of 21 holds came in June...worked scoreless 8th inning on October 1 at NYM to nab career-high 20th hold (posted 19 holds in 2003)...padded career-best total with 21st hold in final 2004 appearance, October 2 at NYM...at the plate, collected his first big league hit at Hiram Bithorn Stadium on April 9 vs. NYM off David Weathers (single)...went 3-5 with one save (July 25 vs. FLA) and a 2.25 ERA (10 ER/25.0 IP) against NL East foes...posted more holds against NYM (5) than any other club...did not allow a run in 7.2 innings against ATL in 2004...Montreal went 41-40 when Ayala pitched...was 2-3 with 2 saves and a 2.18 ERA at Olympic Stadium...threw fewer pitches per inning (14.6) than in 2003 (16.0)...pitched better after the All-Star break (2.47 ERA) than in the first "half" (2.89 ERA)...ERA from May-August was 1.93...pitched well when working on consecutive days (2.67 ERA)...posted 5 HBPs (all right-handed hitters)...retired 56 of 81 first batters faced (69%)...pitched in 20 ballparks...did not allow more than one homer in any of the 20 parks.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Recorded 100th career strikeout on August 25 vs. LA (Jason Grabowski)...fanned a career-high 5 on June 29 at PHI...pitched in 100th career game, June 27 at TOR.

Made big league debut after 5 years with Saltillo of the Mexican League, going 10-3 with a 2.92 ERA in 65 games out of the bullpen...became one of the Expos most dependable and important players...led the Expos in relief wins (10) and holds (19)...converted 5 of 8 save opportunities...allowed only 5 of 30 inherited baserunners to score (16.7%)...65 appearances ranked 4th among National League rookies...10 relief wins tied for 2nd in baseball...only SF's Joe Nathan recorded more (12)...tied for 4th among National League rookies with 10 wins...the 10 relief wins in a single season rank 2nd all-time among Montreal rookie relievers...only Bill Sampen (11 in 1990) tallied more in his rookie campaign among Expos...tied for 8th in the NL with 19 holds...tied for 5th in MLB (3rd in the NL) having allowed only 16.7 percent (5 of 30) inherited baserunners to score...Montreal went 43-22 (.662) when Ayala pitched (36-14 beginning May 7) ...not surprisingly, the Expos went 9-15 during Luis's 24-game stint on the DL, June 22-July 20...issued only 1.6 batters per 9.0 innings pitched to rank 4th among all National League relievers (did not walked a batter from April 12-June 14, the walkless string lasted 24.0 innings)...only Joe Roa (1.0), John Smoltz (1.1) and Brian Meadows (1.4) walked fewer out of the 'pen...came into his own in May, going 4-0 with 5 holds and a 0.84 ERA (1 ER/10.2 IP) in 10 games (0 BB, 6 K)...the Expos went 9-1 in May games in which Luis appeared...went 2-0 with 2 holds and 2 saves in 13.0 scoreless innings against NYM and PHI...recorded first career big league win, April 19 vs. CIN in PR...first career save also came in Puerto Rico on June 7 vs. TEX...nabbed first hold of career, April 2 at ATL...closed strong, posting a 2.12 ERA (7 ER/29.2 IP) in August and September...averaged 16.0 pitches per inning.

Arrived in Triple-A Ottawa in August after contract was purchased from Saltillo of the Mexican Leaue...appeared in 6 games with the Lynx, posting a 3.25 ERA...opened the season with the Sarape Makers and finished 6th in the Mexican League with 23 saves and tied for third with 43 games finished.

2001

Opened the season with Salem in the Carolina League...posted saves in 6 of last 7 appearances before having his contract purchased by Saltillo...ranked 5th in the Mexican League with 21 saves...was 0-2 with 11 saves and a 0.76 ERA in first 18 games with Saltillo...posted 10 saves in final 13 appearances.

2000

Loaned by Colorado to Saltillo...his 25 saves tied for third in the circuit...closed out the season with 16 saves and a 1.88 ERA in 24 outings during July and August...recorded saves in 10 consecutive appearances to close the season.

1999

Established a new Mexican Summer League record for saves with 41...snapped the old mark of 39, which was set by Miguel Alicea for Union Laguna in 1994.

1998

Returned for 2nd season with Saltillo...appeared in 47 games, including 4 starts...touched for only 4 home runs in 83.1 innings...after going without a save in rookie season, notched 7 in sophomore campaign.

1997

Kicked off pro career with Saltillo of the Mexican Summer League...walked only 21 in 62.1 innings.

PERSONAL

Luis Ignacio Ayala...wife is Liliana Mendez...the couple have a 3-year-old son, Luis, Jr...became the 3rd Mexican-born player to don the Expos' uniform...the first 2: RHP Tavo Alvarez (1995-96, from Ciudad Obregon) and INF Hector Torres (1972, from Monterrey).

CAREER NOTES

Is a lifetime .298 pinch hitter (64-for-215)...spends his off-season as an owner of a team in the Puerto Rican Winter League, running the operation of the San Juan Senadores.

2004

Spent the majority of the season as one of ARI's first options off the bench, with 63 of his 85 at bats on the year coming as a pinch hitter...hit .222 (14-for-63) in a pinch, with 5 of those hits coming in his last 12 attempts (.417)...capped the season with 24 consecutive pinch-hit at-bats...last field duty occurred on August 13 at NYM...ranked 2nd in ARI annals with 33 pinch hits...trails only David Dellucci's 48 from 1998-2003...endured a 5-week stint on the 15-Day Disabled List in June and July with a left calf strain, suffered June 9 at BAL...once back on the active roster, Carlos went 8-for-22 (.364) over a 16-game stretch, highlighted by the 6-for-11 tear from August 8-13.

2003

A non-roster invitee to spring training, not only made the club, but established an ARI record with 19 pinch hits...closed the year with 5 hits in last 7 pinch at-bats...pinch single in the season finale on September 28 vs. STL eclipsed David Dellucci's mark of 18 during the 2001 season...Baerga finished with a MLB-leading .345 average (among players with at least 40 pinch at bats) and the second-highest hit total (trailing only COL's Greg Norton with 23)...shattered previous single-season pinch hit best, 11 set with CLE in 1990...made 15 starts at 2B, 13 at 1B, 4 at 3B and 6 at DH...batted .317 with 19 runs, 9 doubles, 3 homers and 28 RBI as a starter...he had a career day on April 17 in an 11-2 win vs. COL, providing a pair of home runs and a career-best 7 RBI...the multi-homer effort was the 8th of his career...hit a 2nd-inning grand slam off of Jason Jennings, the second slam of Baerga's career, first since July 20, 1993...Carlos followed with a 2-run shot in the fourth for his first multi-homer effort since May 23, 1995 at BOS...the 7 RBI were the 2nd-most in franchise history (Erubiel Durazo, 9, on May 17, 2002 vs. PHI)...recorded 1,500th hit, July 2 at COL...hit .426 in August and September.

2002

Returned to the big leagues for the first time since 1999...played in 73 games for BOS and led the AL with 10 pinch hits...hit .345 (10-for-29) in that role...posted an 11-game hitting streak from May 22-June 6...homer off Curt Schilling on June 8 vs. ARI was first roundtripper since August 17, 1999 vs. TEX...played for Bayamon in the 2002-03 Puerto Rican Winter League.

2001

Attended Spring Training with SEA as a non-roster invitee...was released on March 30...signed with the Samsung Lions of the Korea Baseball Organization...hit .275 in 39 games...in May, he came back across the globe, signing with the Long Island Ducks of the independent Atlantic League...batted .315 in 53 games to earn a spot on the Atlantic League All-Star Team...after the season he returned to Puerto Rico to play winter ball.

2000

Inked a minor league deal with TBR on February 24 but that contract was voided on March 3 after he failed his physical due to a pre-existing knee injury...did not play professional ball during in '00.

CAREER NOTES

Pitched for the Licey in the 2003-04 Dominican Winter League for former Expos 3B-coach Manny Acta...was the closer as the Dominican Republic won the 2004 Caribbean Series...according to Acta, Beltran's setup men were Guillermo Mota and Felix Rodriguez.

2004

Pitching for CHI and the Expos, spent majority of season in the big leagues for the first time...started the season with Triple-A Iowa, but was recalled 9 days later for first big league stint since 2002...was acquired by Montreal one minute before the July 31 trade deadline in 4-team mega deal that sent, among others, Orlando Cabrera to BOS and Nomar Garciaparra to CHI...SS Alex Gonzalez and INF Brendan Harris were other players acquired by Montreal in the mega deal...reported to Edmonton after the trade...was recalled by Montreal on August 16th for the remainder of the season...was placed on 15-Day DL on August 26—retroactive to August 25—with right shoulder tendinitis...missed 14 games before being reinstated on Sept. 10...combined to go 2-2 with one save and a 5.47 ERA (30 ER/47.1 IP) in 45 games for CHI (34) and Montreal (11)...all 5 decisions and all 5 holds came with CHI, but first (and only to date) big league save came while pitching for the Expos on September 18 at PHI...worked a scoreless 14th inning to earn the save in the Expos' 6-5 win...struck out 48 batters in 49.1 innings pitched, or 8.8 per 9 innings...8 of the 11 home runs he allowed were of the solo variety...stranded 15 of 19 runners inherited...pitched 2.0-plus innings 6 times...retired 28 of 45 first batters faced...9 of 11 homers allowed came in his first 11 pitches...started slowly (6.35 ERA in April), but settled in by going 1-1 with 2 holds and a 2.25 ERA in May...posted a 1.23 ERA (2 ER/14.2 IP) in 12 contests from May 4-June 9...allowed a run in 7 straight appearances from July 18-August 24...was placed on the 15-Day DL on August 26 with right shoulder tendinitis...returned to action on September 11...went 0-0 with one save and a 4.91 ERA (4 ER/7.1 IP) in 7 appearances thereafter...the Expos were 4-7 when Beltran pitched...CHI went 17-17 in similar instances.

In minor leagues/Winter ball: Went 0-0 with 7 saves and a 2.38 ERA (3 ER/11.1 IP) in 11 Pacific Coast League appearances for Iowa and Edmonton...began the season by posting 3 saves in as many days, April 8-11 vs. New Orleans...terrific start prompted April promotion...became Triple-A Edmonton's closer after being acquired by the Expos...posted 3 saves in 5 games with the Trappers.

Game-By-Game Highlights: With CHI: Logged first major league win May 16 at SDP...tossed 1.1 scoreless innings in relief of Glendon Rusch in CHI's 4-2 win...earned his 2nd win on June 29 vs. HOU, again in relief of Glendon Rusch...fanned a career-high 5 on April 26 at ARI...With Montreal: Made first appearance in an Expos' uniform on August 16 at San Francisco...wore No. 39 until club returned from West Coast roadtrip when jersey was switched to No. 55.

On CHI roster from June 15-June 16, but didn't see any action...spent the rest of the season at Triple-A Iowa...went 6-2 with 4 saves and a 2.96 ERA in 31 games for the Cubs top affiliate...earned his first Triple-A win on April 8 at Memphis, with 4 K's in 2.0 scoreless innings...went 1-1 with a 2.45 ERA in 2 starts...over an 11-game span May 3-June 5, he allowed 3 earned runs in 25.1 innings (1.07 ERA)...had a pair of stints on the DL due to a strained right shoulder (June 25-July 27 and August 1-September 2)...prior to his first trip to the injured list, he had been selected to participate in the Triple-A all-star game.

2002

Spent most of season at Double-A West Tenn...went 2-2 with 23 saves and a 2.59 ERA in 39 bullpen appearances...in 41.2 innings of work, he allowed 28 hits and 2 homers, fanned 43...was scored upon in only 7 of 39 appearances...opened the year on the DL due to vertigo...did not see any game action until May 11...in final 21 Double-A appearances, he allowed only 3 runs and 9 hits in 22.0 innings...after returning to West Tenn following his first stint with the Cubs, he was 1-0 with 11 saves and a 1.50 ERA in 17 games (3 ER/18.0 IP)...did not surrender a hit over an 8-game/9.0-inning span, July 19-August 5...pitched for the World Team in the All-Star Futures Game in Milwaukee — and struck out both batters he faced...was selected as the Southern League's 3rd-best prospect by Baseball America in that publication's annual

CAREER NOTES

Had jersey No. 2 retired by the Ottawa Lynx on August 14, 2003...signed by Dan Freed (Expos).

2004

In his 2nd full big league season, posted career highs in numerous offensive categories, including hits (63), doubles (14), triples (2), RBI (16) and runs scored (36)...the most versatile player off the bench for Frank Robinson...made starts at 2B (35), 3B (8), SS (6) and LF (1) in 2004...only Brad Wilkerson (1B and all 3 OF spots) played as many positions...playing time increased, especially with the trades of Orlando Cabrera and Alex Gonzalez, as well as the continued right knee problems suffered by Jose Vidro...excelled as a pinch-hitter in '04...went 8-for-25 (.320) with a double, 2 RBI and 6 runs scored in the pinch...tied Henry Mateo for club lead with 8 pinch hits...posted a .433 OBP in the pinch (8 hits and 5 walks in 30 pinch plate appearances)...saw an incredible 4.38 pitches per plate appearance...over half (32) of his 63 hits came with 2 strikes...batted .381 (24-for-63) with 6 doubles and 4 RBI when ahead in the count...started a season-high 8 straight games from September 15-23, hitting .355 (11-for-31)...beginning June 10, the Expos were 21-21 when Jamey was in the starting lineup...posted vastly superior batting average in the 2nd "half" (.311) compared to before the All-Star break (.260)...hit .323 (32-for-99) with 7 doubles and 21 runs scored in August and September...hit safely in 8 of 9 games from September 7-17, batting .481 (13-for-27) with 3 RBI and 9 runs scored in that span...each of the 13 hits during that stretch were singles...gave up uniform No. 2 when the Expos signed outfielder Carl Everett during the offseason...took ex-teammate and close-friend Michael Barrett's No. 5...had worn No. 2 since being called up in September of 2002...went 10-for-27 (.370) in 13 interleague contests.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Set and matched career highs with 4 hits and 2 RBI, April 28 at SDP...did not start on May 16 at ARI, but went 2-for-2 with a RBI in Montreal's 6-1 series-sweep clinching win...recorded 3 hits in first game of June 10 doubleheader at KCR...collected 3 hits, including a double and a triple, and drove in one run in the Expos' 17-14 win vs. CWS, June 19...made first career start—his first career appearance—in the outfield (LF) on June 29 at PHI...matched his career highs for the 2nd time this season, collecting 4 hits and 2 RBI, in 2nd game of doubleheader September 15 at FLA...in the 5702nd and last game in franchise history, scored the Expos' final run via a Terrmel Sledge first-inning single, October 3 at NYM.

Hit .260 with 10 doubles, one home runs and 10 RBI in 105 games for Montreal in first complete major league season...started games at 3 different positions—3B (46 starts), 2B (5 starts) and SS (2 starts) for Frank Robinson...hit only home run of the season in an 8-4 victory on August 1 vs. MIL...went deep in the 6th inning off Wayne Franklin (the long ball bounced off a speaker in LF)...ranked among NL rookie leaders in batting (9th at .260), on-base percentage (9th at .323) and stolen bases (9th with 5)...recorded his 100th career hit on August 9 at HOU...was the only player not named Orlando Cabrera to start at SS in 2003...made a pair of starts at shortstop: April 12 vs. NYM and May 6 vs. SD (went 2-for-7 with a double and 2 RBI in those 2 games)...saw an average of 4.03 pitches per plate appearance...was one of only 3 Expos players to see at least 4.0 pitches per plate appearance (Brad Wilkerson, 4.37 and Wil Cordero 4.04 were the others)...Montreal went 24-29 with Jamey in the starting lineup...hit lead off 14 times (Montreal went 5-9)...9 sac bunts tied for 2nd on the club...only Javier Vazquez (12) recorded more...went 6-for-17 (.353) with one walk as a pinch hitter...put the first pitch in play only 14 times in 260 plate appearances...went 5-for-14 (.357) in those 14 at-bats.

Found himself on the major-league roster by a stroke of fate...at the completion of Triple-A campaign, was enjoying his off-season when the Expos selected his contract September 10, after Jose Macias (fractured left hamate bone) went down...seized the opportunity, playing in 16 of the team's final 17 games...made big league debut at the age of 28 after nearly 800 games, spanning 7 seasons, of minor-league baseball...a strong spark in the lineup, playing most of his time batting second behind fellow September call-up Endy Chavez...started in all 16 games, 13 starts at 3B and 3 at SS...reached

35 homers represented his highest single-season total since 1998 (46) and ranked 4th among all 3B behind Adrian Beltre (48), Aramis Ramirez (36) and Alex Rodriguez (36)...hit 21 of his 35 home runs on the road, tied for 6th in road HR in the NL...the 21 road homers were also the 3rd highest total in club history behind Larry Walker's 29 in 1997 and Helton's 22 in 2001...now has 291 career home runs as a 3B (303 overall), the eighth most at that position in big league history...recorded a career-best 81 extra-base hits...had 31 go-ahead RBI, tied for second in the NL behind Albert Pujols (34)...made just 6 errors in 148 games for his league record .987 fielding mark...broke the previous NL mark of .983 held by STL's Gary Gaetti in 1998...opened the year by going error free in his first 32 games of the season before a miscue on

May 15 vs. Philadelphia...Vinny handled his first 91 chances of 2004 without an error, a span of 287.1 innings...collected at least one RBI in a career-best 10 consecutive games from April 14-25 (14 total), establishing a new club record...broke the previous mark of 9 straight games with an RBI set by Todd Helton, May 6-15, 2001...became the first big leaguer to post a 10-game RBI streak since Manny Ramirez, Sept. 14-24, 2002 (also 10)...solo home run on April 16 at STL was the 4,000th homer in Busch Stadium history...reached base safely in each of his first 23 games until going 0-for-5 on May 4...belted his 3rd career walkoff home run on May 17 vs. PHI, completing a 6-run rally in a 7-6 victory...became Mexico's all-time hits leader (1620) with an 8th-inning single on July 7 at SF, passing Jorge Orta (1619)...on April 14 vs. ARI, passed Orta (733) for the most runs scored by Mexican-born player...then passed Aurelio Rodriguez (287) for the most doubles on July 10 at SD...named NL Player of the Week for July 19-25...hit .323 with 5 home rs and 9 RBI...homered in 4 consecutive games, July 21-24, matching career high (May 31-June 3, 1998)...equaled a club record by homering in 4 straight road games, joining Larry Walker as the only Rockies to ever go deep in 4 straight away from home...it was the 4th time Castilla has earned player of the week in a Rockies uniform, as he also did so May 8-14, 1995, June 10-16, 1996 and April 7-13, 1997...on Sept. 13 at ARI, Castilla reached 2 milestones with one swing of the bat, as he belted his 300th career home run and collected his 1,000th career RBI with a 2-run shot off Scott Service in the 7th inning...Castilla became the first player to post 300th home run and 1,000th RBI in the same at-bat since Billy Williams did it for the Cubs on May 12, 1971...the last player to even do it in the same game (but not same AB) was Darrell Evans for the Tigers on June 15, 1985...became the 104th player in big league history and first Mexican to hit 300 homers...hit his 30th home run on Sept. 5 and thus became the first player in franchise history to hit 30 long balls in 6 different seasons (1995-99, 2004).

Registered turnaround year at the plate, batting .277 with 22 home runs and 76 RBI in 147 games with ATL...batting average was his best since posting a .319 mark with COL in 1998...had better power numbers in the first half (15 home runs, 48 RBI) but his average improved after the All-Star break, .271 to .285...hit 16 of his 22 long balls on the road...had 5 RBI on April 13 at FLA...had three 4-hit games, April 3 vs. MON, July 10 at CHI and Sept. 6 vs. PIT...during July 10-13 series at CHI, went 11-for-15 (.733) with 2 home runs and 10 RBI...hit .370 (37-for-100) in July...had a career-high 3 doubles on Sept. 6 vs. PIT...Postseason: Started all 5 postseason contests vs. CHI...hit .250 (4-for-16).

2002

Led NL 3B and set a Braves franchise record for the position with a .982 fielding percentage...bested Clete Boyer's previous team mark of .981 in 1968...was the last NL regular 3B to commit an error (May 15 at SF)...belted 4th career grand slam, June 3 vs. NYY...previous slam came one year earlier, June 3, 2001 vs. LA...recorded season-high 4 hits June 10 at MIN...on June 11 at MIN, was a part of back-to-back-to-back home runs, sandwiched between Andruw Jones and Matt Franco...went a career-high 256 at-bats without a homer from June 11 (3rd AB) to Sept. 13 (2nd AB)...Postseason: Led the Braves with 5 runs, 7 hits, a .389 average and tied for the team-high with 4 RBI during NLDS vs. SF...went 2-for-3 with a run and an RBI in a 8-3 win in Game 4...2-run single off Manny Aybar in the 6th inning of Game 3 snapped 1-1 tie...ATL won, 10-2...combined with Javy Lopez on back-to-back homers in Game 2 (2nd time in ATL history back-to-back homers have been hit in a postseason game—Ryan Klesko and Brian Jordan, Game 4 of the '99 NLCS at NYM).

2001

Hit .215 for TB before being placed on waivers May 11...signed with HOU 4 days later on May 15 and went 3-for-5 with a homer, 2 doubles and 3 runs that night at CHI...hit 23 home runs for HOU (2 shy of the franchise record for a 3B—Doug Rader, 25 in '70)...hit .305 in Sept. to help HOU reach the postseason...28 RBI in July ranked 2nd in the NL behind teammate Jeff Bagwell...matched career-high with 6 RBI, Sept. 5 at CIN...6-RBI effort was 2nd of the season, 5th of his career...belted 3 homers in Game One of a July 28th twinbill at PIT...the 3 homers matched a career best set June 5, 1999 vs. MIL and also tied HOU club record...hit 2 homers, including 3rd career grand slam, June 3 vs. LA...again tied career high with 6 RBI...had 7 straight hits from May 31-June 1...Postseason: Led HOU with 3 hits and 6 total bases in Atlanta's sweep in the NLDS...hit his 4th career postseason home run off closer John Smoltz in Game One.

2000

Limited to just 85 games in injury-plagued campaign...had played in 98 percent of COL's games from 1995-99...after never being placed on the DL, endured 3 separate stints in 2000...missed 63 games while on the shelf...he also missed 5 games after he was hit on the right wrist by a pitch from TOR's John Frascatore, July 20...had just 88 at-bats after the All-Star break (25 games)...hit just one home run in his first 15 games, then hit 4 in an 8-game stretch from April 28 to May 7...hit just one more long ball the remainder of the year (May 27 vs. SEA), a span of 241 at-bats.

1999

Topped 30 homers (33) for the 5th straight year, and eclipsed 100 RBI (102) for the 4th straight season...joined Dante Bichette, Larry Walker and Todd Helton to make the Rockies only the 4th team in big league history to feature 4 players with at least 30 home runs and 100 RBI...finished 8th in the NL with 615 at-bats...on June 15, Vinny's 307 consecutive games played streak ended when given the day off...it was the first time he missed a game since June 25, 1997, ending MLB's longest active streak...also snapped his major league leading string of 222 consecutive starts...10-game hitting streak from August 9-17 included 7 consecutive multi-hit efforts...COL opened the season in Monterrey, Mexico, April 4 vs. SD...Castilla, one of Mexico's most popular athletes, didn't disappoint, going 4-for-5 with a double...on April 30 at PIT, hit a 2-0 pitch off Pete Schourek to become the COL's all-time home run leader (173), surpassing Andres Galarraga...May 12 vs. NYM, hit his 100th home run at Coors Field, becoming the first in park history to reach the century club...established career-highs and tied club records with 3 homers and 13 total bases on June 5 vs. MIL...collected 1,000th career hit with a first-inning single off Javier Vazquez, Aug. 13 vs. MON...hit 200th career homer, on Sept. 14 vs. NYM off Octavio Dotel.

1998

Posted astounding 144 RBI, most in a single season for a 3B in NL history, and 2nd to only to CLE's Al Rosen, who drove in 145 in 1953...was one of only 6 players in big league history to hit at least .300 with 40 or more home runs in 3 consecutive years...became the first Rockie to start every game during a single season...set career highs in average (.319), runs (108), homers (46), RBI (144), multi-hit games (61), hits (206), total bases (380), slugging percentage (.589) and extra-base hits (78)...named to the NL All-Star Team, went 0-for-2 in the 69th Midsummer Classic played in front of home fans at Coors Field...participated in the Home Run Derby...earned his 2nd consecutive Louisville Silver Slugger Award (3rd overall)...on Opening Day, March 31 at ARI, belted 2 homers to lead COL to a 9-2 win...the 2-homer effort was the first of 6 on the season...surpassed Jorge Orta (130) for most career homers by a Mexican-born player in opener of April 19th doubleheader vs. ATL...enjoyed a career best month in July, hitting .381 with 12 home runs and 25 RBI in 25 games...on Sept. 4 vs. SD, went 3-for-5 with 2 homers and 6 RBI...the 2 long balls were his 40th and 41st and set a new career high...toured Japan with other All-Stars in a friendship series following the season.

1997

Amazingly, he duplicated his .304 average, 40 homers and 113 RBI from '96...named NL Player of the Week, April 7-13...went 7-for-16 (.438) with double, 2 homers and 7 RBI to nab the citation...hitting just .271 on July 16, hit safely in 56 of his final 66 games (.350, 89-for-254)...posted career-high 22-game hitting streak, August 9-Sept. 1...the 22-gamer was one shy of the club record...went 32-for-83 (.385) during the 22-game run, with 8 homers and 16 RBI...was in on 41 double plays to top all NL 3B for the 2nd consecutive year.

1996

With 40th homer—which came in final at-bat of the year—COL became just the 2nd team with a trio of 40-home run sluggers...joined Andres Galarraga and Ellis Burks to form the historic threesome...the first was the 1973 Atlanta Braves (Davey Johnson, Hank Aaron and Darrell Evans)...hit No. 39 on Sept. 15 and waited until final at-bat of the year, to hit No. 40...was also a part of a quartet that knocked in over 100 runs, tying a NL mark...hit COL's only two grand slams, the first 2 of his career: April 6 at MON and July 12 vs. SDP...homered in three consecutive games on 3 occasions...was the NL Player of the Week, June 10-16...batted .346 (9-for-26) with 4 homers and 8 RBI to earn the award.

1995

After 2 seasons of platoon duty at SS and 2B, he made his third position switch in as many years and made the NL All-Star team as a 3B...started the All-Star Game...was picked by NL manager Felipe Alou to replace an injured Matt Williams...originally a SS when signed by ATL, went to the Arizona Instructional League during the 1994 players' strike to get work at 3B, then earned an All-Star spot at that position in 1995...led the club with 6 multi-homer games and was the first Rockie in history to homer twice in back-to-back games, July 7-8 vs. MON...was NL Player-of-the-Week, May 8-14...hit .609 (14-for-23) with 4 homers and 14 RBI to garner the citation...on May 12 at FLA, posted 4 hits, including a pair of home runs, and 6 RBI...Postseason: batted .467 (7-for-15) and led the Rockies with 3 home runs and 6 RBI in the first-ever NL Division Series vs. ATL...in Game 1, his fourth-inning, 2-run homer snapped a 1-1 tie, but ATL came back to win...hit another 2-run homer at ATL in Game 3, again breaking a tie...later in the same game, drove in an insurance run in the 10th inning as COL posted its only post-season victory.

1994

Played in 9 games for COL before being optioned to Triple-A...returned to the majors June 4...hit .350 after his recall to finish at .331...started at least 2 games at each infield position...made his first ever appearance at 1B on July 29 at SF.

1993

Platooned at short with Freddie Benavides in not only his first full season but also COL's inaugural campaign...hit in 12 straight games in mid-May, but a May 19 ankle sprain halted his playing time...established a club mark with 2 triples on April 25 vs. FLA...hit his first major-league homer, a solo shot off CHI's Dan Plesac at Mile High Stadium on April 27.

1992

Spent the year at Triple-A Richmond and appeared in 9 September games for ATL.

1991

Made 3 stops, Double-A Greenville, Richmond and finally ATL...made his big league debut on Sept. 1 at PHI as a defensive replacement...singled off Houston's Xavier Hernandez on Oct 6 for his first major league hit.

1990

Had contract purchased by ATL on March 19 from Saltillo of the Mexican League...embarked on his minor-league career at Single-A Sumter...earned a spot in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game.

CAREER NOTES

Speediest National...has posted 10 bunts hits each of the last 2 seasons (25 career bunt hits)...has 61 career infield hits, including a career-high 26 in 2004 (posted 24 in '03, 8 in '02 and 3 in '01)...hails from same hometown—Valencia, VZ—as Alex Escobar...the 2 were Spring Training roomates while in NYM's minor-league camp in 1996...signed by Carlos Pascual (NYM).

Began the season with Triple-A Edmonton, but was recalled on April 22 and spent the remainder of the season in the big leagues...was Frank Robinson's starting CF for the remainder of the season...played 127 games in CF, including 122 starts...hit both leadoff and in the No. 2 hole...had the majority of his success hitting 2nd...on-base percentage was much higher hitting 2nd (.347) than when batting leadoff (.291)...posted career highs with 6 triples and a team-high 32 stolen bases...tied Terrmel Sledge for club lead in triples...stole more bases (5) in his first 10 games with the Expos this season than he did in July, August and September of 2003, combined (4)...139 hits ranked 3rd on the club behind only Tony Batista and Brad Wilkerson (both with 146)...finished the season with 37 muti-hit games, just one behind club leader Batista...hit .304 (34-for-112) in May...batted .337 with 6 doubles, 4 triples, one home run and 9 RBI in July and was named Player of the Month by Montreal chapter of the BBWAA...drew only 30 walks in 547 plate appearances...however, batted .330 (30-for-91) in games where he drew at least one walk...posted 9 outfield assists, 6 of which came at home plate...only Juan Rivera (14) had more among Expos...posted a .984 fielding percentage...was successful on 82 percent of stolen base attempts (32 of 39)...batted .308 (16-for-52) in 14 games at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in Puerto Rico...with Chavez in the lineup, the Expos posted a 58-74 record...grounded out (4-3) to end the Expos' 5702nd and final regular-season game as a NL franchise, October 3 at NYM...following the season, hit .285 with 2 home runs, 8 RBI and 5 stolen bags in 32 games with Magallanes of the Venezuelan Winter League.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Matched career high with 4 hits twice in 6 days: May 19 vs. MIL and May 24 vs. ATL in Puerto Rico...homered in consecutive games for the first time in his career, May 29-30 vs. CIN...tallied 3 hits, including game-tying 3-run shot off southpaw Mike Stanton, July 21 at NYM...again matched career high with 4 hits in a 12-inning 7-6 win at CHI on September 7...recorded the 300th hit of his career—a 9th-inning RBI single—on September 12 at ATL...stole 2 bases in a game on 4 occasions: May 1 at LA, August 15 vs. HOU, September 12 at ATL, and September 25 vs. PHI...collected 4 hits in a game on 3 occasions: May 19 vs. MIL, May 24 vs. ATL and September 7 at CHI (NL)...set career single-month high with 8 stolen bases in August, then topped that total with 9 in September.

Hit .251 in first full big league campaign...spent a majority of the season as Frank Robinson's CF and lead-off hitter...patroled the gaps in left- and right-center and flashed a strong arm...ranked 2nd on the club with 18 stolen bases...legged out a pair of bunt doubles in 2003 (not a misprint)...the 2 bunt doubles came April 27 vs. Houston and April 30 at MIL—just 3 days apart...Endy's bunt doubles were the only 2 recorded in MLB in 2003...is also the first player to register more than one bunt double in a single season since at least 1987 (the year that STATS, Inc. began its play-by-play system)...in all, legged out 10 bunt hits in 2003...tied for 11th in the NL with 9 outfield assists in 2003...posted as many assists as noted gun, Shawn Green and one more than Andruw Jones...trailed only Brad Wilkerson (11) and Vladimir Guerrero (10) in an Expo outfield that tallied 38 outfield assists on the season...has 16 assists in 170 games in the outfield for the Expos the last 2 seasons...hit .320 (32-for-100) with RISP...hit the first 2 first-inning lead-off home runs of his career: April 20 vs. CIN off Danny Graves in Puerto Rico and July 27 vs. ATL off Greg Maddux...legged out the Expos' lone inside-the-park homer of 2003 on June 20 vs. TOR off Jeff Tam...the ITP homer was the Expos' first since Peter Bergeron turned the trick on September 18, 2000 vs. FLA...batted .304 (28-for-92) against southpaws, while hitting just .238 (93-for-391) against right-handed pitching...all 5 of his homers came against righthanders...12 of his 30 multi-hit games came in April, including 8 in a 12-game span from April 17-30...first-inning triple off soon-to-be Hall-of-Famer Greg Maddux sparked a 10-2 Opening Day win and the Expos' eventual season-opening 3-game sweep in ATL...had 3 hits, including a bunt single, on the 2nd game on April 2 at Turner Field...posted a career-high 4 RBI—3 of

2002

Won the International League's batting title with Triple-A Ottawa before closing the season with the Expos...was named National League Rookie of the Month in September...became the first Expo to claim the award in its 2 years of existence...hit .337 in September with 5 doubles, 5 triples, one home run, 9 RBI and 16 runs...posted .539 slugging and .362 on-base percentages...posted a 16-game hitting streak, September 10-27...the 16-gamer was the 2nd longest rookie hitting streak in Montreal history (Pepe Mangual, 18 games in 1975)...Montreal went 14-6 with Chavez as its starting CF in September...was also recalled by Montreal in May, but hit just .194...the first recall was his first at the major league level since debuting with KC in 2001...notched five straight multi-hit games from September 11-15...went 10-for-20 (.500) during the 5-game surge...went 4-for-5 with a double and his first career home runs on September 21 at NYM...6th-inning solo shot off Pedro Astacio was the first of his career...hit .343 and was Ottawa's primary CF...became the first Ottawa Lynx player to win the International League batting title...the .343 batting average snapped Jose Vidro's 1997 club record (.323)...hit safely in 25 straight International League games, June 8-July 7...was named to both the mid- and post-season IL All-Star teams, as well as the Topps' Triple-A All-Star team...was named IL Batter of the Week for the period ending May 5...became the first Ottawa Lynx player to hit for the cycle, May 5 at Columbus...went 4-for-4 with 2 RBI and 3 runs scored.

2001

Began '01 with Wichita of the Double-A Texas League...was promoted to the big leagues for the first time by KCR on May 29th...went 1-for-4 with a RBI in his major league debut at TEX later that night...was optioned to Omaha of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League on July 8...played for Magallanes of the Venezuelan Winter League...batted .289 in 49 games...also tallied 10 stolen bases as Magallanes won the league title and the Caribbean World Series.

2000

Played for Port St. Lucie of the Single-A Florida State League...ranked among FSL leaders in batting average (8th at .298) and stolen bases (5th with 38)...played in the Venezuelan Winter League following the season...hit .284 for Magallanes...ranked among the winter league's leaders in runs (2nd with 36), triples (first with 5) and stolen bases (3rd with 9).

1999

Stole 29 bases at 2 levels in the Mets system and advanced to Florida State League for the first time...played winter ball with Magallanes and was named the circuit's Rookie of the Year.

1998

Played in only 33 games for Rookie-level Kingsport...showed batting eye as walk total (17) matched those of strikeouts (17)...stole 10 bags in 15 attempts.

1997

Moved professional career to United States for the first time...combined to play in 52 games for the GCL Mets and Kingsport...posted considerably more walks (33) than strikeouts (20).

1996

Began pro career in smashing fashion, hitting .354 in 48 games for the Mets Dominican League entry...blasted 7 home runs, 3 more than he'd hit the following 5 seasons combined.

PERSONAL

Endy DeJesus Chavez...single...brother Ender, a minor league outfielder, was claimed by the Expos in the minor league phase of the 2003 Rule 5 Draft...the 2 have been teammates with the Magallanes Navigators of the Venezuelan Winter League in the past.

HT: 6'1" WT: 190 Bats: L Throws: L
Born: 10/14/78, Santa Barbara, CALIFORNIA
Opening Day Age: 26 MLB Service: 0.044
Obtained: Acquired from CLE with INF Maicer Izturis in exchange for LHP Scott Stewart, Jan. 5, 2004.

CAREER NOTES

Enters the 2005 season rated by Baseball America as the No. 3 prospect in the Nationals system...is rated among the Nationals' top 5 prospects ("cream of the crop") according the Sports Weekly...signed by Paul Cogan (CLE).

2004

Produced break-out season with Edmonton of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League...was named Expos Minor League Player of the Year after batting .343 with 17 home runs and 78 RBI in 98 games for the Trappers (LHP Michael Hinckley won the Expos Minor League Pitcher of the Year Award)...led all Expos minor leaguers in batting...ranked among Expos minor league leaders in home runs (3rd) and RBI (4th)...hit above .300 every month of the Triple-A season...had never played above Double-A...parlayed Triple-A performance into first trip to the big leagues... was recalled from Edmonton on August 21 when Nick Johnson was placed on the 15-Day DL with a fractured right cheekbone...hit .175 with one homer and 6 RBI in 30 games for the Expos...battled the lingering affects of the flu for the better part of a week at the end of August and the beginning of September.

With Edmonton: Was named to the All-PCL Team along with teammate LHP Scott Downs...ranked among PCL leaders in batting (3rd) and on-base percentage (tied for 2nd with Maicer Izturis at .428)...was rated as the No. 12 prospect in the PCL by Baseball America...was placed on 7-Day DL on August 2 with a right piriformis strain...missed 8 games...played in the Triple-A All-Star Game on July 14 in Pawtucket, RI...went 0-for-2...was named Trappers Player of the Month for May (.31-4-13)...May 31-June 6, hit .471 with 10 RBI in 8 games and was named PCL Batter of the Week...recorded 4 or more hits 6 times....played RF (76 games), CF (10) and RF (9) for Dave Huppert.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Debuted in the big leagues on August 23 at COL as a pinch hitter...fouled out to the left fielder...went 3-for-4 with a walk and 2 RBI in his first big league start, August 22 at COL...also made a diving catch and threw out a runner at the plate in the Expos' 8-2 win...during a September 15 doubleheader sweep at FLA, Ryan, Valentino Pascucci and Brendan Harris all hit their first big league home runs...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last time 3 players on the same team hit their first major league homers in the same day was April 28, 1946, when the New York Giants hosted the Brooklyn Dodgers for, ironically, a doubleheader (21,325 days prior)...Bill Rigney, Buddy Blattner and Jess Pike all homered as the Giants took 2 from their cross-town rivals, 7-3 and 10-4.

With Edmonton: Posted career-high 5 hits on April 9 vs. Sacramento...posted back-to-back 4-hit efforts, June 1-2 at Las Vegas...3 of the 8 hits were home runs...homered twice and posted 5 RBI on June 21 at Las Vegas.

Hit .261 with 13 homers and 52 RBI in 99 games for Akron of the Double-A Eastern League...tied for 2nd on the club in home runs...missed 4 weeks with a left-thumb sprain...hit .325 with 5 doubles, 6 homers and 14 RBI in May, but batted just .249 thereafter while battling the left-thumb injury...hit .304 with 10 home runs and 45 RBI against right-handed pitchers...played 82 games in RF, 16 in CF and one in LF...drove in a season-high 4 runs twice: April 8 vs. Harrisburg and July 29 vs. Bowie...4-RBI performance on July 29 came via a grand slam...posted 6 RBI in 7 Eastern League post-season contests...following the '03 regular season, played for the Mesa Desert Dogs of the Arizona Fall League...went 6-for-15 (.400) with 2 doubles and 3 RBI in just 5 games...struggled with a strained left hamstring in the AFL.

Has stranded all 20 baserunners he has inherited in 81 big league games spanning 2 seasons...was the 2nd player drafted in 2003 to make his major league debut...the first: Cincinnati right-handed pitcher Ryan Wagner...was the first of Montreal's selections from the 2001, 2002 or 2003 drafts to reach the big leagues with the Expos...in 2000, was drafted out of high school in the 26th round by the Padres, but did not sign...signed by Expos scout Dana Brown.

Continued advanced development for a pitcher just 22 years old or 18 months out of college...one of NL's top rookies...in 2nd big league season, went 7-3 with 14 saves and a 2.94 ERA...began the season in middle relief and posted 8 holds before assuming the closer's role from Rocky Biddle the first week of June...established new Expos rookie record with 11th save in 8-5 win on July 31 at FLA...surged past Dale Murray, who in '74, at the age of 24, posted 10 saves and a remarkable 1.03 ERA in 32 games with Montreal...7 wins ranked 2nd on the staff behind only Livan Hernandez...led Expos relievers in wins, games finished (40) and saves...fanned more than a batter per inning (83 SO in 82.2 innings)...limited opposing batters to a team-best .221 batting average against...inherited 12 baserunners in 2004, none of which scored...led all MLB rookies in ERA and batting average against...ranked among NL Rookie leaders in wins (tied for 3rd), saves (2nd), games (tied for 2nd), innings (3rd with 82.2) and strikeouts (2nd with 83)...only ARI's Greg Aquino posted more saves among NL rookies...pitched well in middle relief, going 1-1 with 8 holds, one save and a 2.18 ERA through June 6...after the Expos bullpen struggled to finish games, was named Expos closer by Frank Robinson on June 8...did not receive his first save opportunity until 8 days later, on June 16 vs. MIN and was charged with a blown save when the Twins scored twice in the 9th to send the game to extra innings...MIN eventually won, 5-4, in 11 innings...however, converted 11 save opportunities in a row from June 19-August 12...posted a 2.78 ERA in 21 games during the same time span...after a trio of poor appearances, ERA was a season-high 3.66 on August 23...allowed only one earned run in final 13 appearances or 18.2 innings to finish season with a 2.94 ERA...ERA when pitching in consecutive games was 6.28...with one-day rest, ERA was 0.50...2 days rest: 3.16...3 or more days: 3.05...recorded saves on back-to-back days just once: July 22 at NYM and July 23 vs. FLA...pitched the 9th inning on September 29 vs. FLA and thus, is the last member of the Expos to retire a batter in Montreal...after the game, dedicated his game cap to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY...the Expos went 37-32 when Chad pitched...was 2-0 with 7 saves and a 2.70 ERA at Olympic Stadium...posted 3 saves against both NYM and PHI...induced 3 GIDPs...9 of 14 saves came at home, including 7 at The Big O (2 at Hiram Bithorn Stadium)...6 of 8 home runs allowed came with 2 strikes...4 blown saves: June 16 vs. MIN, August 13 vs. HOU, August 23 vs. LA and September 25 vs. PHI...retired first batter faced 48 times in 69 relief appearances...fanned a career-high 5 batters in only 2.1 innings, September 5 vs. ATL...worked scoreless 9th inning to protect one-run lead and successfully convert first career save opportunity at Coors Field, August 20 at COL (W4-3)...pocketed 8th and final hold of the season on June 4 at CIN...earned first save of the season with 2.0 scoreless innings on May 30 vs. CIN: with the score 5-2, worked a scoreless 8th inning...Rocky Biddle was slated to come in the game until Endy Chavez hit a solo homer in the bottom of the 8th to make the score, 6-2...without a save situation, Robinson did not insert Biddle...Cordero then worked a scoreless 9th to nab the save.

2003

Completed a dream baseball season at just the age of 21...began the year with Cal-State Fullerton as the nation's most accomplished closer, went to the College World Series, signed his first professional contract, made a brief-but successful tour of Single-A ball before making his big league debut with the Expos in late August...signed first professional

CAREER NOTES

By appearing in even one game for the Nationals in 2005, will become the 2nd player in franchise history to enjoy 3 stints with the Nationals/Expos...the first was Lenny Webster, who played for the Expos in 1994, 1996 and 2000.

2004

Spent the majority of the season on the DL in only season with FLA...played in only 27 games...hit .197 with one home run and six RBI in 66 at-bats (72 plate appearances)...was placed on the DL on May 19 (retroactive to May 17) and was out until September 7...underwent arthroscopy on the left knee on May 25...Dr. Dan Kanell repaired a torn medial and lateral meniscus during the successful procedure...underwent the right knee arthroscopy on June 15...was hitting .213 in 22 games with FLA before going on the DL...started slow, going 1-for-15 in first 8 games with the Fish...hit .261 in next 14 games...posted season-high 2 RBI on April 24 vs. ATL...hit only homer on April 21 at PHI off Tim Worrell in the 7th inning, going back-to-back with Mike Lowell...went 11-for-55 (.200) in 14 starts...made 11 starts at 1B, 3 in LF...accepted 3-game rehab assignment for Jupiter of the Single-A Florida State League before returning to FLA... hit .500 with two homers and five RBI with the Hammerheads.

Batted .278 with 16 home runs and 71 RBI in 130 games in his first full season with the Expos since 1995...began the season in a platoon at 1B, but with usual clutch hitting and better-than-anticipated defense, emerged as the Expos' regular starter...by hitting 16 home runs and posting 71 RBI, narrowly missed out on matching or besting career highs (18 home runs and 72 RBI) set in 1997 with BOS...also approached career-best efforts in on-base percentage and slugging percentage....entered the 2003 campaign with more big league service time than any Montreal player (10.059 entering 2003) and—for 2nd straight season—provided experienced leadership for a roster filled predominately with 20-somethings...was one of only 4 players to play for the Expos this season with post-season experience (Livan Hernandez, Fernando Tatis and Todd Zeile)...Wil's Opening Day start in '03 was first with the Expos since starting at SS to begin the 1995 season...batted .341 with 8 doubles, 2 home runs and 15 RBI in May to claim the Expos' starting job at 1B...also posted a .394 on-base and .495 slugging percentages, respectively, to emerge from the platoon...with 3 RBI on May 8 vs. SD, reached the 500-RBI plateau...saw an average of 4.04 pitches per plate appearance...had 3 hits and 3 RBI in a 4-2 win vs. San Diego, May 6...hit game-ending solo homer in the 9th inning of 3-2 win vs. PHI, May 24...posted 4 RBI on July 11 vs. FLA...laced the game-winning 2-run double in the 8th inning to spark a 7-5 win, August 19 at LA...had 3 hits and 4 RBI in a 14-10 win, August 26 vs. PHI...9th-inning RBI double snapped 1-1 deadlock in eventual 4-2 victory on September 21 at NYM...was one of only 3 Expos every-day players to see at least 4.0 pitches per plate appearance...Brad Wilkerson (4.37) and Jamey Carroll (4.03) were the other 2...batted .353 with 12 doubles, 7 home runs and 33 RBI when batting in the 6th slot in the lineup (43 times)...batting in any other slot, combined to go 66-for-346 (.191) with 15 doubles and 9 home runs...Montreal went 64-66 when Wil played, 58-59 when he was the Expos' starting 1B...appeared in just one game in the outfield (April 8 at CHI playing LF after pinch hitting)...strung together 5 straight multi-hit efforts, May 6-10, going 12-for-19 (.632)...was 5-for-12 (.417) with 2 doubles, one grand slam, 13 RBI and one walk with the bases loaded...the grand slam—July 11 vs. FLA off Brad Penny—was the 4th of his career...batted .364 (16-for-44) against NYM, but tallied more RBI (15) against PHI than any other club...went 12-for-22 (.545) with 4 doubles, a home run and 8 RBI in only 6 games against SD...hit .313 (51-for-163) with 8 home runs and 36 RBI at Olympic Stadium...hit .333 (13-for-39) when putting the first pitch in play...posted a .996 fielding percentage at 1B...made only 5 errors there, 2 of which came in the final 10 days of the season.

Began season with CLE, was released and signed with Montreal on May 11...exceeded expectations from moment of arrival...at season's end, was selected by USA Today Sports Weekly as the best righthanded pinch-hitter (10-for-26 with 2 doubles, 3 home runs, 10 RBI and 5 walks in a pinch-hitting role for Montreal) in MLB...thus reached base

CAREER NOTES

Was the 8th overall selection in the 1997 First-Year Player Draft...was the 14th No. 1 pick of the Pirates to appear in a big-league game (first since Kris Benson in 1996)...owns a .262 batting average (626-for-2385) with 112 home runs and 391 RBI in 668 games spanning eight minor league seasons...has already played "for" Frank Robinson thanks to October 2003 invite to Olympic Qualifying Team trials...hit .320 (8-for-25) with three doubles, a homer and nine RBI in 8 games...signed by Pirate scout Doug Takaragawa.

2004

Was a member of PIT's Opening Day roster for the first time...started just one of PIT's first 18 games (April 7 vs. PHI)...made first career appearance in LF on April 12 at CHI...snapped an 0-for-6 streak to start the season with an RBI-single on April 15 at CHI...posted lone outfield assist on April 24 vs. CIN...left May 13 contest at COL after spraining his right pinky finger sliding into second base in game one of a doubleheader...was placed on the 15-Day DL, May 19...began a rehab assignment with Triple-A Nashville on June 4...fell a home run shy of hitting for the cycle on June 12 at Albuquerque...homered twice on June 15 vs. Omaha...14 of his 18 hits on rehab went for extra bases...hit .273 (18-for-66) with 6 doubles, one triple, 7 home runs, 15 RBI and 20 strikeouts in 19 games on first rehab assignment...was recalled from his rehab assignment and reinstated from the 15-day disabled list on June 25...doubled off MON's Scott Downs for first extra base hit on July 11 in San Juan, but suffered a strained right hip flexor stretching hit into a double...was placed on the 15-Day DL for a 2nd time on July 16...began 2nd rehab assignment with Nashville on August 19...went 3-for-18 (.167) with a home run and two RBI in 8 games...was recalled from rehab assignment on September 6, but remained on PIT's disabled list for the duration of the season...played 14 games (7 starts) in RF and 5 more (2 starts) in LF for PIT...went 0-for-6 as a pinch hitter.

2003

Spent majority of season with Triple-A Nashville…led the Pacific Coast League in slugging percentage (.554), tied for 3rd in home runs and ranked fourth in extra-base hits (59)…established minor league career high in home runs…hit safely in 11 straight games from April 13-24 at a .400 (18-for-45) clip…homered in consecutive games, May 17-18 at Albuquerque…hit two home runs on May 27 at Iowa…posted 11 homers in May alone…also homered twice on June 19 vs. Iowa (first game of DH)…batted .333 (39-for-117) with nine home runs, 30 RBI and 13 multi-hit efforts in 32 games from June 19-July 29…went deep in back-to-back contests on July 27 at Colorado Springs and July 29 vs. Albuquerque…also homered in consecutive games August 10 at Colorado Springs and August 11 at Portland…was recalled by Pittsburgh on August 19 after hitting .280 (116-for-415) with 24 home runs and 63 RBI in 119 games with the Sounds…went 0-for-4 in his first start with the Bucs on August 19 at STL…was hitless in his first 7 at-bats before collecting an RBI-single as a pinch hitter on August 22 at MIL…was optioned back to Nashville on August 29…batted .398 (39-for-98) off PCL lefthanders, but hit 19 of his 26 home runs off righties…18 of his homers with the Sounds were solo shots…became just the 3rd player in Nashville's 26-year history to reach 20-homer 20-stolen base status…made 112 appearances in RF, 2 in LF and one in CF…was recalled by PIT for the second time on September 13…went 2-for-4 and hit first major league home run (off Rheal Cormier) on September 14 vs. PHI…went 1-for-9 as a pinch hitter...named by Baseball America as the No. 15 prospect in the PCL and was named to SportsTicker's PCL All-Prospect Team.

Spent full season with Double-A Altoona…ranked 3rd in the Eastern League with a .526 slugging percentage…reached base in club-record 27 consecutive games from July 23-August 18...established minor league career high in batting average...hit .340 (32-for-94) with RISP…played exclusively in RF...posted 6 assists and 6 errors...played in just 3 games during the month of April after spending time on the DL with a right ankle sprain…hit .481 during an 8-game hitting streak, May 22-30…went 3-for-4 with a home run, two doubles and five RBI on July 21 vs. Bowie followed by a 3-for-3 performance with a double, home run and three RBI on 7/22 vs. Harrisburg…named Eastern League Player-of-the-Week for the period ending July 28 after hitting .448 with 5 home runs and 15 RBI in 9 games...was recalled by PIT on September 3...made major league debut a day later at ATL and struck out in his first plate appearance...singled off CIN's Ryan Dempster on September 9 at Cinergy Field for first big league hit, which came in first start.

Began season with Altoona...hit just .214 (18-for-84) in 23 games in April...injured his right hamstring on June 18 and missed 2 months of action...played 4 games with Bradenton while on a rehab assignment, August 18-22...returned to Curve on August 23 and delivered game-winning RBI double that night in 1-0 victory at Akron...made all 62 defensive appearances in RF while playing with Altoona and did not commit an error...went 3-for-13 (.231) in 4 games as the DH...entered the season rated as PIT's No. 3 prospect according to Baseball America.

2000

Spent entire season with Single-A Lynchburg...named to the Carolina League post-season All-Star team...ranked among CL leaders in doubles (2nd), extra-base hits (2nd), home runs (4th) and RBI (4th)...also led league in strikeouts...made 121 of his 122 defensive appearances in RF...had 7 outfield assists...established minor league career highs in nearly every offensive category...homered just one time (June 2 at Potomac) in a 44-game span from May 10-July 2...ended the streak with a 2-homer, 5-RBI effort, July 3 vs. Myrtle Beach...homered twice on August 4 vs. Salem...recorded season-high 6 RBI, August 23 at Potomac.

1999

Spent entire season with Single-A Hickory...batted just .227 in his first 29 games through May 16, but hit .285 thereafter...played exclusively in RF...made 35 appearances as the DH...hit first of two grand slams on May 14 at Columbus...homered in 6 straight games from May 29-June 3...batted .305 in May and .306 in June...homered twice on July 26 vs. Cape Fear...Hit 2 homers, including a grand slam, and knocked in six runs in the same inning in a 14-2 win at Savannah on July 30...played final agame on August 4. ...underwent ulna nerve transfer surgery on right elbow on August 7...entered the '99 campaign ranked by Baseball America as Pirates No. 7 prospect.

1998

Split season between Single-A Augusta and Rookie-level Erie...combined to hit .245 with 12 home runs and 50 RBI in 82 minor league games...made 21 appearances in RF while playing with Augusta...homered in first game with the Green Jackets on April 17 vs. Asheville...swiped first professional base in same contest...missed some playing time during the season due to a strained lower back and a mild left ankle sprain...was on DL due to the ankle injury from April 2-17 and again from May 1-11.

1997

Began pro career with Rookie-level Bradenton of the Gulf Coast League...made 23 appearances in the outfield and did not make an error...put together a 9-game hitting streak from July 17-29 (11-for-32, .344)...hit first professional homer on August 14...hit safely in 9 of his last 10 Gulf Coast League games (10-for-27, .370)...was promoted to Erie on August 29.

PERSONAL

Jerry C. Davis (J.J.)...single...a 1997 graduate of Baldwin Park (CA) High School, where he played baseball, football and basketball...was a pitcher/first baseman in high school...averaged 25 points and 15 rebounds per game as a senior hoopster and was a second-team all-state selection...turned down a baseball and basketball scholarship from the University of Southern California and a football scholarship (quarterback) from Oregon State University to sign with PIT.

CAREER NOTES

Is reunited with SS Cristian Guzman, RHP Tony Armas Jr. and 1B Nick Johnson, all of which were teammates on 1996 Gulf Coast League Yankees championship club...career ground ball-to-fly ball ratio is 543-to-219 (2.5/1)...3-year GIDP totals: 4, 18, 15 ('02, '03, '04)...is 6-4 with a 2.25 ERA (26 ER/104.0 IP) in 15 career day games...went 2-1 with a 1.18 ERA (5 ER/38.0 IP) in day games in 2004...was the 2nd of 3 players to play for the Expos with a first or last name beginning with the letter "Z"...the first was Zane Smith (1989-90)...the last: Todd Zeile (the first to sport a last name beginning with the letter "Z")...entered the 2003 season rated by Baseball America as the No. 4 prospect in the Expos chain...was rated by the same publication as Montreal's No. 8 prospect entering the 2002 campaign...rated the Indians' No. 6 prospect in 2001...a talented artist, sketched a fantastic portrait of Vladimir Guerrero that was published in ESPN The Magazine's September 15, 2003 issue...signed by Steve Chandler (NYY).

Registered solid numbers in full 2nd big league season, but a shocking lack of run support lowered win total to 5 from 9…support per 9 innings (2.47) was the lowest in MLB...was the only starting pitcher whose run support was less than 3.0...SEA's Ryan Franklin (3.14) ranked a distant 2nd...remarkably, the Expos scored only 32 runs while Zach was still in the game...the Expos scored more than 4 runs only twice and were blanked 3 times in Zach's 19 assignments...run support dipped more than 2.1 runs per 9.0 innings compared to 2003...again battled various injuries...was placed on the 15-Day DL on July 6 with right-shoulder tendinitis...missed 13 games (approx. 2 starts) before being activated on July 22...3 starts later on August 1 at FLA, fractured right middle finger while bunting against Carl Pavano...game was eventually postponed due to rain...missed the remainder of the season...posted 14 quality starts in 19 assignments (74%)...quality start percentage was the highest on the club...sinkerballer again proved to be ground-ball machine, posting a 2.09 ground ball-to-fly ball ratio that would have ranked 3rd in the NL with enough innings to qualify (trailing only ARI's Brandon Webb and STL's Jason Marquis)...induced 15 GIDPs in 19 starts...reduced walks (3.47 BB per 9 innings pitched) in 2004 compared to '03 campaign (4.04 BB per 9 innings)...at the same time, increased strikeouts to 4.70 per 9 innings (from 4.18 in '03)...tossed the 2nd shutout of his career in the first game of a doubleheader, June 10 at KC...scattered 6 hits, did not walk a batter and struck out 4...Montreal won, 4-0, and added a 7-2 victory in the nightcap to post its first road doubleheader sweep since August 13, 1999 at COL...at the plate, launched the first home run of his career on May 12 at MIL off Wes Obermueller...became the first Expos pitcher to homer since Britt Reames went deep on May 21, 2001 at NYM...threw fewer pitches per inning (15.7) than in '03 (15.8)...turned in both 14.0 (April 20-25) and 13.0 (June 4-10) consecutive scoreless innings streaks in 2004...Zach's 3.11 ERA in June led Expos starters...cut down on wild pitches (5 in '04, 13 in '03)...was 3-2 with a 3.11 ERA in 7 starts on grass fields...despite a solid 3.65 ERA, went just 1-5 on the new Field Turf at Olympic Stadium...true to last name, went 2-1 with a stellar 1.18 ERA in 5 day games...ERA at night was 5.26....went 1-2 with a 2.88 ERA in 4 interleague starts...Montreal went 8-11 in Zach's 19 starts.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Scattered 9 hits and 2 walks in 8.0 shut-out innings as the Expos topped PHI, 2-0, on April 25 at Stade Olympique and thus became the first Expos starter to win back-to-back starts in 2004...earned the win in front of family and friends on June 4 at CIN...the Cincinnati-native allowed 2 runs on 4 hits in 6.0 innings in his first career appearance at Great American Ballpark...walked 3 and fanned 5...Adam Dunn's broken-bat 2-run homer in the 2nd inning was his only blemish...lasted only 1.1 innings, June 15 vs. MIN, allowing 4 runs on 4 hits in the shortest start of his career.

Posted 9 wins in first full big league campaign...entered Spring Training with no guarantees, but emerged from a pack of contenders for the rotation's 5th spot...garnered a spot by going 1-2 with a 3.81 ERA in 7 Grapefruit League games (5 starts)...the Expos went 14-9 in Zach's 23 starting assignments...his .609 winning percentage led all Montreal starters...posted a 2.72:1 ground ball-to-fly ball ratio (269 ground outs, 99 fly outs) in 2003...would have ranked 4th in the baseball—3rd in the N.L.—with enough innings to qualify...induced 18 GIDPs in 2003...only Derek Lowe (3.92), Brandon Webb (3.44) and Kevin Brown (3.37) ranked higher...was 4-3 with a 3.44 ERA (25 ER/105.1 IP) in 11 starts before being placed on the 15-Day Disabled List on May 31—retro to May 29—with an inflammed right shoulder...missed 50 games before returning to the Expos rotation on July 26 vs. ATL...in 12 post-DL starts, went 5-5 with a 4.91 ERA...Named NL Rookie of the Month for April (2-1, 2.48 ERA) on May 2nd...however, was stripped of award one day later, when MLB determined he had accumulated 52 days of service in 2002, 7 days over the limit of 45...for the record, Zach went 2-1 in April, posting a 2.48 ERA in 5 starts...was predictably better on grass (3.77 ERA) as opposed to artificial turf (4.54 ERA) in 2003...posted a 3.77 (26 ER/62.0 IP) on grass fields, as opposed to a 4.54 ERA (35 ER/69.1 IP) on the plastic...on May 1 at MIL, tossed the first shutout of his career and recorded the most ground balls to result in an out or outs (20) in a single game since April 17, 1996, when PHI's Terry Mulholland registered 21 at Montreal....the 20 grounders to result in an out or outs were the most recorded by a Montreal pitcher since STATS, Inc. began tabulating ground-ball and fly-ball statistics in 1987 (Courtesy Jeff Chernow at STATS, Inc.)...ejected from the game on May 17 at COL after walking Ronnie Belliard to lead off the 3rd inning...had tossed 2.0 scoreless innings when he decided to remove the Krazy Glue he had placed on a his finger to protect a blister...after a quick conference between the umpires, Day was tossed for having a foreign substance on his right throwing hand...fanned a career-high 7 on August 11 vs. COL in a 3-1 win...allowed more than one homer only once in 23 starts in 2003 (2 on August 26 vs. PHI)...went 3-5 with a 6.39 ERA (36 ER/50.2 IP) against NL East foes...finished the season 2-for-47 (.043) at the plate...posted 13 quality starts...Montreal scored just 15 runs in Day's 8 losses...made 2 rehab starts, one apiece for Single-A Brevard County (July 21) and the Expos' Gulf Coast League entry (July 16)...combined to allow 4 runs (2 earned) in 7.1 innings for the 2 clubs.

2002

Pitched at both the major and minor league levels for the first time...pocketed the win in his major-league debut, June 15 vs. TOR...tossed 3.0 innings in relief of starter RHP Carl Pavano in the Expos' eventual 9-3 victory...the victory came on his 24th birthday...thus became the first player in big league history to earn the win in his big league debut on his birthday...took the loss, the first of his career, in first career start, June 22 vs. CLE...did collect his first big league hit in his first career at-bat in the game...singled off CLE's Bartolo Colon in the 3rd inning...pitched at least 4.0 innings of relief twice during the season...was named the Expos' Minor League Pitcher of the Month in May (4-1, 2.77 ERA) in 6 starts with Triple-A Ottawa...limited opposing batters to a .201 batting average against on the month...was first recalled by Montreal on June 14...was then optioned back to Ottawa, June 29...recalled by Montreal for the remainder of the season on July 27...went 5-6 with a 3.50 ERA (35 ER-90.0 IP) in 17 games (16 starts) in 2 stints with Ottawa.

2001

Played for 3 teams in 2 different organizations...reached Triple-A for the first time in his career...began the season with Cleveland's Double-A affiliate in Akron...went 9-10 record in 22 starts before being promoted to Triple-A Buffalo...made one start for the Bisons before being traded to Montreal...was assigned to Ottawa...combined to go 12-12 with a 3.72 ERA in 29 games (28 starts) for the 3 clubs...tossed a career-high 169.1 innings...ranked 9th among Eastern League pitchers with a 3.10 ERA...tossed 8.0 scoreless innings and was the winning pitcher in Akron's opener vs. Reading...retired 18 batters in a row at one juncture...went 6-4 record and a 2.81 ERA in 11 starts in June and July...advanced to Buffalo...won his Triple-A debut, July 29 at Durham.

2000

Went a combined 15-9 with a 2.82 ERA in 28 starts for the 3 different clubs...averaged 9.8 strikeouts per 9 innings for the season....was acquired by CLE from NYY on July 25 with RHP Jake Westbrook and OF Ricky Ledee in exchange for OF David Justice...started the year at Greensboro of the Single-A South Atlantic League before being promoted to Single-A Tampa of the Florida State League on June 10...won first 4 starts, and final 4 starts, with Greensboro...fanned at least 10 batters in 4 separate starts with Greensboro...went 2-4 with a 4.19 ERA in 7 starts with Tampa...at the time of acquisition, was leading NYY minor league system in wins (11) and strikeouts (137)...also ranked 2nd in ERA (2.56).

1999

Split the season with the GCL Yankees and Greensboro...was limited to 7 appearances (6 starts) and 24.2 innings due to right shoulder strain.

1998

Spent the first half of the season at Tampa as a 19-year old...allowed 142 hits in 100.0 innings and was sent down to Greensboro on July 13.

1997

Pitching for short-season Single-A Oneonta, was named to the NY-P League post-season All-Star team...ranked among NY-P League leaders in strikeouts (3rd with 92), wins (tied for 4th with 7) and ERA (5th at 2.15).

1996

Made professional debut with Yankees Rookie-level GCL entry...went 5-2 despite pitching in only 7 games (5 starts)...posted a 7.7/1 strikeout-to-walk ratio (3 BB, 23 SO).

CAREER NOTES

Has limited left-handed batters to a .230 mark (82-for-357) for his career, including a .167 mark (4-for-24) in 2004...signed by Lenny Strelitz (Rangers).

2004

Struggled with left-elbow injuries, but returned to action for season's final 2 months...after rest and preventive rehab in off-season, came to Spring Training hopeful for injury-free campaign...however, left elbow pain again flared up during first week of Grapefruit League slate...had March 18 surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL to remove bone chips and shave bone spurs in left elbow...including 5-game minor league rehab assignment, worked way back to Montreal 4-plus months later...missed 104 games before being activated on August 2...was eased into work by manager Frank Robinson, however, workload increased with time and solid production...finished 0-1 record with no saves and 3.93 ERA in 21 games for Montreal...collected 2 holds: September 5 vs. ATL and September 7 at CHI...limited opposing batters to a .232 (16-for-69) batting average against...again stymied left-haned batters (.167 with 9 strikeouts)...struck out 17 batters in 18.1 innings pitched, or 8.3 strikeouts per 9 innings pitched...the Expos were 11-10 when Joey pitched...stranded 14 of 19 inherited base runners (74%)...opponents batted just .095 (2-for-21) with runners in scoring position...didn't allow an earned run in his first 6 games or 7.1 innings back from the DL...in all, pitched scoreless relief in 16 of 21 outings...was much more effective on the road, where he limited opposing batters to a .179 mark en route to posting a 1.17 ERA (1 ER/7.2 IP)...finished 0-1 with a 5.91 ERA (7 ER/10.2 IP) at Olympic Stadium...ground ball-to-fly ball ratio (2.17/1) was more in line with stellar 2002 season (3.64/1) than '03 campaign (1.73/1)...was a secret weapon off the bench for the Expos...went 2-for-3 at the plate, collecting singles on August 18 at San Francisco and August 29 vs. San Diego...scored a run both times he reached base...now has four hits in his big league career, and has scored a run each of those 4 times on base.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Made 2004 debut on August 5 at STL...retired only batter faced—John Mabry—to pop out...tossed 2.0 scoreless innings while striking out 3 in 6-3 win vs. LA on August 25...struck out 3 batters in 1.0 scoreless inning, September 4 vs. ATL...lone decision came in 4-3, 10-inning defeat on September 25 vs. PHI...charged with only blown save when the only batter faced—NYM's Gerald Williams—reached base on an error, October 2 at NYM...the Expos, however, rebounded to win, 6-3.

Went 2-2 with one save and a 3.06 ERA in 70 games out of the bullpen for the Expos...ranked 2nd on the club with 15 holds...limited opposing batters to a .282 batting average against, including a .255 mark when facing left-handed batters...was touched for a career-high 7 home runs...recorded a 1.98 road ERA (6 ER/105.1 IP) as opposed to a 4.21 home ERA (12 ER/105.1 IP)...recorded lone save on September 11 in Puerto Rico vs. CHI...needed only 3 pitches to retire Randall Simon—via a 4-3 groundout—with the tying run in scoring position...the save was the 3rd of his career (posted 2 saves for Montreal in '02)...career-high 15 holds in 2003 nearly doubled career total (16) entering the season...only 3 of 15 holds came after the All-Star break...was one of 21 National League relievers to post 15 or more holds...ranked 2nd on the club with 70 appearances out of the bullpen...was one of 25 NL relievers to appear in 70 or more games...pitched in 7 consecutive games from May 29-June 5, including both ends of a doubleheader on June 1...posted a 0.79 ERA in April...did not allow an earned run in his first 10 appearances or 6.2 innings pitched of the season...went 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA (0 ER/6.2 IP) in 9 outings against PHI...limited the Phillies' left-handed hitting duo of Bobby Abreu and Jim Thome to a combined 3-for-14 mark (.214)...went 1-for-4 at the plate in 2003...singled off Brad Penny on September 6 in Puerto Rico vs. FLA...stranded 35 of 57 inherited baserunners (61%)...picked off 2 runners...induced 8 double-play grounders...Montreal went 34-36 in games in which Eichen appeared....was nominated by the Expos for the 2003 Roberto Clemente Award presented by John Hancock...since joining the Expos in May of 2001, Eischen has visited hospitals, schools, blood clinics and autograph sessions...he has also participated in numerous youth baseball clinics...Joey is closely associated with Canada's Ronald McDonald Children's Charities.

2002

Began the season with Triple-A Ottawa, but earned May 2 promotion to big leagues...pitched in 59 big league games...went 6-1 with a stellar 1.34 ERA...also netted the first two saves of his major league career (August 23 at SF and September 4 vs. PHI)...led the Expos in ERA and relief wins...surrendered just one home run all season...recorded the 2nd-lowest ERA among major-league relievers with at least 25.0 innings pitched...only ATL's Chris Hammond (0.96) was better...worked scoreless relief in 16 straight appearances, August 1-September 10, a span of 14.2 innings...picked up six relief wins to lead the Expos in that category...relief win on June 20 vs. KCR was his first victory at the big league level since August 29, 1996 vs. KCR...retired all three batters faced in the 11th inning to get the winning decision in the game's final inning...suffered lone loss, May 15 at SDP...collected first career hit August 7 at St. Louis (lead-off double off Steve Kline in the 7th inning)...went 3-0 with a 1.50 ERA in 11 relief appearances in September...his three victories tied with Bartolo Colon for second on the team, behind only Tony Armas Jr.'s four wins...matched career high with 5 K on September 29 vs. CIN (also June 21, 1996 vs. HOU)...was ejected by home-plate umpire Paul Emmell in the 7th inning on July 7 at PHI for hitting Marlon Anderson, the first batter he faced...however, both benches had already been warned...the ejection was the first of his career.

2001

Split season between Montreal and Ottawa...was one of the Lynx' top relievers...began season in Ottawa, but was recalled on May 11...May 11 appearance at COL was first at the big league level since pitching in one game for CIN in 1997...made one appearance with the Expos before being designated for assignment on May 15...was then outrighted to Ottawa on May 18...returned to Montreal July 19...remained with the Expos for the remainder of the season.

2000

Signed with CLE, but was released in the spring...resigned with the independent Adirondack Lumberjacks of the Northern League...pitched well for the Lumberjacks (7-1, 1.80 ERA) and signed with the Expos in late summer...was assigned to Ottawa, with whom he had pitched in 1993 and '94.

1999

Signed with ARI after being released by CIN...was assigned to Triple-A Tuscon...went 1-3 with a 4.09 ERA in 27 games for the Sidewinders before being released on July 1...signed with Adirondack for the remainder of the season.

1998

Pitched in 61 games for Triple-A Indianapolis...pitched for only one club for the first time since 1992 (Single-A West Palm Beach)...posted 2 saves...fanned 7.4 batters per 9 innings pitched.

1997

Made just one relief appearance with CIN (April 28 vs. NYM), but did pitch in the big leagues for a 4th straight season...finished 1-0 with a 1.27 ERA in 26 games with Indianapolis.

1996

Began the season with LA, but was traded to DET for OF Chad Curtis...combined to go 1-2 with a 4.21 ERA in 52 games for the Dodgers and Tigers...allowed just 14 of 39 inherited baserunners to score on the season.

1995

Started the year with Ottawa, but was traded to LA with OF Roberto Kelly in exchange for OF Henry Rodriguez and INF Jeff Treadway...posted a 3.10 ERA in 17 games with the Dodgers.

1994

Pitched well enough with Ottawa to earn first promotion to major leagues...made big league debut on June 19 vs. PHI...allowed 4 earned runs in 0.2 innings...following the season, pitched with Mesa of the Arizona Fall League.

1993

Capped the season with Ottawa, but not before being named Eastern League Pitcher of the Year...went 14-4 with a 3.62 ERA in 20 starts for Double-A Harrisburg to garner the citation...led the Eastern League with the 14 wins.

1992

Pitched the entire season with West Palm Beach...tossed 3 complete games, including 2 shutouts...fanned 167 in just 169.2 innings...was touched for just 5 home runs in 27 games (26 starts).

1991

Began the season with the Rangers organization, but was acquired by the Expos on July 21, 1991 with RHP Jon Hurst and a player to be named (RHP Travis Buckley) in exchange for RHP Oil Can Boyd.

1990

Posted 10 decisions in 12 starts for Rookie-level Butte...fanned 57 in just 52.2 innings.

1989

Jumped started professional career going 4-1 with a 2.82 ERA in 14 games (8 starts) for the GCL Rangers...posted an impressive 5.2/1 strikeout-to-walk ratio.

PERSONAL

Joseph Raymond Eischen...he and wife Nicole have 2 children, Joseph Jr. (3/12/97) and Jayden (4/20/00)...graduated in 1988 from West Covina (CA) High School, where he played football, basketball, baseball and tennis...also attended Long Beach State University and Pasadena Community College...hobbies are family, workouts and coaching basketball in the off-season at Lemon Bay High School.

CAREER NOTES

Born and raised in Valencia, VZ, is joined on Nationals' 40-man roster by fellow Venezuelans Tony Armas Jr. (Puerto Piritu, VZ) and Endy Chavez (Valencia, VZ)...hails from same hometown—Valencia, VZ—as Chavez...the 2 were Spring Training roomates while in NYM's minor-league camp in 1996...still just 26 years old (does not turn 27 until September)...once regarded as one of baseball's premium prospects...has 15 career outfield assists in just 82 major league games in the OF...signed by NYM-scout Gregorio Machado.

2004

Began season with CLE, but was claimed off waivers by CWS on August 16...played in just 62 games for CLE and Buffalo of the Triple-A International League due to a navicular fracture in his right foot...did not see action after July 4...was placed on the 15-Day Disabled List, by the ChiSox, on August 17...earned spot on first Opening Day roster...hit .276 for CLE in April, but just .170 thereafter...made 21 starts in CF, 15 in RF and five in LF....remarkably, recorded 9 OF assists in just 42 games (prorated 35 per 162 games)...hit .305 with 10 RBI, 12 runs scored and a .423 on-base percentage in 18 games from April 20-May 17...hit safely in a career-high 7 straight games, April 20-30...hit .450 during the 7-gamer...collected season-high 3 RBI on May 9 at BAL...was optioned to Buffalo on June 11...hit .286 with 4 home runs and 10 RBI in 16 games with the Bisons...went 4-5 with two home runs and five RBI on June 24 vs. Durham...went 15-43 (.349) in final 12 games with Buffalo before the injury.

2003

Started the season with Buffalo, but hit .273 with 5 home runs and 14 RBI in 28 games with CLE after being recalled on August 15...combined to hit .382 (21-55) vs. DET, KCR and MIN, but went hitless in 11 at-bats against CWS...made 25 starts in RF...on August 15 vs. TBR, went 0-for-4 in first major league action since 2001...homered in consecutive games, August 31 vs. TOR and September 3 at DET ...turned the same trick September 16-17 vs. KCR...posted consecutive 3-hit games on September 10-11 at KCR...hit .353 in his final 14 games of season...began the season with Buffalo...blasted 24 home runs in 118 games...led the International League in home runs and was tied for second in RBI at the time of his promotion to the Indians...was named to the IL All-Star team...played all 3 OF positions for the Bisons...hit just .158 in April...hit two homers on June 9 vs. Rochester...posted season-best 6 RBI, May 9 at Indianapolis....hit .273 with 2 homers and 16 RBI in the Venezuelan Winter League.

2002

Missed entire season after suffering a torn anterior cruciate ligament in his left knee making a catch against the CF wall in a March 4 Grapefruit League contest at PIT (in Bradenton)...underwent surgery on March 21 at Cleveland's Lutheran Hospital in a procedure performed by Dr. Mark Schickendantz and Dr. Louis Keppler to repair the ACL and meniscus.

2001

Named NYM's No. 1 prospect by Baseball America...was cited by same publication as the 18th-best prospect in baseball prior to the season...was recalled by NYM from Norfolk of the Triple-A International League on May 8...was selected to play in the All-Star Futures Game in Seattle, but did not play (in big leagues)...hit .200 (10-50) with three home runs and eight RBI in 18 games with NYM...collected his first major-league hit (single off Pedro Astacio) and RBI in his debut, May 8 at COL...was optioned back to Norfolk on May 16 before being recalled again on June 20...hit first big league home run on June 23 vs. ATL off Tom Glavine...was optioned back to Norfolk on June 26...was recalled for a 3rd time on September 11...posted career highs with two home runs and four RBI on October 5 vs. MON...while with Norfolk, batting .267 with 12 home runs and 52 RBI in 111 games...hit .441 with two home runs and 12 RBI in final 11 IL games then batted .333 in five IL playoff games...hit .221 in 25 Venezuelan Winter League contests...was traded to CLE in blockbuster 8-player deal, December 11.

Born: 7/10/79, Wilmington, NORTH CAROLINA
Opening Day Age: 25 MLB Service: 0.000
Obtained: Selected from TOR in the Major League Rule 5 Draft, December 13, 2004.

CAREER NOTES

One of baseball's fastest players...was NYY's top selection in the 1997 First-Year Player Draft, but in lieu of significant contract offer, chose to play college baseball (and football) at the University of North Carolina (more on football located in personal section below)...after 3 seasons at UNC, was drafted as a "sandwich" pick by TEX (35th overall) in 2000...did not sign due to concerns about right knee and did not play for the Tar Heels as a senior (chose to rehab knee)...was then drafted in the 3rd round of 2001 First-Year Player Draft by TOR...signed on July 2, 2001 by TOR scout Charlie Aliano.

2004

Playing for Double-A New Hampshire, struggled making contact in final season in the TOR chain...fanned 110 times in 133 games, or nearly as often as first 3 pro seasons combined (116 SO from 2001-03)...42 stolen bags led all TOR minor leaguers and ranked 2nd in the Eastern League...hit .321 when making contact (aka subtracting strikeouts).

2003

Combined to hit .283 with 22 doubles and 26 stolen bases for Dunedin of the Single-A Florida State League (97 games) and New Haven of the Double-A Eastern League (33 games)...posted 12 multi-hit efforts in 33 Eastern League contests.

2002

Entered the '02 campaign rated as the No. 10 prospect in the TOR chain by Baseball America...advanced to Single-A Charleston, but battled injuries...played in just 48 games...hit .333 with both RISP and with runners on base.

2001

Hit .368 and posted impressive on-base (.464) and slugging numbers (.521) for Auburn of the short-season Single-A NY-P League...posted 2 hits in pro debut, July 28 vs. Jamestown...slugged first pro homer, August 12 at Williamsport.

PERSONAL

Carlton Tyrell Godwin...single...a December 2000 graduate of the University of North Carolina...majored in history...attended UNC on the prestigious Morehead Scholarship...hit .362 with 54 stolen bases in 3 seasons at UNC...as a junior, hit .363 with 11 home runs, 67 RBI and 24 stolen bases...played 2 seasons (1997-98) of football at North Carolina before choosing to concentrate on baseball...was ranked among Top 50 prep players in the nation as a high school senior...a 2-time prep All American in baseball, was rated by Baseball America as the top prep player in the state of North Carolina...led American Legion team to state championship in 1996...on the gridiron, was rated by the Durham Herald Sun as one of the state of North Carolina's top 5 prep players...was featured in 1997 Sports Illustrated article chronicling 2-sport athletes...played for Team USA in summer of 1999...started 34 games and hit .357 with 10 doubles, 4 home runs, 22 RBI and 9 stolen bases...underwent arthroscopic surgery on his right knee in November of 1998 after suffering an injury in a football game against Pittsburgh.

CAREER NOTES

Signed with Nationals as minor league free agent on December 13...is familiar with both Nationals GM Jim Bowden and manager Frank Robinson...while GM of CIN, Bowden acquired Hammonds on August 10, 1998 from BAL in exchange for 3B Willie Greene...Robinson was a member of BAL's front office in 1992 and played a vital role in Hammonds' signing with the Orioles...was named to USA Baseball's All-Time team on December 8, 1999.

2004

Entered spring training in hopes of becoming a starting OF for SF...however, broken right thumb, sustained on March 9 against MIL, derailed hopes...was placed on the 15-Day DL on April 4 (retroactive to earliest date possible)...was expected to miss 6 weeks, but was activated by SF on April 11...made 2004 debut that afternoon at SD (0-for-1 off bench)...homered twice in 3 games, May 8-12...last home run came May 12 vs. PHI off Randy Wolf...hit just .211 with 3 home runs and 6 RBI in 40 games (22 starts) for SF before being released on June 3...started games at all 3 OF spots for Felipe Alou...did not sign with another club.

2003

Began season with MIL, but by season's end had become one of SF's most productive bench players...hit .277 with 20 runs, 10 doubles, 3 homers and 10 RBI in 36 games with SF...made 23 starts for SF (11 in CF, 9 in LF and 3 in RF)...made 6 starts August 26-30 while Barry Bonds was on Bereavement List, going 6-for-21 (.286) with 2 doubles, one homer and 3 RBI...efforts helped SF win 5 of 7 contests on the trek and solidify wire-to-wire run to NL West title...in last 15 starts, hit .356 with 9 doubles and 2 home runs...matched career high with 4-hit effort, September 13 vs. MIL...first long ball as a Giant was a 7th-inning game-winning 2-run shot off Brian Boehringer, August 7 vs. PIT...played in 10 games for MIL before being placed on 15-Day DL with high right ankle sprain on April 16...was subsquently released by MIL on June 4...signed minor league contract with SF on July 1...batted .333 with 2 home runs in 11 games for Fresno of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League before having contract purchased prior to July 30 contest at CHI...hit .400 (2-for-5) in NLDS vs. FLA...started Game 4 in RF, going 2-for-4...9th-inning single in Game 4 resulted in J.T. Snow being thrown out at plate to end series.

2002

Played in career-high 128 games for MIL...set career highs in doubles (26), triples (5) and walks (52)...was just 3rd time in career he had played in 120-or-more contests...belted his 100th career homer on July 5 at CIN off Elmer Dessens...performed better in first half (.282 with 7 home runs and 34 RBI) than after the All-Star break (.216 with 2 homers and 7 RBI)...homered in consecutive games July 20 and 21 at COL, then went without a long ball in final 138 at-bats (154 plate appearances) to end campaign.

2001

Was MIL's Opening Day CF, however, played in just 49 games before suffering season-ending injury...was placed on 15-Day Disabled List on June 9 with strained right shoulder...underwent season-ending surgery on July 27 to repair torn labrum in right shoulder, procedure performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum in Los Angeles...was transferred to 60-Day DL on August 1...hit .247 with 6 home runs and 21 RBI prior to the injury...hit 2 home runs, May 30 at STL.

1998

Combined to hit .280 with 6 home runs and 39 RBI in 89 games for BAL and CIN...with O's, hit first career grand slam on May 23 at OAK off Jimmy Haynes...back spasms rendered 5-week stay on 15-Day DL, June 3-July 9...in deal cultivated by Jim Bowden, was acquired by CIN in exchange for OF Willie Greene, August 10...made NL debut on August 11 vs. PIT...started in CF and went 2-for-4...overall with CIN, hit .302 with 11 RBI in 26 games, including 24 starts in CF...appeared in 25 games for Reds before soreness in left wrist kept him out of lineup...made last start September 10...only appeared in one more game, as pinch runner, September 22 vs. PHI...next day, underwent surgery to repair hamate fracture and torn triangular fibro cartilage in left wrist.

1997

Hit career-high 21 homers as BAL claimed AL East title...impressive power numbers came despite strained left achilles tendon that limited playing time down stretch...posted trio of multi-HR games...hit 2 home runs on May 13 vs. TEX, June 25 at MIL and July 5 at DET...played all 3 OF positions on July 3 at DET...hit game-winning 2-run shot off Eric Plunk in first game of day/night doubleheader, September 15 vs. CLE...the game-wininng homer traveled an estimated 460 feet, and at the time, was the 2nd longest homer in the 6-year history of Oriole Park at Camden Yards...received just 13 post-season at-bats due to nagging achilles' injury.

1996

Opened season as Baltimore's starting LF...was hitting .286 on April 27, but went into 23-for-117 (.197) slump over next 34 games and was optioned to Rochester of the Triple-A International League on June 17...hit .272 in 34 minor league contests and was recalled by BAL on July 31...strained left knee while attempting to make sliding catch on August 15 at OAK...was placed on 15-Day Disabled List next day...was activated on September 22, but did not appear in game following return...played winter ball in Puerto Rico during off-season.

1995

Suffered through injury-plagued campaign...made fast return from off-season knee surgery, earning Opening Day start in RF...however, played in only 7 games through May 9 due to soreness in surgically repaired right knee...was optioned to Bowie of Double-A Eastern League, May 14...was recalled by BAL on May 26...hit safely in 10 of first 12 games upon return...was placed on 15-Day Disabled List, July 18, with strained right trapezius muscle...was not activated until September 3...appeared in 6 September contests, all off bench, and went 1-for-3 with a double.

1994

In only 2nd professional season, hit .296 to rank 3rd on club...trailed only Rafael Palmeiro (.319) and Cal Ripken (.315)...ranked 2nd in AL and 4th in MLB by hitting .317 when behind in count...batted .303 when hitting 9th...cut his face and sustained mild concussion in home plate collision with Bill Haselman, April 30 at SEA...while out due to affects of concussion, strained right knee in batting practice and was placed on 15-Day DL, May 10 (retroactive to May 4)...had hit .326 in 23 games prior to being placed on DL...was activated June 16...hit game-ending home run on July 9 vs. OAK off Bob Welch...long ball gave BAL an 8-7 win...posted 10-game hitting streak July 24-August 2...hit .366 during the 10-gamer...had successful reconstructive surgery of anterior cruciate ligament in right knee on October 11...procedure was performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL...injury originally occured while playing high school football.

1993

In first pro season, marched through BAL minor league system...excelled in stops at Rochester and Bowie before being promoted to big leagues...hit .305 in 33 games for BAL to rank 2nd in batting among AL rookies with at least 100 at-bats...trailed only MIN's Chip Hale (.333)...made 27 starts with O's...despite posting 32 hits and 11 multi-hit games for BAL, did not relinquish rookie status for upcoming '94 season...became first player from '92 First-Year Player Draft to reach the big leagues...began season at Bowie, but was promoted to Rochester on May 3...was then recalled by BAL on June 25...arrived at Camden Yards in first inning that night vs. NYY and made big league debut as pinch-hitter in 6th inning...later in same game, recorded RBI single off Jim Abbott in first big league plate appearance, then added another single and IBB as BAL rallied from 6-0 deficit to win, 7-6, in 10 innings... drilled double and 2-run homer in first major league start on June 26 vs. NYY...became first Oriole rookie to record 2 hits in each of his first 3 games since Rich Coggins turned to trick in first 4 big league starts in '72...posted at least one hit in each of first 6 big league games to tie Chito Martinez' 1991 club record for lonest hitting streak to start a big league career...registered 11 multi-hit efforts and hit .337 with 19 RBI in first month with BAL...was hitting .352 on July 30, but began to suffer muscle spasms in neck...further testing revealed herniated disk in neck...was placed on 15-Day Disabled List on August 8...was activated September 1, but played in only 2 games before returning to 15-Day DL on September 28...without surgery, was declared physically fit on November 18.

1992

BAL's first selection (4th overall) in the '92 First-Year Player Draft...signed with O's on July 11 after pre-Olympic game at Oriole Park at Camden Yards...was introduced to crowd at that night's MIN-BAL game...did not play for BAL organization that summer due to commitment to U.S. Olympic Team...was member of Team USA club that captured Bronze medal at 1992 Olympics in Barcelona...led US in batting (.414) and slugging percentage (.586) during round-robin play.

PERSONAL

Jeffrey Bryan Hammonds...married wife, Keisha, on Jan. 26, 2002...the couple have a daughter (Tierra) and son (Brycen)...played collegiate baseball at Stanford, where he majored in history...hit .353 with 27 home runs, 151 RBI and 102 stolen bases in 174 games for the Cardinal spanning 3 seasons (1990-92)...hit .355 in 1990 to become first freshman in school history to earn first-team All-America honors...was also named Freshman of Year by Baseball America and Collegiate Baseball...set school and Pac-10 record with 37-game hitting streak and was named to College World Series All-Tournament squad...graduated from Scotch Plains-Fanwood (NJ) High in 1989...was named 1st-team All-State in baseball 3 consecutive years...led all New Jersey prepsters with .545 batting average during sophomore season...also was football standout, getting recruited as defensive back by Notre Dame, Michigan, UCLA, Miami (FL) and Virginia...however, gave up gridiron after junior year to concentrate on baseball...was named Gatorade New Jersey State Baseball Player of Year as senior...was drafted by TOR in 9th round of '89 First-Year Player Draft, but did not sign.

CAREER NOTES

Is a career .302 hitter with 41 home runs and 198 RBI in 4 minor league seasons, spent mostly in the Cubs system...was the final piece of the puzzle in July 31 four-team mega deadline deal that sent, among others, Orlando Cabrera to BOS and Nomar Garciaparra to CHI...SS Alex Gonzalez and RHP Francis Beltran were other players acquired by Montreal in the blockbuster...enters '05 rated by Sports Weekly as one of the Nationals' top 5 prospects, in the "cream of the crop" category...signed by CHI scout Billy Swoope.

2004

Advanced beyond Double-A for the first time and excelled, hitting .302 with 27 doubles, 17 home runs and 59 RBI in 102 Pacific Coast League games for Iowa and Edmonton...was the final piece of the puzzle that allowed 4-team mega deal—that featured, among others, Orlando Cabrera and Nomar Garciaparra—to go through just one minute before trading dealine...Harris' .302 batting average kept his career mark (now .302) above .300 at the minor league level...'04 performance merited first big league stint...hit .169 (10-for-59) with 3 doubles, one homer and 3 RBI in 23 games for CHI and Montreal...was recalled by Montreal on September 7 after hitting .285 with 6 homers and 24 RBI in 33 games with Edmonton...was rated among Top 20 Players in the PCL following the season by Baseball America...recalled on July 5 when Todd Hollandsworth was placed on the 15-Day DL, made big league debut with CHI on July 6 vs. MIL...started at 3B and went 1-for-3...first big league hit was a double off Victor Santos in the 3rd inning...started 2 more games with the Cubs before being optioned back to Iowa on July 19...made Expos debut on September 8, ironically, at Wrigley Field...went 1-for-3...hit first big league homer in nightcap of doubleheader, September 15 at FLA...the solo shot to center field came in the 8th inning off Josias Manzanillo...during the September 15 doubleheader sweep at FLA, Brendan, Valentino Pascucci and Ryan Church all hit their first big league home runs...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last time 3 players on the same team hit their first major league homers in the same day was April 28, 1946, when the New York Giants hosted the Brooklyn Dodgers for, ironically, a doubleheader (21,325 days prior)...Bill Rigney, Buddy Blattner and Jess Pike all homered as the Giants took 2 from their cross-town rivals, 7-3 and 10-4.played both 2B (11 games, 10 starts) and 3B (7 games, 6 starts) for CHI and Montreal.

In PCL: Was hitting .311 with 11 homers and 35 RBI in 69 games with Iowa upon being acquired by the Expos...hit safely in 17 straight starts for Iowa from May 26-June 14...hit in 12 straight games, August 10-22, as a member of the Trappers.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Posted career-high 2 hits on in nightcap of doubleheader, September 15 at Florida.

In PCL: Posted season-high 4 hits, June 14 at Albuquerque...homered in 3 straight games, June 23-25...hit 2 solo homers and walks twice on July 28 vs. Tucson...had 2 hits in first game with Edmonton, August 3 at Nashville...drove in season-high 5 runs on August 19 at Salt Lake.

2003

Was added to the Cubs' 40-man roster in November 2003…spent his three-season minor league career playing in the Cubs' farm system...has a .302 batting average in 275 minor league games — and a .376 on-base percentage...batted .280 with 46 extra-base hits and 52 RBI at Double-A West Tenn...hit .350 with runners in scoring position, driving in 42 runs...finished third in the Southern League in triples (7) and 4th in doubles (34)...played in 103 games at third base, 20 games at second base and 1 game at shortstop...after the season, he played for the Mesa Solar Sox in the Arizona Fall League and batted .302 with 10 extra-base hits and 19 RBI.

CAREER NOTES

In 2 years with the club, has tossed a complete game in 25 percent (17 of 68) of his starts...has reached the 30-start plateau 7 straight seasons...is one of 4 big league pitchers to turn the 30-start trick each of the last 7 seasons (Tom Glavine, Greg Maddux, Bartolo Colon)...has surpassed the 200-inning plateau 6 times in 7 years (missed in 2001, working "only" 199.2 innings)...22 complete games since the beginning of 2002 season are the most in MLB...95 career wins rank 6th among Cuban-born pitchers (Pedro Ramon ranks 5th with 117)...named to first NL All-Star team in 2004...tabbed by FLA-skipper Jack McKeon...didn't pitch in the AL's 9-4 win on July 13 at Minute Maid Park...when named to NL All-Star Team, became first Cuban-born All-Star pitcher since TBR's Rolando Arroyo in '98...received 5th career Opening Day start on April 6, 2004 at FLA (became the 18th and final pitcher to toe the rubber on Opening Day for the Expos)...is 3-1 with a 3.86 ERA (14 ER/32.2 IP) in 5 Opening Day assignments to date...is 1-1 with a 3.15 ERA (7 ER/ 20.0 IP) in a trio of Opening Day road starts...at the plate, won the NL Silver Slugger award for pitchers...led all MLB pitchers with 8 extra-base hits and 10 RBI...is a career .236 hitter (133-for-564) with 5 home runs and 55 RBI...on April 13, agreed to terms on a 4-year contract—adding 3 years to the current term of his contract—through 2007.

Posted numbers remarkably similar to last season, but win total fell from 15 to 11 thanks largely to drastic decline in run support (5.40 in 2003, 3.95 in 2004)...run support was lowest of big league career...thus, losses rose from 10 to 15...Expos went 13-22 when Livan received the starting nod...in twist of fate—and 22-game "home" slate in Puerto Rico, made only 12 of 35 starts in Montreal...yet the Expos' Opening Day starter led the staff in almost every category...more importantly, became the staff leader...led MLB with 255.0 innings pitched (Randy Johnson 2nd with 245.2) and complete games (9)...255.0 inning ranked 9th on Expos' single-season list..again merited serious consideration for Gold Glove (led MLB with 10 double plays)...won the NL Silver Slugger Award for pitchers...hit .247 with 7 doubles, one homer and 10 RBI to earn the citation...ranked among MLB leaders in innings (first), starts (tied for first) and shutouts (tied for 3rd with 2)...ranked among NL leaders in innings (first), complete games, starts (tied for first), strikeouts (9th with 186) and GIDPs induced (tied for 8th with 22)...on the negative side, also ranked among NL leaders in hits allowed (2nd with 234), losses (tied 2nd with 15), earned runs allowed (tied for 9th with 102) and walks (7th with 83)...set career highs in starts, innings, batting average against and slugging percentage against...matched career highs in CG and HBP...though not reflected in W-L record, posted remarkably similar numbers in '04 when compared to '03: starts (33 in '03, 35 in '04), complete games (8, 9), hits allowed (225, 234), homers allowed (27, 26), strikeouts (178, 186), HBP (10, 10), sac flies (4, 4), batting average against (.253, .248), on-base percentage against (.304, .314), slugging percentage against (.389, .387) and GIDPs induced (21, 22)...went at least 8.0 innings in 10 of his final 15 starts...exited the game in line for the win 6 times (10/2 at NYM, 9/5 vs. ATL, 8/15 vs. HOU, 6/6 at CIN, 5/21 vs. SF, 5/11 at MIL) only to have 'pen squander leads...ERA in the game's first 5 innings was 2.78 (53 ER/171.1 IP)...from the 6th inning on, it jumped to 5.27 (49 ER/ 83.2 IP)...fanned Jeff Connine, April 6 at FLA, to record 1,000th career K...Steve Rodgers, Dennis Martinez and Javier Vazquez only others to record 1,000th as an Expo...in one calendar year–July 1, 2003-June 30, 2004–posted the most quality starts in MLB with 25...Pedro Martinez (24) ranked 2nd...made his 5th Opening Day start, April 6 at FLA, against his initial club...went 6.0 innings...allowed 2 runs but didn't get a decision in game won by FLA, 4-3...list of big league-leading 9 complete games: May 6 vs. COL, May 16 at ARI, June 11 at SEA, July 2 vs. TOR, July 20 at PIT, July 30 at FLA, August 21 at COL, September 16 at FLA and September 21 vs. NYM.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Entered bottom of 9th inning on May 11 at MIL with a 5-0 lead, but was relegated to no-decision as Brew Crew rallied to win, 8-5, in 14 innings...went the distance, but took the loss in a 1-0 setback on June 11 at SEA...snapped career long 5-game losing streak by earning the win in 5-2 victory, June 22 vs. PHI...tossed 5th complete game of the season, but took the loss in 2-1 setback on July 20 at PIT...recorded 7th career shutout in blanking FLA, 9-0, July 30 at Pro Player Stadium...chipped in with game-high 3 hits and 2 RBI...outpitched Josh Beckett in rematch of Opening Day matchup...hit first home run as a Expo, August 26 vs. LA off Jeff Weaver...the long ball was the 5th of his career...needed only 92 pitches (65 strikes) in complete-game effort, September 21 vs. NYM.

Turned in self-described finest season of career, going 15-10 with a 3.20 ERA in 33 starts...15 wins represented the 2nd highest total of his career...won a career-best 17 games in 2000 with SF...acquired late in Spring Training (March 24) from the Giants in a 4-player deal that also brought INF Edwards Guzman to the Expos...won at least 10 games for the 4th straight season...Montreal went 19-14 with Livan its starting pitcher...struck out a (then) career-high 178 or 6.9 batters per 9 innings pitched...ranked 2nd on the staff in strikeouts...led the Expos in wins (15), innings (233.1), complete games (8) and ERA among starting pitchers making at least 20 starts (3.20)...tied for the club lead by hitting 10 batters...led the NL with 8 complete games...pocketed 6 complete games during a 10-start span from July 7-August 25...only Bartolo Colon, Roy Halladay and Mark Mulder (9 apiece) went the distance more in the AL...the 8 complete games were the 2nd highest total of his career (9 with FLA in '98)...8 complete games trumped the total of 20 big league teams, including SF (7) and FLA (7), his 2 former employers...Montreal was 6-2 when Livan went the distance in 2003...led the NL and ranked 4th in baseball by tossing 233.1 innings...also led the NL with 8 complete games...his 3.20 ERA ranked 9th in the NL...tied for 9th in MLB—4th in the NL—with 22 quality starts...also ranked among NL leaders in strikeouts (7th with 178), home ERA (10th at 3.04) and ERA at night (6th at 2.98)...became the first Expos pitcher to post 15 wins in a season since Javier Vazquez turned the trick with a career-high 16 wins in 2001...was 6-6 with a 4.19 ERA through the end of June, but rebounded to go 9-4 with a 2.42 ERA (35 ER/130.1 IP) during the season's final 3 months...worked closely with pitching coach Randy St. Claire to tweak his arm angle after getting a tip from TOR manager Carlos Tosca, who twice managed Livan in the Marlins' minor league system (1996 with Double-A Portland and 1997 with Triple-A Charlotte), following his June 27 start at Skydome...was named National League Pitcher of the Month for July (4-1 with a 1.80 ERA)...earned Expos Player of the Month citation for the same month...was named National League Co-Player of the Week for the period of July 7-13 (2-0 with a 1.00 ERA in 2 complete-game efforts)...shared the award with COL's Preston Wilson...went a combined 4-2 with a 2.11 ERA against FLA and SFG...recorded his 30th career complete game on August 25 vs. PHI...allowed 3 or fewer earned runs on 10 occasions in 2003, but came away with either the loss or a no-decision...nabbed his 10th win of 2003 in a 5-1 victory on July 24 vs. NYM...reached the 10-win plateau faster than any Expo since Pedro Martinez (June 30 at TOR) and Jeff Juden (July 1 at TOR) in 1997...hit .189 (14-for-74) with one double and 6 RBI...posted 3 hits in an 11-4 win at NYM on July 2...14 hits in 2003 led the pitching staff.

SFG's 2002 Opening Day starter, ranked among NL leaders for CG (T3rd), SHO (3rd) and innings (10th)...tied for NL lead with 29 GIDPs induced (SDP's Brian Lawrence also had 29)...led the Giants staff in starts (T1st, 33), innings (216.0), complete games (5) and shutouts (3)...became the first Giant to lead the club in innings pitched in three consecutive seasons since Gaylord Perry in 1969-71...was also the first pitcher to post three straight 200-inning seasons since Vida Blue and Bob Knepper (1978-80)...fashioned a 6-6 record and a 3.76 ERA after the All-Star break...tossed 5th career SHO (3rd of the season), a 2-hitter, on September 25 vs. SDP...4-0 start was the best by a Giant starter since Shawn Estes went 4-0 in '97...Postseason: went 1-2 with 6.20 ERA in 4 post-season starts...with SFG facing elimination, earned his 6th career playoff win in Game 4 of the NLDS, outpitching ATL's Tom Glavine...8.1-inning effort was the longest post-season start by a SFG pitcher since Mike Krukow's 9.0-inning complete-game effort in Game 4 of 1987 NLCS against STL...took the loss in Games 4 and 7 of World Series against ANA.

Went 13-15 with a 5.24 ERA...was SFG's Opening Day starter...established new career highs in ERA, games (34) and hits allowed (266)...15 defeats were most by a SF pitcher since Bud Black lost 16 in '91...ranked 7th in the NL, and led SFG, in innings (226.2)...also tied for team lead in starts...reached 30-start plateau for 4th straight season...broke 200-inning barrier for 3rd time in career...tossed at least 6.0 innings in 28 of 34 outings (82.4%)...11 of 15 losses came prior to the All-Star break...however, went 7-4 with a 4.20 ERA in 15 starts after the All-Star break...made 2nd consecutive Opening Day start with Giants, third career, April 2 vs. SDP...went 7.1 innings to earn the victory...earned his 50th career win with his 17th career complete game June 22 at STL...allowed only 2 hits in complete game effort on August 17 vs. ATL, but took the loss in 2-1 setback...the 2-hitter was the first turned in by a Giant since Kirk Rueter turned the trick on July 28, 1998 at Montreal...hit .300 with one homer and 8 RBI at the plate...led NL pitchers with career-high 24 hits (one more than COL's Mike Hampton)...also ranked 2nd in batting average and 4th with 8 RBI...24 hits were second highest season total by SFG pitcher...only Juan Marichal (28 in 1966) posted more...posted 8 consecutive hits from July 26-August 11...finished just 2 hits shy of NL record for most consecutive safeties.

2000

Establishing career high with 17 wins and became staff leader...ranked among NL leaders in wins (tied for 6th), innings (5th with 240.0), complete games (tied for 5th with 5) and shutouts (tied for 3rd with 2)...yielded most hits in NL (254)...went 10-4 with 3.19 ERA in 15 post- All-Star Game starts...opponents hit .238 in second half as opposed to .302 prior to All-Star Break...worked at least 6.0 innings 30 times in 33 efforts (90.9%)...went 12-3 with 2.98 ERA in 16 starts at Pac Bell Park...posted first 2 career SHO in back-to-back starts, August 18 vs. ATL and 23 vs. FLA...both were 4-hit efforts...at the plate, 21 hits were most by Giants pitcher since Billy Swift's 21 in '93...led NL pitchers with 21 hits, and tied for 3rd with 9 RBI...drilled 3rd career home run on June 28 at COL, 2-run blast off Julian Tavarez...ran his post-season career record to 5-0 by defeating NYM Game 1 of NLDS...allowed one run in 7.2 innings to garner the win.

Born: 6/7/77, Sacramento, CALIFORNIA
Opening Day Age: 27 MLB Service: 0.115
Obtained: Acquired from STL in exchange for LHP Benji DeQuin, May 6, 2004.

CAREER NOTES

Was acquired by Omar Minaya based on recommendation of former-Expos 3B-coach Manny Acta, who managed Horgan in 2003-04 Dominican Winter League.

2004

Acquired in a minor league trade in early May, had contract selected by the Expos on June 11 and became Frank Robinson's top left-handed reliever in first big league exposure...went 4-1 with 2 saves and a 3.15 ERA...12 holds ranked 2nd on the club behind only Luis Ayala (21)...limited opposing left-handed batters to an effective .235 mark, but was even better against right-handed hitters (.228)...in all, opposing batters hit just .230...upon arrival on June 11, appeared in more games than any pitcher other than Ayala...at season's end, was slated to return to the Dominican Winter League...excelled when pitching on consecutive days (zero days rest), posting a 1.38 ERA (2 ER/13.0 IP)...ERA on 2 or more days rest was 1.37 (3 ER/19.2 IP)...however, when working on one day rest, recorded a 11.05 ERA (9 ER/ 7.1 IP)...went 3-1 with a 0.40 ERA in June and July...allowed only one homer to a left-handed batter (Corey Patterson, September 7 at CHI)...Expos went 24-23 when Horgan pitched...suffered only one blown save: August 4 at STL...retired first batter faced in 36 of 47 appearances (77%)...pitched much better on the road (2.38 ERA, 2.13 including games in Puerto Rico) than in home games (4.91 ERA at Olympic Stadium)...worked at least 2.0 innings 5 times, including a season-long 2.2 scoreless innings, July 16 at ATL...pitched in 15 ballparks, but only allowed runs in 4 (The Big O, Citizens Bank Park, US Cellular Field and Wrigley Field)...strung together 14 consecutive scoreless appearances, spanning 10.1 innings, July 22-August 18.

In minor leagues: Pitched in 3 Grapefruit League games for the Redbirds, but started season with Triple-A Memphis...posted a 6.52 ERA in 10 games with Memphis before being acquired by the Expos...went 1-0 with a 3.18 ERA in 13 games with Triple-A Edmonton before being summoned to the big leagues...walked one and fanned 9 in his 6 appearances with the Trappers.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Retired all 6 batters faced, including Ichiro Suzuki, in big league debut, June 12 at SEA...earned first hold on June 16 vs. MIN...retired only batter faced—Jimmy Rollins—to notch first big league win in 6-3 victory, June 30 at PHI...retired Reed Johnson—only batter faced—with bases loaded to pocket first big league save in 6-4 win vs. TOR in Puerto Rico, July 4...recorded 4th hold, as well as first career hit and RBI, in 4-0 win vs. PIT on July 10...singled off Kip Wells to score Jamey Carroll and cap the Expos' 3-run 7th inning...the hit came in his first career plate appearance...worked 12th inning, allowing one run, to earn 2nd save in 7-6 win, September 7 at CHI.

Played for Triple-A Fresno of the PCL...all 55 of his appearances came out of the bullpen...either won or was credited with a save in his first five appearances of the season (2 wins, 3 saves)...posted a 1.29 ERA in May...was not scored upon in 7 straight outings from July 9-24...worked a season-long 4.0 innings, July 27 vs. Portland...after the season, played winter ball for Licey in the Dominican Republic under Manny Acta.

2002

Shuttled between Fresno and Double-A Shreveport...converted to a starter midway through season...pitched in 37 games, including 14 starts...opened '02 with Fresno...went 2-2 with a 5.93 ERA in 27 games...made 10 starts for Shreveport.

2001

Spent majority of '01 with Shreveport...was promoted to Triple-A late in the season...combined to post a 3-5 record with a 3.80 ERA 34 games (15 starts) at the 2 levels...made 14 starts for Shreveport...tied for 3rd on the club with 61 strikeouts...pitched in 3 games for Fresno (one start).

Sustained fractured right cheekbone when hit in the head by a Royce Clayton hot one-hop smash in the 4th inning, August 20 at COL...was placed on the 15-Day DL the next day...missed remainder of the regular season, but is expected to be healthy and ready for '05 Spring Training...was teammates with RHP Zach Day, RHP Tony Armas Jr. and SS Cristian Guzman on 1996 GCL Yankees club that claimed league championship.

In first opportunity as everyday player, suffered through injury-plagued campaign in initial NL season...played in only 73 games (70 starts) due to a lumbar strain and a fractured right cheekbone...Montreal went 33-37 (.471) with Johnson in the starting lineup, 34-58 (.370) when he was not...injured lower back at the tail end of Spring Training and missed the first 46 games of the season...was reinstated from the 15-Day DL on May 28...played excellent defense, posting a .994 fielding percentage...went 8-for-18 with 2 doubles, 2 home runs (including 2nd career grand slam) and 10 RBI, August 10-15, to earn first NL Player of the Week citation...momentum was halted on August 20 by fractured right cheekbone (read above)...as in '03, saw exactly 4.28 pitches per plate appearance in '04...would have ranked 3rd in MLB with enough plate appearances to qualify...only Jamey Carroll (4.38) and Brad Wilkerson (4.29) saw more pitches per at-bat among Expos...however, walk ratio was down...earned one walk every 5.8 plate appearances in '03...that number shrunk to one BB every 7.4 plate appearances in '04...played in first game of season, May 28 at CIN (Montreal went 15-31 in April and May in his absence)...after going 2-for-10 in first 3 games, went 14-for-31 (.452) with 6 doubles, one homer and 3 RBI in his next 9 games...posted a .400 OBP in 29 games through June 29, but struggled thereafter, hitting just .230 with 20 walks the rest of the way...closed strong, going 10-for-27 (.370) with 5 walks in final 9 games...reached base safely at least 2 times in a game 34 times in 70 starts (49%)...swiped 6 bags to match career total entering the season...6 of 7 home runs came off right-handed pitchers (exception was homer off southpaw Eric Milton on June 29 at PHI).

Rehab Assignment: Went 6-for-30 (.200) with a double, homer, 5 RBI and 8 walks during his 9-game rehab assignment with Brevard County (6 games) of the Single-A Florida State League and Edmonton (3) of the Triple-A PCL.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Collected the first NL hit of career via 5th-inning single, May 29 vs. CIN off Jose Acevedo...finished the game 2-for-4 with a double...flashed renowned batting eye, posting 3 walks, in 3rd game with the club, May 30 vs. CIN...June 5 at CIN, combined with Tony Batista on the Expos' first set of back-to-back homers of '04...down 3-1 with 2 outs in the 9th, Batista homered off Danny Graves...on a full count, Johnson then followed suit with game-tying homer (his first as a National Leaguer) to hand Graves his 5th blown save (CIN prevailed, 6-3)...2-run shot on June 16 vs. MIN off Kyle Loshe was his first homer in Montreal...homered in back-to-back games, August 14-15 vs. HOU...thanks to 2nd career grand slam (off Chad Qualls), posted season-high 4 RBI in an 8-3 win, August 14 at HOU.

In 2nd full big league campaign, hit .284 with 14 home runs and 47 RBI in just 96 games...at-bats were limited due to a stress fracture in right hand (see below)...led the American League-Champion Yankees with a .422 on-base percentage...OBP would have ranked 3rd among American Leaguers—tied for 7th in MLB—with enough plate appearances to qualify...legged out a career-best 33 extra-base hits, including a career-high 19 doubles...also posted career-best .472 slugging percentage...was hitting .300 as late as September 23, but ended the season in an 0-for-17 slide to finish at .284...ranked 5th in baseball, 2nd in the American League, by seeing 4.28 pitches per plate appearance...the only four to see more pitches per plate appearance in 2003: Brad Wilkerson (4.37), Adam Dunn (4.33), Edgar Martinez

(4.32) and Bobby Abreu (4.31)... posted more walks than strikeouts (70 BB, 57 SO) for the first time in his big league career...had fanned more than twice as much as he walked (98 SO, 48 BB) during his rookie campaign of 2002...from one season to the next (2002 to 2003), recorded 22 more walks despite receiving 32 fewer plate appearances...earned at least one walk in 17 consecutive games, April 16-May 3...the 17-game walk streak was the longest turned in by a Yankee since Willie Randolph turned the trick over 2 seasons from 1980-81...among big leaguers with at least 400 plate appearances, tied for 3rd in baseball in walk rate (one BB every 5.8 plate appearances) during the 2003 campaign...only Barry Bonds (BB every 3.7 PA) and Jason Giambi (BB every 5.3 PA) walked with more frequency...was placed on the 15-Day DL on May 17 with a stress fracture of the third metacarpal bone of the right hand...missed 61 games before being reinstated on July 25...hit .304 with 11 home runs and 36 RBI while hitting in the No. 2 hole of the Yankees' lineup...posted a .430 on-base percentage to help set up the meat of the Bronx Bombers' batting order...hit 14 home runs, one shy of his 2002 career high (15)...came up just one homer shy despite recording 54 fewer at-bats than in his rookie campaign...started 96 games for the Yanks (60 at 1B, 30 as the DH)...posted a .991 fielding percentage at first base (5 errors in 551 total chances)...had a hand in 44 double plays...posted first multi-homer game on May 21 at MIN in a 15-1 victory...posted career-high 4 hits, including first career grand slam, in an 10-7 win, August 8 vs. SEA...matched career high with 4 hits on August 30 at BOS...6 of 14 home runs came in August...hit .253 with the bases empty, .320 with runners on base.

Batted .243 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI in 129 games in first full big league season...made 59 starts 1B, 49 at DH and one in LF (June 18 at COL)...was named to the Topps Rookie All-Star Team...recorded first sacrifice hit of his professional career in ninth inning an April 19 win vs. TOR...left May 4 contest vs. SEA after experiencing pain in right knee (MRI exam was negative with bone bruise)...posted career-high 4 RBI on both May 15 and 16 vs. TB...tallied 11 RBI in four games from May 12-16...on August 7 vs. KC, left game after injuring his left wrist while catching a Raul Ibanez line drive...MRI and CAT scan examinations on August 8 at Beth Israel North Hospital revealed a bone bruise of the left wrist...placed on 15-day D.L. on August 10 (retroactive to August 8) with a left-wrist strain...was reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on September 3 after missing 24 games...Postseason: batted .182 (2-for-11) with 1 RBI in three ALDS contests...was recipient of the James P. Dawson Award for 2002 as Yankees' outstanding rookie in spring training (voted by NY baseball writers)...hit .272 with a team-leading 5 homers and 12 RBI in 26 games to earn the citation.

2001

Returned to action after missing the 2000 season...received first taste of big leagues, but not before beginning the season with Triple-A Columbus...was recalled by NYY on August 21...went 2-for-4 with one RBI in big league debut on August 21 at Texas...first major league hit was an RBI single in the second inning...became the first Yankee to collect 2 hits in a big league debut since Mike Pagliarulo (3 hits on July 7 at MIN) and Vic Mata (2 hits on July 22 vs. MIN) turned the trick in 1984...hit first ML home run—a two-run shot off Hideo Nomo—in a September 9 win vs. Boston...registered his first career 3-hit game on September 23 at BAL...missed 3 games with bruised left foot after being hit by pitch in the 13th inning on September 30 vs. BAL (game was an eventual tie)...was not a member of any of NYY's 3 post-season rosters...was named best defensive 1B in the Triple-A International League...was ranked the No. 2 prospect in NYY organization by Baseball America...led the IL with a .407 OBP and paced the Clippers in 9 offensive categories...reached base safely in 96 of 110 games...registered a walk in 12 straight games from April 24-May 6...a strained left thumb forced DL stint from May 18-June 2...was selected to play in the 2001 MLB Futures Game at SAFECO Field on July 8...selected as the starting 1B in the Triple-A All-Star Game on July 11 at Indianapolis...was named the IL Batter-of-the-Week for period ending July 15...hitting .615 in 5 games to earn the award...reached base 7 times in 8 plate appearances during a July 12 double-header vs. Richmond...hit 2 home runs in a game twice: July 13 vs. Richmond and July 29 at Charlotte.

2000

Missed entire season with a strained muscle in his right hand...injury occurred on a check swing during a March 10 split-squad spring game at CIN...was placed on the 15-Day DL with a strained muscle in his right hand, March 25...was transferred to the 60-Day DL on April 30...spent the summer training at NYY's minor-league complex...on October 31, began hitting off a tee for the first time since the injury...was ranked as NYY's No. 1 prospect by Baseball America.

1999

Continued rise through NYY organization...hit .345 with 14 home runs and 87 RBI for Double-A Norwich...established career-highs in batting average, games (132), runs (114), hits (145), doubles (33), triples (5), RBI and walks (123)...his 123 walks and .525 OBP led all minor leaguers...became the only minor-league player this decade to post an on-base percentage of .500 or better in a single season...led 3rd different league in OBP...also led the Eastern League in batting average and runs...set Eastern League record for times HBP (37), shattering the previous record of 23...reached base safely via hit, walk or HBP in 63 consecutive games from May 16-July 27...the streak ended on 7/29 vs. New Britain (left the game in 2nd inning with a stomach virus)...after the streak ended, reached base in 25 of his next 35 plate appearances...ended the season reaching base in 125 of 132 games (95%)...batted .376 against left-handers...set a Norwich franchise record by scoring at least one run in 11 consecutive games...was named to the Eastern League mid-season and post-season All-Star teams...was also Topps Double-A All-Star 1B...played for USA in Futures Game on July 11 at Fenway Park...was named Eastern League's Best Defensive 1B and ranked as the No. 1 prospect in NYY organization by Baseball America...was the co-winner (with D'Angelo Jimenez) of NYY's 2nd-annual Kevin Lawn Award (organization's Minor League Player of the Year)...participated in MLB's Rookie Development Program in January.

1998

Named NYY Minor League Player of the Year, batting .317 with 17 home runs and 58 RBI in 92 games with Tampa of the Single-A Florida State League...ranked 2nd among all minor leaguers with a .466 on-base percentage...his .317 batting average ranked 2nd among NYY minor leaguers...also rated 3rd in the FSL in HR/AB Ratio (1 homer every 17.8 AB)...began season with a 10-game hitting streak...missed 6 weeks of the season with a shoulder contusion...batted .452 with 6 homers and 14 RBI during 15-game stretch, July 20-August 6...earned FSL Player-of-the-Week honors for period ending August 2...was named 3rd-best prospect in the FSL by league managers in a Baseball America survey...earned honorable mention status on Howe Sportsdata's All-Prospect Team...was also named to the Howe's All-Teenager Team.

1997

Blasted 16 home runs for Single-A Greensboro in 2nd season as a pro...led the Bats in home runs, RBI, walks and OBP.

1996

Hit .287 with 33 RBI in 47 games for the GCL Yankees in first pro season...led the Gulf Coast League with a .422 OBP.

CAREER NOTES

Earned the save—the first of his career—in the final win in the 36-year history of the Montreal Expos, October 2 at NYM...the Expos won, 6-3...signed by scouts Ken Stauffer and Paul Provas, both of CWS.

2004

In 6th season in CWS minor league system, appeared to again be caught in a numbers game, but July 18 trade to Montreal rendered first big league stint...after spending just over a month at Triple-A Edmonton, was recalled by the Expos on August 26 when right-handed pitcher Francis Beltran was placed on DL...made his major league debut that night and spent the rest of the season with the Expos...went 0-1 with one save and a 3.86 ERA in 16 games out of the bullpen for the Expos...worked at least 1.0 inning in 13 of his 16 appearances, including 5 appearances of 2.0-plus innings...walked only 5 in 21.0 innings of work...ERA was 2.57 (4 ER/14.0 IP) when Gary did not give up a walk...in games when he walked a batter, ERA jumped to 6.43 (5 ER/7.0 IP)...6 of 15 runs allowed were unearned...3 of 4 inherited baserunners scored...retired first batter in 8 of 16 appearances...pitched for Carolina in the Puerto Rican Winter League following the season.

In minor leagues: Was Triple-A Charlotte's closer before being dealt to Montreal...compiled a 3-3 record with 14 saves and a 3.19 ERA (15 ER/42.1 IP) in 35 games for the Knights...struck out 41...after trade, went 1-2 with one save and a 4.11 ERA (7 ER/15.1 IP) for Edmonton...combining his Charlotte and Edmonton totals, struck out 58 batters in 57.2 IP (9.05 K's per 9 innings).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Made major league debut just hours after being called up on August 26...allowed one hit and struck out one in 1.1 scoreless innings vs. LA...scattered 4 hits in 3.0 scoreless innings, Sept. 4 vs. ATL, in finest appearance of the season...was tagged with loss after allowing 4 unearned runs in 6-3 setback at FLA (played at U.S. Cellular Field in Chicago) on Sept. 13...pitched a scoreless 9th inning to pick up the first save of his major league career, October 2 at NYM...the save closed out the final win in the 36-year history of the Montreal Expos.

In minor leagues: With Charlotte, threw season-high 3.0 innings and picked up his 3rd win of the season on July 9 vs. Rochester...fanned 2 in 2.0 perfect innings of work on July 28 at Memphis to pocket only PCL save...did not allow a hit in his last 4 outings or 4.0 innings, August 16-24.

Advanced to Triple-A for the first time...pitching for Triple-A Charlotte, averaged 8.9 strikeouts per 9 innings pitched while limiting opponents to .231 batting average against...left-handed batters hit just .210...went 3-0 with a 2.55 ERA at home and 3-4 with a 5.30 ERA on the road...ERA was 8.00 through June 4, posted a stellar 1.58 ERA thereafter...strikeout-to-walk ratio after June 4 was 3.7/1 (52 SO/14 BB)...struck out 4 or more batters 6 times, including a season-high 5 on June 10 at Ottawa...fanned at least one batter in each of his last 11 outings and 18 of last 20...went 2.0 or more innings 18 times...made only one start: nightcap of June 21 twinbill at Buffalo...pitched for Peoria in the Arizona Fall League...posted a 6.43 ERA and 11 strikeouts in 19.0 innings.

2002

Pitched out of the bullpen for the first time in his career...led Double-A Birmingham and ranked 5th in the Southern League with 57 appearances (one start)...averaged 9.0 K per 9 innings pitched (75 SO/74.1 IP)...posted a .221 batting average against...compiled a 2.19 ERA (9 ER/37.0 IP) at home...ERA was 3.18 or lower all five months...registered a 1.17 in July...threw 9.2 consecutive scoreless innings from April 22-May 8...then worked 13.1 straight scoreless innings, July 1-27...made only start: received a no-decision on July 16 at Chattanooga.

CAREER NOTES

Had surgery—to repair torn labrum in right shoulder—performed by Dr. James Andrews in Birmingham, AL, on September 23, 2004...was limited to pinch-hitting and pinch running duties during final weeks of season...played last game on September 18...after parts of 4 big league seasons or 167 games or 230 at-bats, remains in search of first major league home run...signed by Expos scouts Fred Ferreira and Juan Loyola.

2004

Struggled with injuries, but again was an important switch-hitter off the bench for the Expos after the All-Star break...began the season with Triple-A Edmonton despite hitting .333 (14-for-42) in Grapefruit League action...fractured his right hamate bone on April 25 vs. Tacoma...was hitting .306 at the time...had surgery to repair the bone on May 4...returned action on June 21 with a 5-game rehab stint with the Gulf Coast League Expos...returned to the Edmonton Trappers lineup, June 26...recalled by Montreal on July 15...batted .273 (12-for-44) in his 4th big league season...27 of 44 at-bats came as a pinch-hitter...batted .296 in that role...played only 41.0 innings in the field in '04, 37.0 of which came at 2B...made 4 errors..8 of 12 hits came when he was behind in the count, batting an impressive .348 (8-for-23) in those situations...batted .318 on the road.

With Edmonton: Hit safely in 14 of 19 contests, including 7 multi-hit games, before being placed on DL with fractured right hamate bone...hit .303 and swiped 10 bases in 11 tries.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Made his only start of the season at 2B on August 29 vs. SDP, going 1-for-4 with a double...played 4 innings in left field after entering game as pinch hitter in 9-0 loss vs. ATL on September 4.

With Edmonton: Went 3-for-5 with 3 doubles and 3 RBI April 20 at Fresno...2-for-5 with a triple in first game back from right hamate bone fracture, June 26 vs. Portland...posted 3 hits, double and 2 runs scored, July 5 at Portland.

2003

Batted .240 with 7 RBI in 100 games during first complete big league season...played 5 positions, including all 3 OF spots...was one of 3 rookies on the Expos' Opening Day roster (Calloway, Ayala)....entered spring camp battling for a big league job...posted a .451 Grapefruit League average with 5 RBI to nab a spot on Frank Robinson's Opening Day roster...led Montreal with 23 hits and 6 stolen bases on the spring...led the Expos with 11 pinch hits...went 11-for-43 (.256) with a double and 3 RBI in the pinch...went 6-for first-16 in the pinch, but went just 5-for-27 (.185) thereafter...drove in the deciding runs with a 2-run pinch single in the 10th inning to push the Expos past the Rockies, 6-4, on May 17 at COL...came up with the bases loaded and none out and fouled off a potential squeeze bunt...took matters into his own hands with game-winning hit off Todd Jones...batting leadoff, went 3-for-5 with a double and a stolen base in a 5-0 victory, May 1 at MIL...posted a career-high 4 hits on July 6 at ATL...went 2-for-2 with 2 walks, 2 runs scored and a stolen base in an 8-4 come-from-behind win on September 10 vs. CHI in Puerto Rico...was successful on 11 of 12 stolen base attempts...ranked 2nd on the Expos in stolen base percentage (91.6%) among those with at least 10 swipes...edged by Orlando Cabrera, who was successful on 92.3 percent (24 of 26)...collected first career RBI via a pinch-hit single on April 25 vs. HOU off Ricky Stone...a native of the Dominican Republic, but lived in Puerto Rico for 7 years, beginning when he was 14...Mateo graduated from Centro Estudios Libres High School in Santurce...went 6-for-21 (.286) with one RBI and a .400 OBP during Montreal's 22-game home slate in San Juan, PR...Montreal went 12-12 (.500) with Henry in the starting lineup...hit .320 (16-for-50) with runners on base.

2002

Spent much of summer shuttling between Montreal and Triple-A Ottawa...was promoted and optioned back three times...with Montreal, served primarily as a pinch-hitter and pinch-runner...started 3 games: 2 at SS, one at 2B...legged out first career triple on July 12 vs. ATL...pocketed first pinch-hit on July 11 vs. ATL...in all, went 1-for-13 as a pinch hitter...with Ottawa, tied for team lead in triples...swiped 15 bases in 21 attempts (71%).

2001

Led the Triple-A IL with 47 stolen bags and earned first trip to the big leagues...led league in swipes for 2nd straight season...stole 3 bases in a game twice and 2 bags on 9 occasions...also led the IL with a career-high 12 triples...established Ottawa franchise record with 3 triples on June 9 vs. Indianapolis...became the first minor leaguer to record three triples in a game since Sacramento's Mark Bellhorn turned the trick in June of 2000...collected 5 hits, June 26 against Louisville...IL All-Star participated in the Triple-A All-Star Game...was recalled by Montreal on July 28, 2001 due to the uncertain status of Jose Vidro...made big league debut the same night...posted 2 hits and scored a run as Montreal's starting 2B vs. ATL...both hits came off soon-to-be Hall-of-Famer Tom Glavine.

2000

Sparkled in his first season Double-A season with Harrisburg...paced the Eastern League with 48 stolen bases...set career highs in all major offensive categories except doubles...ranked among EL leaders in triples (2nd with 11), hits (3rd with 152) and runs (3rd with 91)...batted .312 when facing left-handed pitching...hit .344 when leading off.

1999

Returned to Jupiter of the Single-A Florida State League for a 2nd season...set a career high for doubles (27).

1998

Entered the season with one career home run (came in '97), but slugged 4 for Cape Fear.

1997

After tallying just 7 stolen bases in first 2 pro seasons, swept 21 bags for Vermont of the short-season Single-A New York-Penn League...showed grasp of strike zone with 30 walks in 67 games.

1996

Limited to only 14 games and 44 at-bats due to a myriad of injuries.

1995

Drafted the year prior as a SS, was shifted to 2B to make room for No. 1 pick, Michael Barrett, who was drafted as a SS (eventually converted to C)...fanned 47 times in 122 at-bats in first season on US soil.

PERSONAL

Henry Antonio Valera Mateo (Hank)...married Ana Lisette Brito on December 25, 1999...the couple has a son, Henry, Jr., born August 30, 2000...was born in the Dominican Republic, but attended Centro Estudios Libres High School in Santurce, PR...enjoys listening to music and playing dominos in spare time.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Frank Robinson, in a move meant to spark the club's struggling offense, batted Tomo Ohka 8th in the order on May 30 vs. CIN...was the first big league starting pitcher to hit anywhere but 9th since Matt Morris, September 27, 1998 vs. Montreal...finished 0-for-2 with a walk...popped out with the bases loaded in the first inning...on the mound, earned the win, allowing just 2 runs (one earned) on 8 hits in 6.2 solid innings...according to Elias Sports Bureau, the Expos batting their pitcher in a non-traditional slot was not new...on August 26, 1973, RHP Steve Renko hit 7th for Gene Mauch..STL's Tony LaRussa batted his pitcher eighth 77 times in 1998 in hopes of getting more plate appearances for Mark McGwire...the other 3 times a pitcher hit anything other than 9th since division play began 35 years ago: Renko batting 7th on August 26, 1973 (see above)...on September 23, 1976, CWS's Ken Brett hit 8th (0-for-3), while C Jim Essian (0-for-9) manned the 9th slot (MIN won, 3-0, at Comisky Park)...on June 1, 1979, PHI's Steve Carlton (0-for-3) batted 8th, while SS Bud Harrelson (1-for-3) hit 9th (CIN won, 4-2, at Riverfront Stadium)....May 25 vs. ATL, was touched for only an unearned run in 7.0 strong innings, during which he allowed 6 hits and 2 walks, struck out 4 and stranded 8 Braves...the win was only the 2nd of his career over ATL...the other came August 30, 2001 at Turner Field...recorded the first stolen base of his career in the 3rd inning, April 19 at NYM...singled with 2 outs off Tyler Yates...got a great jump (2-3 steps) before Yates delivered the pitch and did not even draw a throw from Mike Piazza.

Went 10-12 with a 4.16 ERA in a career-high 34 starts for the Expos in 2003...did not miss a turn in the rotation for the 2nd straight season...strangely, recorded exactly 45 walks and 118 strikeouts for a 2nd straight season...won 7 games before the All-Star break despite posting a 4.51 ERA...went just 3-3 after the break despite a vastly improved 3.76 ERA (39 ER/93.1 IP)...established career highs with 34 starts, 199.0 innings pitched, 24 home runs allowed and 9 hit batters...his 8 wild pitches were also a career high and more than doubled his career total (7) entering the season...tied for 4th in the NL by walking only 2.0 batters per 9 innings pitched...allowed two walks or less in 28 of 34 starts this season...issued more than 2 free passes only once after the All-Star break (4 on August 17 vs. SF)....tied for 3rd among NL leaders with 34 starts...only Greg Maddux (36) and Kevin Millwood (35) started more often among NL hurlers...also ranked among N.L. leaders in day ERA (10th at 2.99), fewest walks per 9 innings pitched (tied for 4th at 2.0) and hits allowed (2nd with 233)...went a combined 2-7 with a 4.05 ERA (41 ER/91.0 IP) in 15 starts against division-foes ATL, FLA, NYM and PHI...finished 8-5 with a 4.25 ERA (51 ER/108.0 IP) against all other clubs...capped season by not allowing an earned run in his final 2 starts or 16.0 innings...the stellar ending lowered Ohka's ERA to 4.16, its lowest mark since April 27 (3.18)...allowed 2 or fewer earned runs 8 times, but came away with either the loss or a no-decision....tied for 9th in MLB (tied for 4th in the N.L.) with 22 quality starts...10 of the 22 quality starts came in August (5) and September (5)...closed the season with 4 consecutive quality starts...became the first Expo starter to post the win in 3 consecutive starts, June 19-29...recorded a 0.86 ERA during 3 straight wins at PIT, vs. PIT and at TOR...went the distance twice—June 29 at TOR and September 26 at CIN—to double his career total (2) entering the season...turned in 2 of the 3 sub 100-pitch complete games posted by Expos since 1998...crafted a 98-pitch masterpiece on June 29 at TOR...turned the 2nd sub-100 pitch trick again in his final start of 2003...needed only 91 pitches (68 strikes) in going the distance on September 26 at CIN...Bartolo Colon had the 3rd on August 19, 2002 vs. SDP (95 pitches)...took no-hitters into the 7th inning twice: June 29 at TOR and July 9 vs. PHI...Montreal went 18-16 in Ohka's 34 assignments...led Montreal pitchers with 4 errors...final assignment of the 2003 season—September 26 at CIN—was his 100th career start...was charged with a team-high 14 unearned runs...was stuck with a team-high 12 no-decisions, 9 of which came during his 15 assignments after the All-Star break...went a career-high 5 starts without a decision, August 7-27...fanned a season-high 9 in only 6.1 innings on September 1 at FLA...induced 18 GIDP's this year after posting just 12 in 2002...picked off 2 runners for the 4th straight season...teammed with catcher's Brian Schneider and Michael Barrett to allow only 2 stolen bases in 10 attempts in 2003...was credited with 2 pitcher caught stealings...was 4-2 with a 3.49 ERA at Olympic Stadium.

2002

Emerged as one of the Expos' top pitchers...entered season as the Frank Robinson's 5th starter...led all Expos' starters in wins and ERA...only Javier Vazquez (230.1) amassed more innings among Expos...ranked 7th among NL pitchers with a 3.18 ERA...also ranked among NL leaders with a 3.07 home ERA (7th) and 2.1 walks per 9 innings pitched (5th)...named Expos Molson Player of the Month in August (4-0, 1.66 ERA in 6 starts)...missed the final 6 games of the season after being suspended September 13...suspension included an undisclosed fine and was levied for "intentionally throwing at and hitting" ATL's Andruw Jones on September 7 at ATL (ejected by home-plate ump Wally Bell)...member of MLB team touring in Japan in November, along with teammate Bartolo Colon...tossed first 2 complete games of career, August 18 vs. SDP and September 2 vs. PHI.

2001

Pitched for both BOS and Montreal and made 22 big league starts...member of BOS' Opening Day roster, went 2-2 with a pair of no-decisions before being optioned to Triple-A Pawtucket on May 13...was the starting pitcher in BOS' April 6 home opener vs. TBR...became the first Japanese pitcher to start a Red Sox home opener...was recalled by the BoSox once more before being optioned back to Pawtucket and subsequently traded to Montreal along with LHP Rich Rundles on July 31 in exchange for Ugueth Urbina...took the loss in Expos' debut, August 4 at HOU...notched first win as an Expo on August 30 at ATL...tossed 5.2 innings, allowing two runs on six hits...the win broke a string of 7 consecutive losing decisions dating to April 28...Montreal went 4-6 in Ohka's 10 starts.

2000

Weathered slow start (0-4 in first 5 starts) with Pawtucket, righted ship and earned 2nd promotion to big leagues in as many seasons...after 0-4 start, won 9 of next 11 decisions...pitched a 9-inning perfect game, fanning 8 along the way, on June 1 vs Charlotte...Pawtucket won, 2-0...the perfect game was only the 3rd in the 117-year history of the International League (joined Chester Carmichael of Buffalo [beat Jersey City 1-0 in 1910] and Dick Marlowe of Buffalo [beat Baltimore 2-0 in 1952])...the perfect game was the first in the history of the Pawtucket Red Sox...it was also the PawSox's 7th no-hitter (7 or 9 innings)...needed only 77 pitches, 59 of which were strikes, in game that lasted only 2 hours, one minute...worked harder in 5th inning (10 pitches) than any other frame...threw 20 first-pitch strikes...did not reach 3 balls on any batter (reached as many as 2 strikes only twice)...was subsequently name IL Player of the Week for his effort...fired 7.0 perfect innings on July 3 vs. Syracuse, but "settled" for a 2-hitter in 5-0 victory...selected for the Futures Game in Atlanta during MLB All-Star Weekend...pitched in Triple-A All-Star Game at Frontier Field in Rochester, NY on July 12...took the loss...was 9-6 with a 3.08 ERA upon being recalled by BOS on July 21...spent the remainder of season in the big leagues...led the IL in ERA at the time of the promotion...went 3-1 with a 2.43 ERA in 5 August starts for the PawSox...went a career-high 7.1 innings, but took the loss in 1-0 setback on September 24 vs. BAL...Went 0-4 despite a stellar 3.24 ERA in September...named Pawtucket Pitcher of the Year for 2nd consecutive season...Ranked 2nd among Triple-A pitchers in ERA (2.96) and 6th in hits per 9 innings among starters (7.65).

Was named 1999 Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Year...went 15-0 with a 2.31 ERA in 24 minor league starts for Double-A Trenton (12 starts) and Pawtucket (12) to earn the citation...went 7-0 with a 1.58 ERA in 12 starts for Pawtucket...pitched 21.0 consecutive scoreless innings for the PawSox from August 18 to September 1...went 8-0 with a 3.00 ERA in 12 starts for Trenton...strung together 19.2 consecutive scoreless innings for Trenton, April 25-May 7...garnered Red Sox Minor League Pitcher of the Month for May (4-0 with a 2.75 ERA in 6 starts)...named Eastern League Player of the Week for the period ending May 2...pitched for the World Team in the first-ever Futures All-Star Game, held at Fenway Park...recalled from Pawtucket on July 18...made major league debut on July 19 vs. FLA...lasted just 1.0 inning, allowing 5 runs (2 earned) on 5 hits and a walk...optioned back to Pawtucket on July 25...was recalled again on August 23...pitched in relief in August 24 at MIN and was optioned back to the IL on August 25...was recalled again in September and pitched in 5 games out of the 'pen...registered first big league win on October 1 at BAL by working 3.0 scoreless innings...went 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA in 6 relief appearances for BOS.

HT: 6'2" WT: 200 Bats: R Throws: R
Born: 10/22/68, Port Jefferson, NEW YORK
Opening Day Age: 36 MLB Service: 8.057
Obtained: Signed as minor-league free agent, December 23, 2005.

CAREER NOTE

Has played 7 positions during big league career with PIT, MIL and BAL...hasn't played CF and SS, the position he played as a college freshman at LSU...games played and fielding percentage in the big leagues: C (300 games, .991 fielding percentage), 3B (29, .974), 1B (14, 1.000), 2B (7, 1.000), LF (3, 1.000), P (2, no chances) and RF (1, 1.000).

2004

Signed with BAL as minor league free agent, but solid spring earned Opening Day roster spot...spent first 6 weeks of season with BAL, but went just 2-for-25 in 11 games (6 starts)...went 1-for-4 in first start, April 9 at TBR, but went just 1-for-21 thereafter...other hit—a single, came May 1 at CLE...was designated for assignment on May 25...was released by BAL, June 1...signed a minor league contract with FLA on June 10...hit .179 in 19 games with Albuquerque of the Triple-A International League...homered on June 15 vs. Iowa, but was released by FLA on July 16...signed another minor league contract with TBR on July 28...homered in debut with the Bulls, July 28 vs. Scranton/W-B...batted .244 in 26 games for TBR's Triple-A Durham affiliate.

2003

Turned in solid season for MIL, setting career highs in games (80), at-bats (241), runs (22), hits (60) and doubles (12)...formed platoon with fellow C Eddie Perez...started slow, hitting just .139 in April, but hit .268 thereafter...matched career high with 3 hits on May 2 vs. NYM and June 16 vs. STL...matched career high with 4 RBI in the June 16 contests vs. STL...posted career-high 10-game hitting streak, July 24 - August 16...hit .333 (11-for-33) during the 10-gamer...thanks in large part of .303 mark in Sept., batted .284 after the All-Star break...hit .378 against left-handed pitchers...registered a .460 catcher's ERA and gunned down 26.4 percent of would-be basestealers (14 of 53).

2002

Hit .160 in 55 games in 7th and final season with PIT...caught 28 games, including 17 starts...also made 4 starts at 3B...also appeared defensively at 1B (3 games), 2B and LF (one game apiece)...PIT went 10-7 with Osik as its backstop...homered in his first start of season, April 13 vs. CHI...also picked off Sammy Sosa in PIT win...again doomed Northsiders by delivering game-winning pinch single on May 27 vs. CHI...posted lone multi-hit game (2-for-4), June 2 at STL...hit first career pinch-hit home run, August 21 at STL off Chuck Finley...made final start for PIT on September 11 at CIN...last appeared in game for PIT, September 15 at PHI.

2001

Again was jack of all trades for PIT...appeared in 39 games (30 starts) behind the plate...also played 1B, 2B, 3B, and RF...injured left hamstring while playing first base, April 29 and was placed on the 15-Day DL...was activated May 15...hit 2 homers on season, both of which came in 3-game stretch: May 23 at PHI and May 27 at ATL...posted 3 hits and career-high 4 RBI, August 12 vs. SD...lone pinch-hit was 2-run double off Randy Johnson on August 23 vs. ARI...gunned down 5 of the 20 would-be baserunners (25%)...allowed just one passed ball.

2000

At age of 31, turned in most productive big league campaign...posted career highs in home runs (4), RBI (22) and stolen bases (3)...made 26 appearances (17 starts) at C...also played both corner infield positions...made his 2nd major league appearance as a pitcher on May 20 vs. STL (1.0 IP, 5 H, 5 R, 5 ER, 0BB, 1K)...turned rare trick by homering and allowing a homer in that game...thus, became just the 2nd position player to do so since 1900 (TEX's Jeff Kunkel, 1988)...went 2-for-3 in first DH assignment, July 14 at CLE...made first career start (2nd appearance) at 1B, August 31 vs. SF...posted at least one RBI in 4 consecutive starts from September 2-8...threw out 4 of 12 (33%) would-be basestealers.

1999

Made then career-high 43 starts at C in his 4th season with PIT...made big league pitching debut with 1.0 inning of relief in a 19-8 loss at HOU on May 11 (1.0 IP, 2 H, 4 R, 4 ER, 2 BB, 1 K)...became first position player to pitch for PIT since John Cangelosi, May 3, 1988...homer on June 2 vs. LA off Darren Dreifort was first since September 29, 1996...legged out pinch-hit triple, June 13 vs. KC...ejected by umpire Terry Craft for arguing a call at 3rd base on July 10 at MIN...was placed on 15-Day DL with strained left hamstring, August 13...appeared in 4 games on rehab assignment with Triple-A Nashville...posted 3 hits and 3 RBI, August 30 at COL...hit 2nd homer on September 11 at STL off Garrett Stephenson...threw out 11 of 34 (32%) would-be baserunners.

1998

Hit .214 in 39 games for the Bucs...started games at both C (20) and 3B (7)...threw out 42 percent (5 of 12) of would-be baserunners...did not commit an error behind the plate...swiped lone bag, August 25 at SD...made first career start at 3B, May 24 at FLA...from July 21-28, started 8 consecutive games: 3 at catcher (while Jason Kendall served a suspension) and 5 at 3B (while Aramis Ramirez served another suspension).

1997

Spent full season with PIT...made 32 appearances (23 starts) at C...also played every infield position except SS...threw out 10 of 21 (48%) would-be basestealers...hit .353 in June...made his first career appearance at 1B, May 21 at STL...received first career appearance at 2B, July 16 vs. CIN...hit safely in 6 straight games, August 19-26.

1996

Shared catching duties with Jason Kendall in first full big league season...made 39 starts at C and one in LF...threw out 12 of 49 runners (24%) of would-be basestealers...made big league debut on April 5 at NYM, going 2-for-4 with one RBI...first major league hit was single off Dave Mlicki in 2nd at-bat...later in game, in 4th AB, collected first big league hit via single off Blas Minor...fractured right hand on July 15 at CHI as Sammy Sosa fouled pitch off hand...was on the DL from July 16-August 13...before activation, went 3-for-10 with double and 2 RBI during 3-game rehab assignment with Single-A Erie...was hitting .300 until August 19...on final day of season, hit first big league home run on September 29 at CHI off Dave Swartzbaugh.

1995

Spent the entire season with Calgary of Triple-A Pacific Coast League...established minor league career highs in batting and RBI...posted 5 hits on July 16 vs. Albuquerque...tallied season-high 5 RBI, May 19 at Vancouver...threw out 8 of 36 (22%) would-be basestealers...pitched 1.0 scoreless inning in Calgary's 16-8 loss on June 2 vs. Colorado Springs...played everywhere: made 74 appearances at C, 11 at 1B, 3 in the OF and one at 3B.

1994

Played for Buffalo of the American Association in first full Triple-A campaign...hit a 3-run, game-winning homer in debut, April 7 at New Orleans...posted team-leading 17 RBI in April...became the first Bison position player ever to receive a decision as a pitcher when he took loss in a 9-8, 12-inning setback, May 13 at New Orleans...sore right wrist rendered DL stint from July 15-22...made 67 starts at C, 3 at 1B, 2 in RF, 2 at DH and one at 2B...gunned down 26 of 62 (42%) would-be basestealers.

1993

Spent his 2nd consecutive complete season with Carolina of Double-A Southern League...named to Southern League's mid-season All-Star team...made 99 appearances at C and one at 3B...threw out 35 of 93 would-be basestealers (38%).

1992

Started 103 games at 3B and 23 behind the plate for Carolina...ranked 2nd on club in games played, at-bats and hits...tied for 2nd in RBI.

1991

Combined to hit .274 with 6 home runs and 40 RBI for Carolina and Salem of Single-A South Atlantic League...opened season with Salem, but was promoted to Carolina for first time on June 14.

1990

Opened professional career with Single-A Welland...assumed utility role immediately: made 11 appearances at 3B, 5 at C, 3 at 1B, 3 at 2B and 2 at SS.

PERSONAL

Keith Osik...married to Sherry Ann...the couple have son (Tyler) and a daughter (Kayley)...played 3 years at Louisiana State University...batted .340 with 9 home runs and 65 RBI in 72 games during his final year at LSU...was an All-SEC selection at C...was a shortstop as a frosh and a 3rd bagger as a sophomore...played all 9 positions in a game vs. Northeast Louisiana during his junior year, and was the pitcher of record in the eventual 11-inning 6-5 setback...graduate of Shoreham-Wading River (NY) High, where he played baseball...has participated in singer Garth Brooks' Teammates for Kids Foundation by making a personal challenge commitment.

CAREER NOTES

Career came full circle in 2004...was Montreal's first pick (5th overall) in the '96 First-Year Player Draft...became a free agent on a technicality and signed with ARI on November 7, 1996...after going 3-4 with a 5.04 ERA for the D-Backs from 2002-03, was acquired by Montreal in final week of Spring Training to add depth to a starting rotation that began the season without Tony Armas Jr. (May 2003 right-shoulder surgery)...gained more experience in one season with the Expos than in 2 seasons with D-Backs, combined.

Emerged in first extended opportunity at the big league level...went 4-7 with a 5.03 ERA in 19 starts sandwiched around a 10-plus week stay on the DL with a right groin strain...otherwise, took the ball every 5th day as needed...flashed talent that made him one of MLB's top prospects...fanned 99 in 98.1 innings (9.06 K's per 9 innings)...set career highs in virtually every major category...in many instances, topped career totals entering the season...after being acquired, pitched in one Grapefruit League contest before making his Expos debut on April 10 vs. NYM...the start was perhaps his best of the season...earned the win for the Expos nearly 8 years after Montreal took Patterson as the 5th overall pick in the '96 Draft...scattered 2 hits and just one walk in 7.0 shut-out innings...struck out 6 and needed just 86 pitches as Montreal won, 1-0...went 1-2 with a 3.57 ERA in April before sustaining a severely strained right groin in the 5th inning on April 27 at SD...ranked among NL league leaders in batting average against (.200) at the time of the injury...was barely able to walk after the game...was placed on the DL the next day and returned home for a period before resuming rehab at the club's minor-league complex in Viera, FL...made a pair of rehab starts for Single-A Brevard County and Double-A Harrisburg before slowing down with tightness in the same groin...after a period of rest and rehab, made one last rehab start for Brevard County on July 4 at Daytona (scattered one hit and one walk in 4.0 innings, fanning 3)...missed 66 big league games in all before returning to the mound on July 16 at ATL...13 of 19 starts came against NL East foes...went 2-5 with a 5.19 ERA (39 ER/67.2 IP) against ATL, FLA, NYM and PHI...against non-NL East clubs, went 2-2 with a 4.70 ERA (16 ER/30.2 IP) in 6 starts...Expos went 7-12 when Patterson toed the rubber (1-6 in Patterson's final 7 starts)...16 of 18 home runs allowed were hit by right-handed batters...allowed 5 first-inning home runs (allowed 2 first-inning long balls on April 17 at PHI)...26 of 46 walks came with runners on base...walked 2.4 batters per game before groin injury...walked 4.8 per 9 innings after the injury...limited opponents to a .202 mark (17-for-84) with RISP...opponents batted .316 (37-for-117) during Patterson's first 30 pitches, just .235 (63-for-268) therafter...posted 7 quality starts...went 4-for-33 (.121) with one RBI at the plate...tallied 5 sacrifice bunts.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Faced ARI, his former club, for the first time on August 11 at The Big O...earned the win...allowed 3 runs (2 earned) on 6 hits in 6.2 innings...walked one, struck out 6 in the Expos' 7-3 win...stellar 8.0-inning effort in opener of Sept. 15 twinbill at FLA was the longest career start...gave up 2 runs on 6 hits as Montreal bested Carl Pavano and the Fish, 6-2...started and took the loss in the last game in Montreal Expos history, October 3 at NYM...went 4.1 innings, allowing 4 runs on 4 hits...walked 3, struck out 3 in a game eventually won by NYM, 8-1...fanned a career-high 8 on 3 occasions: April 27 at SDP, July 31 at FLA and September 10 at ATL.

Opened the season with Triple-A Tucson...after a pair of starts for the Sidewinders, was recalled by ARI on April 11 in preparation for a starting assignment 4 days later vs. COL...was sent back to the Sidewinders following the game...was 3-2 with a 2.39 ERA over his next six starts...returned to ARI on May 28 when Brandon Webb was placed on the DL...dropped to 0-3 with losses on May 28 at SFG and June 2 at SDP...earned first win on June 21 vs. CIN with career-high 7.2 innings in a 5-3 triumph...struck out season-high 7...was optioned back to Tucson on July 8...made 10 more starts with Tucson, going 5-3 with a 2.92 ERA...won 4 straight decisions from July 29-August 23...went 10-5 with a 2.63 ERA for Tucson...finished 5.0 inning shy of qualifying for what would have been the PCL's ERA crown...returned to ARI in September...posted a 3.38 ERA in 8 games out of the bullpen...notched first professional save on September 7 at SFG...working final 2.0 innings to preserve ARI's 9-6 win.

Joined the Diamondbacks during 2nd half ...made 5 starts in the heat of a pennant race...with the home field in the Division Series hanging in the balance, took the ball in the regular season finale, September 29 at COL, and posted an 11-8 win...touched for 2 runs in 5.0 innings...5 days earlier at STL, blanked the Central Division titleholders on one hit over 6.0 frames, fanning 8...left the scoreless tie without a decision...subbing for the injured Rick Helling, made his big league debut on July 20 at SDP...worked 6.0 innings, allowing one run and 3 hits in front of 54,980 at The Q...departed trailing 1-0, but Arizona rallied for a 7-1 victory...the performance was satisfying, especially after undergoing "Tommy John" surgery on his right elbow on May 25, 2000...took the hill again on July 25 vs. SDP and spun 7.1 shut-out innings...scattered 5 hits while posting his first big league win...was optioned back to Tucson on August 7 as Helling returned from the DL...picked up his first major league hit on July 25 at SDP off Tom Davey...began the year in extended spring training to continue strengthening his elbow...made his season debut with Tucson on May 5 vs. Colorado Springs...opened his AAA season losing 4 of his first 5 decisions, but wound up going 9-1 in his final 14 outings (13 starts).

While finishing rehabilitation from elbow surgery, opened the season on the DL for 2nd straight year...pitching for Single-A Lancaster, made his '01 debut on May 13...made 2 Cal League starts before being promoted to Double-A El Paso...he made a pair of starts for the Diablos before stepping up to Tucson.

2000

Missed majority of the season with elbow surgery...opened the year on the DL due to a right elbow strain...worked 5.0 innings of relief in '00 debut on April 25 vs. Tacoma...was shelved on May 6 for the remainder of the year...was operated on by Dr. James Andrews on May 25 in Birmingham, AL.

1999

Opened the year with El Paso...made 18 starts for the Diablos before his season was interrupted to go and pitch for the U.S. in the Pan American Games...was part of Team USA that earned Silver Medal and qualified for the 2000 Sydney Olympics...made a pair of starts in Winnipeg, including the opener against Canada (no-decision)...earned the win win over Panama in the quarterfinals...upon returning from international action, was assigned to Tucson for his first taste of Triple-A...was the Texas League Pitcher-of-the-Week for June 7-13...was also named D-Backs' Minor League Pitcher-of-the-Month for June...fanned 117 in 100.0 Double-A innings...led Texas League starters with 10.53 strikeouts per 9 innings...made 8 starts for Scottsdale in the Arizona Fall League following the season.

1998

Made presence known by pacing the California League in ERA and batting average against (.217) among starting pitchers...also ranked 4th with 148 strikeouts...following the season, was rated the 2nd-best prospect in the California League in a Baseball America poll of league managers.

1997

Spent first pro season South Bend of the Single-A Midwest League...pitched better than his 1-9 record indicated...posted a solid 3.23 ERA and fanned 95 batters in 78.0 innings (10.96 per 9 innings).

PERSONAL

John Hollis Patterson...single...as a senior at West Orange-Stark High School, was named to USA Today's prep All-America squad with a 7-2 record and a 0.77 ERA in 72.1 innings, fanning 142.

CAREER NOTES

At 6-foot-11, is the tallest pitcher in major-league history...trumped 6-foot-10 Randy Johnson upon making his big league debut on April 2, 2002 at SEA...both Rauch and Johnson wore No. 51 with the Expos...the 2 spent 6 Cactus League campaigns "together" in Tucson, as the ChiSox and D-Backs share a training facility and Tucson Electric Park...spanning parts of 3 appearances, August 8–September 15, 2003, recorded 28 straight outs without allowing a hit (a pseudo no-hitter)...at the plate, is one of just 2 pitchers to ever homer off future Hall-of-Famer Roger Clemens (NYM's Shawn Estes, June 15, 2002, vs. NYY is the other)...Jon hit a 2-run opposite-field homer off the Rocket on August 13, 2004 vs. HOU...was a teammate of Brad Wilkerson's on United States Olympic Gold Medal team at the 2000 Sydney Olympics...went 1-0 with a 0.82 ERA (1 ER/11.0 IP) with 21 strikeouts in two appearances (one start)...21 strikeouts were one shy of the Olympic record (Ben Wallace, 22 in 1992)...threw a complete-game, three-hitter with no walks and 13 strikeouts in a victory vs. South Africa on September 18...allowed one run on three hits in 4.0 innings in loss on September 23 vs. Cuba...struck out 8 batters...was recommended/signed by George Bradley and Larry Grefer (CWS).

Split season not only between Triple-A and big leagues, but between CWS and Expos organizations...combined on a 4-1 record and a 2.81 ERA in 11 big league games (4 starts) for the ChiSox and Expos...began season with Triple-A Charlotte and made 2 starts for CWS before being acquired by the Expos in 3-player deal that sent Carl Everett back to the Windy City...performed well after the trade for both Edmonton and Expos...pitched just twice for the Expos before missing 29 games with a strained left oblique...was placed on the 15-Day DL on August 15 (retro to August 14)...was reinstated from DL on September 14...allowed only one run in his final 8 games (one start) or 17.1 innings with the Expos...made 2 starts for CWS during a pair of big league stints...was recalled on May 29, pitched that night vs. ANA (took the loss) and was optioned back to Triple-A the same day...earned the win on June 24 vs. CLE, allowing one run on 6 hits in 5.0 innings, in his final outing with the ChiSox...after the trade, was recalled by the Expos on August 6...was issued No. 51, the same number worn by—among others—Randy Johnson during his stint with the club (1988-89)...went 3-0 with a 1.54 ERA (4 ER/23.1 IP) in 9 games (2 starts) for the Expos...earned the win in his Expos debut, August 7 at HOU..allowed only one homer in 32.0 big league innings (Jeff Conine, September 28 vs. FLA)...this, after allowing 7 home runs in only 28.2 innings as a rookie with CWS in 2002...walked more than one batter only twice in 11 games (4 starts)...CWS and Expos went 3-1 in Jon's 4 starts...posted a 4.19 ERA in a starting role (9 ER/19.1 IP)...ERA in relief was 0.71 (1 ER/12.2 IP)...opponents hit just .179 after the 6th inning.

In minor leagues: Combined to go 7-4 with a 3.39 ERA in 17 Triple-A games (16 starts) for Charlotte and Edmonton...posted an impressive 2.7/1 strikeout-to-walk ratio...allowed 2 or fewer runs in 12 of 16 starts for the 2 clubs...went 6-3 with a 3.11 ERA in 14 games (13 starts) for Charlotte...went 3-0 with a 1.30 ERA (6 ER/41.2 IP) in 8 starts in May and June...allowed 3 or fewer runs in 3 of his final 4 starts in the ChiSox organization...went 4-1 with a 1.83 ERA in 8 road starts for the Knights...with the trade, went from the International League to the Pacific Coast League...was 1-1 with a 4.50 ERA (9 ER/18.0 IP) in 3 starts for Edmonton upon being recalled.

Game-By-Game Highlights: On August 13 vs. HOU, in first start at Olympic Stadium, worked 4.2 no-hit shutout innings AND collected his first big league hit, a 2-run opposite-field home run off future Hall-of-Famer Roger Clemens...however, left the game—and was placed on the 15-Day DL just 2 days later—due to a left oblique strain...not only had a no-hitter intact at the time of his exit, finished one out shy of recording the win...matched career high with

In 4th season with the Expos, caught a majority of the club's games for the first time (98 games, 95 starts, 841.0 innings)...solid play—especially behind the plate—coupled with injuries to fellow-backstop Michael Barrett, resulted in the increased playing time...37 of career-high 46 RBI came in "home" games (27 at Olympic Stadium, 10 at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in Puerto Rico)...led all big league catchers who played in at least 90 games by throwing out 46.7 percent of would-be basestealers (TB's Toby Hall, 41.2% and ANA's Benji Molina, 40.8% ranked 2nd and 3rd respectively)...established career highs in numerous offensive categories, including hits (77), doubles (26), home runs (9), RBI (46), total bases (132), walks (37), games (108) and at-bats (335)...posted a team-leading 3.75 catcher's ERA...combined with Michael Barrett and Edwards Guzman to allow just 40 stolen bases on the year...the 40 SB allowed was MLB's leading mark (STL ranked 2nd with 55)...caught 6 of the 10 shutouts recorded by Montreal pitchers in '03 (April 11 vs. NYM, April 24 vs. ARI, June 23 vs. PIT, August 18 vs. SFG, August 28 vs. PHI and September 18 vs. NYM)...caught one of the Expos' 2 complete-game shutouts: Javier Vazquez, August 18 vs. San Francisco...from July 27-September 11, started 39 of 43 games behind the plate, including streaks of 13 (July 27-August 9) and 12 games in a row (August 11-23)...in all, was 30-for-138 (.217) with 11 doubles, 2 home runs and 14 RBI during the 39-game stretch...posted first career multi-homer game in a 3-2 victory on April 18 in Puerto Rico vs. CIN...2nd long ball—off Scott Williamson in the 10th inning—was a game-ending homer...lifted a tie-breaking and game-winning 3-run homer off southpaw Dan Plesac with 2 outs in the 7th inning in a dramatic 5-3 win vs. PHI, May 25...doubled and homered en route to career-high 5 RBI, June 6 in Puerto Rico vs. TEX...hit first career grand slam—as a pinch hitter—Sept.15 vs. ATL...was the first Expos to hit a pinch slam since Chris Widger in '98...the pinch homer was one of 4 hit by Montreal in 2003...Montreal went 49-46 (.516) with Schneider as its starting backstop...hit 3 homers against left-handed pitchers after entering the season with none.

2002

Served as Michael Barrett's backup during first complete big league season...despite limited duty, threw out 43.5 percent (20 of 46) would-be basestealers...started 57 games behind the plate...named the Expos' winner of the Roberto Clemente Award, recognizing community service...was behind the plate for 5 of Expos' 9 complete games...caught/called back-to-back complete games, August 18 (Ohka) and 19 (Colon) vs. SDP...all 5 home runs were of the solo variety...posted career-high 7-game hitting streak, July 7-25...tallied a career-high 4 hits on September 17 at FLA...went 4-for-6 with 2 doubles and 2 RBI...matched career-high with 3 RBI on both April 11 at FLA and September 2 vs. PHI...appeared twice in the OF: June 4 vs. PIT and June 9 at CWS...legged out first career triple on April 28 vs. STL...started 6 straight games July 25-31 while Michael Barrett nursed a left forearm contusion.

2001

Spent majority of season with Triple-A Ottawa, but made most of opportunity with Montreal...hit .317 in 27 games...began season in International League, but was recalled for the first time on June 18...went 2-for-6 and was optioned back to Ottawa...played in 18 of 25 games (9 starts) after being recalled in September...hit .314 with 5 RBI during the season's final month...slugged first career home run off Scott Elarton on September 22 vs. COL...the 2-run shot proved to be the difference in Montreal's 3-1 win...gunned down 4 of 7 big league would-be basestealers...played in 97 games with the Lynx...led team in doubles (27)...was named the Ottawa Lynx Player of the Month for August...hit .329 with 10 RBI in 23 games to earn the citation.

2000

Made a great impression in the spring, earned Eastern League All-Star status and reached the big leagues for the first time...injury to veteran Chris Widger yielded first big league stint ahead of schedule...spent final 6 weeks of the season with Montreal...made his major league debut on May 26 at SDP, going 0-for-1 after coming in the game as a defensive replacement in the 9th...went 2-for-3 in first career start on May 27 at SDP...first big league hit was a 6th-inning double off Matt Clement...posted first career RBI on June 2 at BAL...gunned down 10 of 38 would-be base stealers (26.3%).

1999

Named Eastern League post-season All-Star in first complete Double-A campaign...set career highs in home runs (17) and RBI (66)...started 112 games behind the plate and led all EL catchers with a .992 fielding percentage...committing just 6 errors on the season...started each of the Senators' 9 playoffs games as Harrisburg captured 4th consecutive Eastern League title...posted 13-game hitting streak from July 5-19...went 5-for-5 with two doubles, July 19 vs Reading...participated in the Arizona Fall League, playing for Phoenix, in the off-season...ranked by Baseball America as the No. 7 prospect in the Expos chain due in part to agility and quickness behind the plate, along with a strong and accurate throwing arm.

1998

Hit .299 for Cape Fear and was promoted on May 19 to Single-A Jupiter of the Florida State League...held own in the FSL, hitting .272 with 30 RBI in 82 games.

1997

Playing with Cape Fear, emerged as a top-notch defensive player while posting solid offensive numbers...was named to South Atlantic League mid-season All-Star team.

1996

Returned to GCL Expos for 2nd straight season...hit .268 and led club with 24 walks...was promoted to Delmarva of Single-A South Atlantic League...went 3-for-9 in 5 SAL post-season contests.

1995

Drafted and almost immediately reported to the Gulf Coast Rookie League immediately after his exams...skipped graduation ceremonies at Northamption (PA) High...hit .227 in 30 games during pro debut.

PERSONAL

Brian Duncan Schneider...married the former Jordan Sproat on November 6, 2004...the couple have 2 dogs: Dinger and Ribbie...graduate of Northampton (PA) High, where he excelled at baseball and basketball...was named Player of the Year in Lehigh Valley in both 1994 and 1995...nicknamed "Hoops"...enjoys practicing all sports, especially golf.

Obtained: Acquired as player to be named in Aug. 8, 2000 trade that sent C Chris Widger to SEA in exchange for LHP Sean Spencer and a player to be named later, September 27, 2000.

CAREER NOTES

As a "true" rookie (had never played in the big leagues), led the 2004 Expos by hitting .337 with runners in scoring position...signed by SEA scout Steve Rath.

Overcame slow start to produce solid rookie campaign...despite zero big league experience, hit .269 with 20 doubles, 15 home runs and 62 RBI in 133 games...garnered spot on Topps All-Rookie Team...thanks to a 12-for-21 flurry with runners in scoring position the last 2-plus weeks of the season, led the 2004 Expos by hitting .337 with RISP...ranked among NL rookie leaders in home runs (tied for 2nd), RBI (3rd), hits (7th with 107), runs (tied 7th with 45), total bases (6th with 184), doubles (7th), triples (tied for first with 6), walks (tied for 4th with 40), on-base percentage (7th at .336), slugging percentage (tied for 7th with .462), extra-base hits (tied for 4th with 41) and outfield assists (tied for 2nd with 5)...got off to horrific start...went 1-for-34 his first 14 games...hit .291 thereafter...batted 7th and started in LF on Opening Day, April 6 at FLA...went 0-for-2 with 2 walks...first career hit—a 9th inning single off Braden Looper on April 19 at NYM—snapped an 0-for-22 skid to begin big league career...Terrmel's 22 at-bat drought to begin his career was the longest in MLB since PIT's Aramis Ramirez went 0-for-24 to begin his career in 1998...among non-pitchers, Sledge's 0-for-22 matched the longest drought to begin a tenure with Montreal (rookies or not)...2B/SS Gary Sutherland also went hitless in his first 22 at-bats with the Expos in 1969...posted a season-high 10-game hitting streak April 23-May 8...hit .533 (16-for-30) with 2 home runs and 6 RBI during the 10-gamer...hit first career home run during the streak (2-run shot on May 4 vs. COL off Turk Wendell)...was named the National League Rookie of the Month for May...hit a team-high .316 (24-for-76) in 25 May contests...tallied 4 home runs and 12 RBI...also posted a .526 slugging percentage in May to lead the club...this, after hitting just .122 in April...saw an impressive 4.04 pitches per plate appearance...posted nearly twice as many extra-base hits after the All-Star break (27) than before (14)...same theme with RBI: 41 of 62 RBI came in July (9), August (8) or September/October (24)...hit .333 (10-for-30) in interleague play...started games in LF (58), RF (37), CF (1, April 19 at NYM) and 1B (6) for Frank Robinson...batted leadoff just once (April 19 at NYM)...hit .406 (13-for-32) when putting the first pitch in play...batted .331 with runners on base, just .223 with the bases empty....posted season-high 3 hits in a game 9 times, the last being September 21 vs. NYM...posted 5 game-winning RBI...none of 5 outfield assists came at home plate.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Busted out of early-season swoon with 2 hits, including a double, and first-career RBI in the Expos' home opener, April 23 vs. PHI...recorded his first career RBI with 6th-inning single off Kevin Millwood...laced 3 opposite field singles on May 21 vs. SF...legged out rare 2-run infield single to snap 7th-inning 2-2 tie on July 19 at PIT...hit game-winning grand slam in 8-5 win on July 31 at FLA...down 5-3, capped the scoring with 2-out slam off Jose Manzanillo...the grand slam was the first of his career and came after Jack McKeon elected to intentionally walk Nick Johnson...reached base in 6 of 7 plate appearance, August 3 at STL (3 hits, 3 BB)...RBI single off Chad Harville with 2 outs in the bottom of the 12th inning was the game-winner in Expos' 6-5 win vs. HOU, August 13...the single, which scored Jose Vidro from 2nd base, came on an 0-2 pitch...hit homers in back-to-back wins, September 7 and 8 at Wrigley Field...matched career high with 4 RBI in 12-8 win at PHI, September 17...made the final out in Expos' last game in Montreal, September 29 vs. FLA...popped out to third baseman Mike Lowell...recorded 2 hits and 2 RBI—including the game-winning RBI double in the 8th—as the Expos ended a 5-game losing streak with a 4-2 win at NYM on October 1...closed the season with a trio of 2-hit efforts, October 1-3 at NYM.

CAREER NOTES

Nationals/Expos home-grown product...drafted as a sandwich-round selection (47th overall) in 1997 First-Year Player Draft..peaked as Expos' No. 5 prospect entering 2001 campaign, according to Baseball America...was rated No. 8 entering 2002...one of MLB's more impressive hitting pitchers...is 10-for-38 (.278) with a double in 4 big league seasons.

2004

Began the season in the minor leagues, but was recalled on April 27 and proceeded to produce finest big league campaign to date...became one of Frank Robinson's most dependable middle relievers...went 4-2 with a 3.72 ERA in 54 games (one start)...posted a 3.03 ERA in 53 games out of the bullpen...recorded career-best efforts in ERA (3.72), runs allowed (28), walks (17), batting average against (.275), on-base percentage against (.326), slugging percentage against (3.89) and pitches per inning (15.6)...relief ERA on zero days rest was 9.72 (9 ER/8.1 IP)...with one or more days rest Tucker's relief ERA was 1.89 (12 ER/57.0 IP)...flashed improved command...walked only 2.26 batters per 9.0 innings pitched...posted 2.6/1 strikeouts-to-walk ratio in 2004...ratio was 2.35 in 2003...went 3-0 with a 3.65 ERA at The Big O...earned 3 holds: May 2 at LA, June 16 vs. MIN and July 24 vs. FLA...went 1-0 with a 0.63 ERA in 11 July appearances...retired 31 of 53 first batters faced (58%)...pitches per inning dropped for the 3rd straight year (17.1 in 2002, 16.2 in '03, 15.6 in '04)...posted a relief ERA under 3.00 in May (2.79), July (0.63), August (1.80) and September/October (2.54)...pitched better with runners on base (.246 batting average against) than with the bags empty (.305 batting average against)...3 of 5 homers allowed came with 2 strikes...worked a season-high 3.0 innings twice: June 16 vs. MIN and Sept. 14 at FLA...tossed season-best 11.1 consecutive scoreless innings, July 3-24.

With Edmonton: Posted a 2.77 spring ERA, but was optioned to Triple-A Edmonton on April 3...went 2-0 with a 4.86 ERA in 3 starts for the Trappers before being recalled by the Expos.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Did not get a decision, but pitched in the Expos' final game in Montreal, September 29 vs. FLA...worked 3.0 scoreless innings, September 14 at FLA...made emergency start in 2nd game of doubleheader, August 18 at SF...was not named the starter until the completion of the twinbill's opener...took the loss...allowed 6 runs on 6 hits and 2 walks in an eventual 14-4 setback...threw 60 pitches...struck out 3 in 2.0 scoreless innings, August 8 at HOU, to earn the win in Expos' 5-2 victory...win was special because Tucker's boyhood idol—Roger Clemens—took the loss in that game.

Finished 2-3 with a 4.73 ERA in 45 games for the Expos...pitched primarily as a reliever, but also made 7 starts...struggled through the beginning of June, but after a 3-week stint with Triple-A Edmonton, pitched extremely well...was optioned to Edmonton on July 9 after posting a 5.95 ERA in his first 33 appearances (one start)...after pitching well for the Trappers (see below), was recalled on July 31...closed on a strong note, going 2-2 with a 3.12 ERA (12 ER/34.2 IP) in 12 games (6 starts) in August and September...walked 2 and struck out 19 during the season-ending 2-month stretch...after being recalled, registered a 1.69 ERA in August as the Expos pulled into a tie for the N.L. Wild Card on August 28...for the season, went 1-1 with 3 holds and a 5.06 ERA (30 ER/53.1 IP) in 38 games out of the bullpen...7 of 8 home runs allowed came while pitching out of the 'pen...pocketed the 3 holds: May 12 at SF, June 28 at TOR and July 5 at ATL...squandered only save opportunity of the season on April 6 at NYM...retired 30 of 38 first batters faced (79%)...worked a career-high 4.0 innings of relief in 6-3 setback vs. HOU, April 27...with 2.0 scoreless innings, earned lone relief win in the 2003 season finale, September 28 at CIN...finished 7 games...stranded 10 of 18 (56%) of inherited baserunners...in 7 starts, went 1-2 with a 4.05 ERA...Montreal went 3-4 in T.J.'s 7 starts...joined the Expos' starting rotation for a 6-start stretch, August 19-September 17, going 1-2 with a 4.56 ERA...earned his only career win in a starting role on September 12 vs. NYM, allowing 2 runs on 6 hits in 6.0 innings...worked a career-long 6.0 innings twice (August 29 at FLA and September 12 vs. NYM)...walked one, fanned 16 in a starting role as opposed to a 19-31 BB/SO ratio as a reliever...had not started a game at the big league level since getting a pair of starting assignments in June of 2000...went 5-for-19 (.263) with a double at the plate...worked

CAREER NOTES

Entered the 2003 season rated by Baseball America as the No. 7 prospect in the Expos chain...was rated as the Marlins' No. 6 prospect entering both the 2001 and 2002 seasons...signed by FLA-scout Pablo Lantigua.

2004

Weathered stormy sophomore season that began in the starting rotation and concluded in the bullpen...posted dramatic increase in strikeouts per 9 innings (6.8, up from 4.9 in 2003), but also saw increase in walks per 9 innings (4.9, up from 3.2 in 2003), home runs allowed (26 from 16) and wild pitches (8 from 2) compared to last season...with wildness came increase in pitches per inning (18.1 from 16.5)...went 4-4 with a 5.76 ERA (42 R/65.2 IP) in 14 starts (during which the Expos went 5-9)...shifted to the bullpen for "good" on June 26 after 13 of season's first 14 appearances came in a starting role...went 1-1 with 3 holds and a 4.61 ERA (27 ER/52.2 IP) in 31 appearances out of the bullpen sandwiched around a single "spot" start (September 17 at PHI)...as a starter: Was the first Expo pitcher to win 4 games...4th win came win June 2 at ATL...16 of 26 home runs allowed came in a starting role...pitching in relief: Posted 3 holds: July 4 vs. TOR, July 10 vs. PIT and July 23 vs. FLA...worked scoreless relief in 19 of 31 appearances...worked 8.0 straight scoreless innings, August 24-30...pitching exclusively out of Bob Natal's bullpen, went 1-0 with a 2.65 ERA (5 ER/17.0 IP) in August...posted a 12.27 ERA (5 ER/3.2 IP) when pitching on zero days rest...bullpen ERA when pitching on 2 or more days rest was 3.74 (14 ER/33.2 IP)...ERA when pitching on zero or one day rest was 6.16 (13 ER/19.0 IP)...retired the first batter faced 19 times in 31 appearances...received better returns in the season's 2nd half, despite posting better overall numbers before the All-Star break...ERA was superior in the 2nd half (3.96 to 5.87)...however, while batting average against was the same (.266) in both halves, strikeout-to-walk ratio was decidedly better in the first half (38 BB/69 SO) than after the All-Star break (26 BB, 20 SO)...tied Livan Hernandez for club "lead" with 26 home runs allowed...induced 9 GDPs after posting just 4 as a rookie in 2003...limited opposing right-handed hitters to a .239 mark...however, left-handed batters posted a .301 batting average against...17 of 26 home runs allowed were of the solo variety...issued a walk with the bags loaded 4 times...is 1-for-52 (.019) at the plate in his career with one walk and 23 strikeouts...does have 11 sac hits...recorded first and only big league hit, April 28 at SDP...single off Adam Eaton ended 35 at-bat hitless string.

2003

Started the season in the minor leagues, but with injury to Tony Armas Jr., was recalled and went 6-8 with a 4.34 ERA in 23 games (20 starts) sandwiched around a 37-game stay on the Disabled List in August and September...was placed on the 15-Day DL on August 8 (retro to August 6) with right rotator-cuff tendinitis...didn't make a rehab assignment because the minor league season was over...was activated on September 15...worked 6.0 scoreless

CAREER NOTES

After consultation with the Expos' medical staff, elected to miss final 6 weeks of '04 season in order to have right-knee surgery...was placed on the 15-Day DL on August 26 (right patella tendinitis)...was then transferred from the 15- to the 60-Day DL on August 27...on September 8, had successful surgery performed on his right knee by Dr. Richard Steadman in Vail, CO...is expected to be ready for 2005 Spring Training...Steadman and his staff removed the inflamed portion of the patellar tendon and the inflammatory nodule from Vidro's right knee during the procedure...began rebabbing the knee less than a week after surgery...with SS Orlando Cabrera, formed half of MLB's most frequent DP combo...started a franchise-record (for double-play tandem) 656 games together, most in MLB at the time Cabrera was dealt to BOS in 4-team mega deal, July 31, 2004...2B Mike Lansing and SS Mark Grudzielanek rank 2nd (started 318 games together from 1995-97)...signed by Expos scouts Fred Ferreira and Juan Loyola.

Despite battling injuries—namely right patella tendinitis—for most of the season, once again posted solid offensive numbers (.294 with 24 doubles, 14 home runs and 60 RBI)...agreed to terms on a 4-year contract extension, May 14...the deal, which runs through the '08 campaign, was announced after Montreal's 4-3 win at Bank One Ballpark...finished season ranked among Expos all-time leaders in games (7th with 973), at-bats (7th with 3485), runs (6th with 524), hits (7th with 1061), singles (7th with 694), doubles (5th with 294), home runs (tied for 7th with 101), RBI (7th with 471), total bases (6th with 1639), walks (9th with 325), sacrifice flies (tied for 10th with 26) and times hit by pitch (10th with 32)...was vastly superior batting in the No. 3 hole (.311 with 10 home runs) than batting No. 2 (.252 with 4 homers)...did not hit at least .300 for the first time in 6 seasons, or since batting .220 in 1998...started slowly, hitting just .227 through the end of May, but caught fire in June (.388, 7 doubles, 5 home runs, 21 RBI)...led the Expos in batting, doubles and RBI, as well as on-base (.438) and slugging percentages (.602) on the month...is now a career .343 hitter (213-for-621) with 20 homers and 90 RBI in June...hit the 100th home run of his career in the 4th inning in the opener of an August 18 doubleheader at SFG...had been stuck on 99 for 18 games, but became the 9th member of the Expos' 100-home run club...2-run shot came off SFG-starter Brad Hennessey...2 innings later, laced game-winning RBI single off Hennessey to break 2-2 deadlock...with a 3-hit effort on June 17 vs. MIN, became the 7th member of the Montreal Expos 1,000-hit club...all 7 members recorded their first 1,000 hits exclusively wearing an Expos uniform...Jose joined the exclusive list with a 5th-inning infield single off Terry Mulholland (hard liner off the pitcher)...was the first Expo to record his 1,000th hit at The Big O since Tim Wallach turned the trick in Quebec on June 6, 1988 vs. PHI...hit safely in 19 straight games, June 12-July 2...went 32-for-73 (.438) with 4 doubles, 6 home runs and 17 RBI during the 19-gamer...19-gamer was his first streak in excess of 13 games since he posted a career-high 21-game run, May 4-27, 2002...just missed posting the 5th hitting streak of 20 or more games in Expos history...ranked 2nd on the Expos with 8 game-winning RBI (Tony Batista, 18)...hit .376 in day games...batted .308 with runners on base...went 25-for-72 (.347) in 18 interleague contests...finished the season with 99 career hits against ATL...7 of 14 homers came with 2 strikes...hit .301 after the All-Star break despite increasing pain in the knee.

Game-By-Game Highlights: Played in final game at The Big O on August 15 vs. HOU (3-for-4, RBI)...drove in both runs in the Expos' 2-0 win on May 8 vs. STL...posted the game-winning RBI in back-to-back games, April 20-21, at Shea Stadium to provide the Expos with their first winning streak of the season...on April 20, led off the 8th inning with a solo homer off David Weathers to snap a 1-1 tie in the Expos eventual 2-1 victory...24 hours later, lifted a 5th-inning sac fly to plate Orlando Cabrera with the tie-breaking run as Montreal again won 2-1....9th-inning single on April 13 off Tommy Phelps in Puerto Rico was his 100th career hit against FLA...the Marlins were the first team against which Jose reached the century mark (added PHI later)...doubled, homered and posted 2 RBI in an Opening Day 4-3 loss, April 6 at FLA.

Battled through a nagging right knee injury, but once again produced offensively and defensively in his 7th season with the Expos...battled a sore right knee for much of the season...sore knee resulted in 3 missed starts from June 14-22...thanks to All-Star invite, did not enjoy rest during the All-Star break...played through the pain in July and August, but missed 4 consecutive starts, September 9-12...started only 3 of the Expos' final 7 contests of the season due to the same sore knee...was named to his 3rd NL All-Star team by CHI-skipper Dusty Baker (also 2001 and '02)...due to Marcus Giles injury, started his 2nd Mid-Summer Classic...he went 0-for-2...was batting .332 with 11 home runs and 47 RBI at the All-Star break to earn the honor...for the first time, was named to the 2003 NL Silver Slugger Team by Hillerich & Bradsby Co., makers of Louisville Slugger...was joined on the National League club by Todd Helton, Edgar Renteria, Mike Lowell, Javier Lopez, Barry Bonds, Gary Sheffield, Albert Pujols and Mike Hampton....thanks to career-best 69 walks, led NL 2B with a career-high .397 on-base percentage (12th in NL)...15 home runs were trumped by only Jeff Kent (22) and Marcus Giles (21) among National League second baggers...posted superior offensive numbers in the season's first half (.332, 25 doubles, 11 homers, 47 RBI) as opposed to the 2nd half (.275, 11 doubles, 4 home runs, 18 RBI)...ranked 2nd on the club with 44 multi-hit games...hit .300 or better in every month except September (.224)...batted .323 in March/April, .344 in May, .301 in June, .325 in July and .313 in August...has hit .300 or better in 10 of 12 months the last 2 seasons...the lone exceptions came in September of both 2002 and '03...the Puerto Rican native batted .328 (22-for-67) with 7 doubles, 3 home runs and 12 RBI in 21 games in his homeland of Puerto Rico...also posted impressive on-base (.432) and slugging (.567) percentages in 22 games at Hiram Bithorn Stadium...was named MVP of the Expos first Puerto Rico homestand, April 11-20 (13-for-38 with 7 doubles, 2 homers and 7 RBI)...posted a trio of hit streaks of 10 or more games in '03, the longest of which lasted 13 games (July 3-20)...also posted 12- (August 7-19) and 10-game (April 11-20) hitting streaks...hit game-ending homer to lead off 10th inning, April 12 at Estadio Hiram Bithorn, off NYM's Mike Stanton...the solo shot provided Expos with dramatic 2-1 victory...September 19 at NYM, hit 3rd grand slam of his career, the first ever allowed by Tom Glavine...Montreal was 69-68 (.504) with Vidro as its starting 2B...led the Expos with 2 multi-homer efforts (July 1 at NYM and Sept. 19 at NYM)...hit above .300 against both left- (.315) and right-handed (.309) pitching...13 of 36 doubles came in April...was ejected by home-plate umpire Mike Fichter in the 9th inning on Sept. 2 at PHI (arguing balls and strikes).

2002

Turned in another potent offensive season...started at 2B in the All-Star Game in Milwaukee...took the field with teammate Vladimir Guerrero, marking the first time 2 Expos started the Mid-Summer Classic since '84 (RHP Charlie Lea, C Gary Carter)...was named Expos Molson Player of the Month in both May (.325, 3 home runs, 23 RBI) and June (.352, 3 homers, 15 RBI)...ranked among NL top 10 in batting with RISP (tied for 2nd at .372), hits (3rd with 190), doubles (tied for 3rd with 43), multi-hit games (4th with 54), longest hitting streak (4th with 21), batting average (6th at .315), home batting average (6th at .335), runs (tied 8th with 103), sacrifice bunts (tied for 9th with 11)...hit safely in career-high 21 straight games, May 4-27...the 21-game run tied for the 3rd longest in Expos history...54 multi-hit games ranked 2nd on the club, behind only Guerrero (60)...scored a career-high 103 runs, topping the century mark for the 2nd time in 3 seasons (101 in 2000)...hit 2nd career grand slam in 10th inning of 13-9 win on May 25 vs. PHI (off Hector Mercado)...then posted 4 hits the next day vs. PHI...laced game-winning 3-run double in 9th inning off John Smoltz, May 29 at ATL...10th-inning solo shot on July 26 vs. FLA off Vladimir Nunez was a game-winner...hit a game-winning 3-run shot off Toby Borland in the 14th inning, September 17 at FLA...was ejected for the first time in career on April 27 vs. STL by home-plate umpire Alfonso Marquez for arguing a called third strike.

Produced another stellar offensive season despite missing 36 games due to various injuries...Montreal went just 12-24 when Vidro was not in Felipe Alou's starting lineup...led all NL 2B with a .319 batting average...trailed only CLE's Roberto Alomar (.336) and SEA's Bret Boone (.333) in MLB...hit over .300 in 4 of 6 months...was named Expos Molson Player of the Month in July...led NL with a .443 batting average to pocket the citation...was hit in the head by a Roy Oswalt pitch on August 4 at Houston...met twice with Dr. Karen Johnston (McGill University Health Centre) before receiving the green light to resume activities...sustained concussion...missed 11 of next 13 contests...51 multi-hit games ranked 2nd on Expos behind only Vlad Guerrero (56)...hit .417 in "close and late" situations, tops in NL...hit safely in 14 straight games, July 4-20...batted .509 with 5 homers and 16 RBI during the 14-game run, which included 11 multi-hit efforts...led MLB with a .456 batting average in interleague play...3-hit effort on Opening Day, April 2 at CHI, included 2-run homer off Jon Lieber on first pitch...sore left forearm rendered stint on 15-Day DL, May 22...was reactivated on June 12 at NYY...served as Felipe Alou's DH at Yankee Stadium...was hit by pitch 3 times with the bases loaded, all by PIT pitchers (Joe Beimel, Jason Schmidt, Rich Loiselle)...reached base safely in 9 straight plate appearances, July 4-5 (5 hits, 3 BB, one HBP).

In only 2nd full big league season, turned in career year...established career highs and club records for 2B in most offensive categories, including batting average (.331), games (153), hits (200), doubles (51), home runs (24) and RBI (97)...became the 2nd 2B in the last 60 years to post at least 200 hits, 50 doubles and a .300 average (also Craig Biggio in '98)...became just the 4th player in Expos history to reach the 200-hit plateau...the 200 hits also set a franchise mark for hits in single season by a 2B (Dave Cash held the previous mark, 188 in '77)...ranked among NL leaders in multi-hit games (2nd with 60), hits (2nd), doubles (3rd), home batting average (5th at .369), batting average against LHP (6th at .373) and batting (7th)...participated in first All-Star Game, which was played at Turner Field in Atlanta...became first Expos 2B to earn an invite...went 0-for-1 after pinch hitting in the 9th inning...was named Expos Molson Player of the Month for May (.387, 11 doubles, 5 home runs and 25 RBI) June (.356, 5 home runs and 15 RBI) and August (.333, 38 hits, 7 home runs and 18 RBI)...became only the 5th Expo to earn the POTM award 3 times in a single season (Vlad Guerrero, Pedro Martinez, Andres Galarraga, Tim Raines)...hit 21st homer on August 26 vs. HOU off Jose Lima to established Expos single-season record for home runs by a 2B...the former mark, 20, was set by Mike Lansing in 1997...97 RBI by season's end also set an Expos single-season record for RBI by a 2B...led MLB 2B with 442 assists...ranked 2nd among NL 2B with 102 double plays...went 3-for-4 with 2 stolen bags on Opening Day, April 3 at LA...went 4-for-5 with 2 doubles on April 7 vs. SD...hit 2 home runs in a single game for the first time on April 11 at PIT...scored career-high 4 runs on May 14 vs. CHI...matched career high and franchise record with 3 doubles, May 17 vs. ARI...hit safely in a career-high 14 straight, June 16- July 1 (21-for-58, .362)...also posted a 12-game hitting streak from May 1-14 (20-for-48, .417)...along with teammate and fellow-Puerto Rican Javier Vazquez, represented MLB in the annual series/tour of Japan after the season...laced game-winning 7th-inning single in the tour's finale...became 4th Expo in franchise history to homer from both sides of the plate in the same game, July 3 at ATL...reached base safely via hit or a walk in 24 straight games, August 18-September 24...recorded 200th hit via solo shot on September 30 at NYM off Glendon Rusch...ball was retrieved by Mets security and then was given, by Jose, to his father, who was in attendance.

1999

Began season as a bench player, but emerged in mid-May as a front line player and produced spectacular results (.304, 12 home runs and 59 RBI)...ranked 2nd in the NL with 45 doubles...tallied 38 multi-hit games...hit .304 despite capping season in 0-for-26 slide that dropped batting average to .304 from .321...made 115 starts at 2B, 7 more at 1B...received first career start at 1B on April 7 at PIT...posted career-high 5 RBI on April 14 at MIL...hit first career pinch homer on May 2 vs. STL...hit first career grand slam on August 6 vs. SDP off Carlos Almanzar...reached base five times on September 1 at ARI (3-for-3, 2 BB).

1998

The Expos' Opening Day 2B, struggled early and was sent to Triple-A Ottawa on May 10...hit .400 in nearly 2 weeks with the Lynx and was recalled by Montreal on May 23...was in a constant battle for the 2B job with Wilton Guerrero and Orlando Cabrera...was again optioned to Ottawa before being recalled for good on September 4...in all, played in 83 big league games...made 46 starts at 2B, 3 at 3B...hit .325 in 25 June contests...following the season, played for Ponce in the Puerto Rican Winter League...was a unanimous selection as the league's MVP...hit .417 and won the batting title...the .417 mark was the highest in the PRWL since Edgar Martinez hit .424 in '90...also ranked among PRWL leaders in home runs (tied for 4th with 10) and RBI (6th with 30).

1997

Hit .323 in 73 games with Ottawa to earn first big league exposure...enjoyed 2 separate stints with the Expos: June 6-July 1 and July 21 through the end of the season...joined Montreal for the first time when Vladimir Guerrero was placed on the DL with a pulled right hamstring...appeared in 67 games with Montreal, including 36 starts at 3B...went 9-for-20 (.450) with 4 doubles and 4 RBI as a pinch hitter...first big league hit was a pinch-hit double off Steve Trachsel on June 8 vs. CHI...went 4-for-5 on August 7 vs. LA...with the advent of interleague play, was Montreal's first designated hitter on June 16 at BAL...first start in the field came at 3B on June 18 at BAL...first career homer came on September 11 at NYM off Mel Rojas...with Ottawa, posted 90 hits in 73 International League contests...went 3-for-3 with a double and a home run on April 3 at Toledo...posted a 12-game hitting streak, May 23-June 4...was named International League's Player of the Week for the period ending June 1...hit .500 (13-for-26) to earn the award...led Ottawa in nearly every offensive category when summoned by Montreal for the first time...played for Ponce in the Puerto Rican Winter League at season's end (.242 with 9 RBI in 36 games).

1996

Paced Harrisburg with 82 RBI in only complete Double-A season...hit 18 homers, the highest total of minor league career...batted .467 with 14 hits in the Eastern League playoffs...led Senators to Eastern League championship.

1995

Began season with Single-A West Palm Beach, hit .325 and was promoted to Harrisburg...surpassed the 100-hit plateau for 2nd consecutive season...also legged out then career-high 31 doubles for the 2 clubs.

1994

Advanced to West Palm Beach...named Florida State League Player of the Week for the period ending June 19...ranked among Expos minor leaguers in strikeout percentage (3rd at 11%), doubles (4th with 30) and games (5th with 125)...led West Palm in games and walks (51).

1993

Struggled through injury plagued season but showed offensive flashes present in first pro season...left wrist sprain rendered DL stint, June 1...was activated from the DL, June 15th...didn't play after July 26 due to the left-wrist strain.

1994

In pro debut, named to Gulf Coast post-season All-Star team...named Topps' Co-Player of the Month for August...was also the Expos' organization Player of the Month in August...ranked 3rd among short-season switch-hitters in batting average (.330)...ranked among GCL leaders in hits (tied for 3rd with 66), batting (5th) and slugging (6th at .440).

Game-By-Game Highlights: Hit 2 homers, June 4 at CIN and Sept. 23 vs. NYM...fresh off getting swept in MIL, had hair dyed jet black on May 14 in Phoenix...Brad's hue experimentation subsequently sparked the Expos' first series sweep at B.O.B...established new career high with 21st home run on August 13 vs. HOU off Roger Clemens...hit game-winning 3-run homer in top of 9th as Expos won, 6-3, for the last time (in their penultimate game), October 2 at NYM...the homer was the last in the 36-year history of the Montreal Expos.

Avoided potential sophomore slump, hitting .268 with 34 doubles, 19 home runs, 77 RBI and 13 stolen bases in 146 games...played anywhere, hit anywhere for Frank Robinson...played 4 positions: LF (95 games, 80 starts), RF (16, 9) and CF (42, 40), as well as 1B (27,11)...also hit in every spot in the lineup except the 8th and 9th holes...appeared in 146 games...only Orlando Cabrera (162) played in more among Expos...tied for 6th in the NL with a team-high 11 outfield assists, 8 of which came while playing LF...was a vital cog in an Expo outfield that tallied 38 outfield assists on the season....ranked 3rd in the National League fanning a team-high 155 times...'03 offensive numbers were remarkably similar to rookie 2002 campaign: batting (.266 in '02, .268 in '03), at-bats (507, 504), hits (135, 135), doubles (27, 34), triples (8, 4), home runs (20, 19), RBI (59, 77), OBP (.370, .380) and slugging percentage (.469, .464)...hit leadoff 32 times...Montreal went 14-18 (.438) in those games...reached base safely via hit or walk at least once in 30 of the 32 games at the top of the order, including the first 24...in all, hit .299 (35-for-117) and posted a .424 when batting first...at the urging of Frank Robinson, met with Reggie Smith for a batting "lesson" during the Expos 3-day stay in Los Angeles, August 19-21...Smith worked with Brad while serving as Team USA's hitting coach during the 2000 Olympics...the tutorial paid almost immediate dividends...during a 20-game span beginning August 23, went 26-for-74 (.351) with 8 doubles, 3 home runs, 12 RBI and 18 walks...reached base 45 times (26 hits, 18 walks, one HBP) in 93 plate appearances (.484 on-base percentage) during the surge, which raised his batting average from .259 to .274...became the 5th Expo to hit for the cycle in a 6-4 win on June 24 vs. PIT...turned the trick in sequence (single, double, triple, homer), becoming the first player to do so since Chicago-AL's Jose Valentin, April 27, 2000 vs. BAL...with Wilkerson and Vladimir Guerrero (September 14 vs. NYM) both hitting for the cycle in 2003, the Expos were the first club since the 1998 Rockies to have 2 teammates hit for the cycle in the same season...down 2-0 and facing a 3-2 count with 2 out in the 9th inning, hit his 2nd career grand slam off Tim Worrell to lift the Expos to a dramatic 4-2 win, August 17 vs. SFG...before the slam, the Expos had trailed for all 53 outs in the game...the slam, and win, would prove to be large as the Expos completed a 4-game wrap-around weekend sweep of the N.L. West-leading Giants the next day...the win also allowed the Expos to sweep the season series from the Giants, 7-0...according to home run-guru David Vincent, since the game-ending slam came on a 3-2 pitch with 2 outs in the 9th inning, Brad became the first big leaguer since 1936 to turn what would have been a shut-out loss into a win via a grand slam with 2 outs in the 9th inning...on May 23, 1936, CIN's Sammy Byrd hit a game-ending slam with 2 outs in the 9th inning in a 4-3 win vs. PIT...was one of 21 big leaguers to hit more than one grand slam in 2003...hit slams on April 11 in Puerto Rico vs. NYM off David Cone and August 17 vs. SFG off Tim Worrell...was the first Expo to hit more than one slam in a single season since 1997, when Henry Rodriguez hit a pair...became only the 3rd big leaguer (the first outside of New York), the first since 1963, to hit for the cycle and hit a game-ending grand slam in the same season...the other 2: Jim Hickman (1963 Mets) and Jackie Robinson (1948 Dodgers)...special thanks to ESPN.com's Jayson Stark and home run-guru David Vincent...hit .432 with 3 doubles, 3 homers and 9 RBI during career-best 10-game hitting streak, August 23-September 1...missed 6 consecutive games from May 20-25, while suffering from conjunctivitis (pink eye)...when putting the ball in play (a.k.a. subtracting strikeouts), batted .387 (135-for-349)...ranked among the NL's toughest players to double up (4th, grounded into only 5 double plays in 504 at-bats, or one every 100.8 at-bats)...hit 3 home runs against left-handed pitching...went 3-for-8 (.375) with 2 grand slams with the bases loaded...batted .406 (13-for-32) when putting the first pitch in play...homered on the first day of May, August and Sept.

Hit .266 with 20 home runs and 59 RBI and was named The Sporting News' NL Rookie Player of the Year as part of the publication's off-season awards..was runner-up to COL's Jason Jennings for the NL Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Award (receiving 2 first-place, 14 2nd-place votes and 57 total points)...was also a finalist for the Players' Choice NL Outstanding Rookie Award, won by Jennings...paced all NL rookies in HR (20), RBI (59), runs (92), hits

(135), multi-hit games (39), extra-base hits (55), total bases (238), doubles (27), triples (eight), walks (81) and outfield assists (13)...finished second among NL freshmen with a .469 slugging percentage and a .370 on-base percentage...the 20 home runs set an Expos rookie record...broke old mark, 19, had been set by Andre Dawson in '77 and Larry Walker in '90...also set club rookie records with 92 runs (old mark: Pepe Mangual, 84 in '75) and 81 walks (old mark: Pepe Mangual, 74 in '75)...recorded 13 outfield assists, tops among NL rookies...finished only one OF assist short of NL leaders Vladimir Guerrero and Larry Walker (14 apiece)...posted 10 total bases on August 21 at COL (3-for-4 with a double, 2 home runs and 3 RBI)...hit leadoff for Frank Robinson 72 times...hit 2 first-inning lead-off home runs: June 16 vs. TOR (Steve Parris) and July 6 at PHI (Brandon Duckworth)...Shannon Stewart also led off TOR's first inning with a homer...thus, both clubs led off their first inning with homers for the first time since May 1, 1998 vs. ARI (Devon White/ F.P. Santangelo)...was ejected for the first time on May 3 at ARI by HP-ump Larry Vanover (arguing called 3rd strike)...had not manned CF since August 16, 2000 while playing with Ottawa...had Nov. 1 left-shoulder arthroscopy performed by Dr. James Andrews...proceedure repaired partial tear in rotator cuff.

Missed Spring training and first month of the season while rehabilitating from off-season shoulder surgery...appeared in 6 games at Single-A Jupiter as the DH, May 5-10, before joining Triple-AAA Ottawa...lifted the Lynx to a 7-3 win over Rochester on July 1 with a 15th-inning grand slam...hit solo homer on July 12 at Lousville in 1-0 win...was recalled by the Expos after the game, when Tim Raines was transferred to the 60-day DL (left shoulder strain)...went 0-for-3 with a walk in big league debut, July 12 vs. TB...snapped 0-for-10 start with first big league hit, a single to CF off Tim Wakefield, July 17 vs. BOS...blasted first major league homer on July 26 vs. ATL off Jason Marquis...posted 2 hits off Greg Maddux, July 27 vs. ATL...optioned to Ottawa, August 19...was recalled on Sept. 4...played in 38 games (34 starts in LF) for Montreal.

2000

Began season with Double-A Harrisburg...nearly broke franchise record for doubles by midseason...legged out 36 two-baggers in 66 EL contests before being promoted to Ottawa, June 15...hit .336 with 6 homers and 44 RBI for Harrisburg...was selected to play in 2nd-annual All-Star Futures Games, held in Turner Field in Atlanta as part of MLB's All-Star Week...selected by Baseball America to the mid-season AA All-Star team and rated by BA at the end of the season as the No. 4 prospect in the EL and No. 10 in the IL...was named the Expos' Player Development Player of the Year...more than half of hits on the season went for extra bases (68 of 130, or 66%)...upon his return for Australia, reported to Maryvale of the Arizona Fall League...AFL stint was cut short (17 games) by shoulder problems...had December 5 surgery performed by Dr. James Andrews...proceedure repaired labrum and rotator cuff...was one of 3 OF selected on the 2000 Howe Sportsdata All-Prospect Team along with CHI's Corey Patterson and TB's Josh Hamilton.

1999

Participated in the 1999 major league spring training camp...went 4-for-9 in Grapefruit League action before being sent to Harrisburg for professional debut...hit .235 with 8 home runs and 49 RBI for the Senators...added 21 doubles...ranked among Eastern League leaders in walks (4th with 88) and games (5th with 138)...after a summer full of negotiations, signed with the Expos on August 24, just one day before classes began at the University of Florida...played semi-pro ball with the Evansville Outlaws while in negotiations with the Expos...upon signing, reported to the Expos' minor league complex in Jupiter and participated in the Florida Instructional league.

MEDICAL BIOS

TOM GRAHAM, MD — MEDICAL DIRECTOR

Is the Chief of the Curtis National Hand Center in Baltimore and the Director of MedStar SportsHealth, the Sports Operations Division of one of the mid-Atlantic's largest health care systems. He also serves as the Vice-Chairman of the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery at Union Memorial Hospital and is an Associate Professor of both Orthopaedic and Plastic Surgery at Johns Hopkins. With a reputation and expertise valued throughout the sports world, Dr. Graham is a member of Baltimore Ravens and Philadelphia Flyers medical staffs, as well as a leading hand surgeon consultant for the National Hockey League Players' Association, the PGA Tour and the Champions Tour. He has also worked closely with Cleveland's three pro sports teams, including the Indians, and the Major League Baseball Umpires Association.

WIEMI DOUOGHUI, MD

Currently runs a top-notch sports medicine practice at The Washington Hospital Center where he has introduced his brand of elite-level athlete care to the entire population. In 2003-2004, Douoghui served as the Assistant Team Physician for the Washington Redskins and as a consulting surgeon for several other NFL teams. Presently, he is a member of the medical team serving the University of Maryland Athletics Department. In addition to his role in the care of hundreds of athletes, Dr. Douoghui has published and lectured widely, with special scientific interest directed to the complex knee injury in professional athletes. Dr. Douoghui is one of the rare sports medicine physicians who is also an elite, national level athlete, as he was a lacrosse All-American at Washington & Lee.

BRUCE THOMAS, MD

Returns for a 3rd season with the Nationals/Expos as team primary care sports medicine physician. Dr. Thomas was hired by the Montreal Expos in 2003 after spending the previous nine seasons with the Florida Marlins, where he earned a World Series ring in 1997. A board-certified physician in both Sports Medicine and Family Practice, Dr. Thomas runs a winter practice in Melbourne, FL, just miles from the Nationals' Spring Training facility. Prior to starting his private practice, Dr. Thomas served in the United States Air Force at Cape Canaveral where he was responsible for the medical care of all space launch personnel. Dr. Thomas is a graduate of Tulane University, where he lettered for the Green Wave as a pitcher. He lives with wife, Susan, in Indialantic, FL during the off-season. The couple have 2 sons: Ryan and Kyle.

DAVE JOHNSON, MD

An icon the last 26 years in the Washington, D.C. sports medicine scene, Dr. Johnson has worked with a myriad of elite athletes and dancers. A member of an Olympic Gold Medal winning swimming relay at the 1968 Mexico City Summer Olympics, Dr. Johnson is perhaps best known as a team doctor for the 1980 "Miracle on Ice" U.S. Olympic Hockey Team that won the Gold Medal in Lake Placid, NY. His experience with athletes at all levels, including his affiliation with the United States Olympic Committee, provides invaluable depth to the Nationals' medical care team.

TIM KREMCHEK, MD

Dr. Kremchek enters his first season with the Nationals as senior consultant. He is also entering his 9th season as the Cincinnati Reds Medical Director and chief orthopaedic surgeon. Dr. Kremchek is a native of Cincinnati and a 1986 graduate of the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. He completed his orthopaedic surgery residency at Tufts University in Boston, MA, and a one-year sports medicine fellowship at the American Sports Medicine Institute in Birmingham, AL. In 2003, Dr. Kremchek and his associates of Beacon Orthopaedics built the world-class Beacon Orthopaedic Center in Sharonville, OH, which houses orthopaedic surgical suites, MRI, rehabilitation and the Champions Indoor Baseball Training facility. He has taken an active role in teaching orthopaedics and sports medicine, which has enabled him to be published in professional journals regarding orthopaedics and sports medicine. Dr. Kremchek and his wife, Hilary, have 5 children: Katie, Christie, Alissa, Teddy and Jennifer.

NATIONALS ATHLETIC TRAINING STAFF

Tim Abraham
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Scott Lawrenson
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

TIM ABRAHAM

Abraham enters first season with Nationals as Head Athletic Trainer. He was appointed to post on November 20. Abraham joined Expos as Assistant Athletic Trainer in 2004 after spending September of 2003 with club as extra hand in the training room. He joined the Expos prior in 2002 as Coordinator, Athletic Training and Conditioning for the minor league system after spending the previous seven years with Florida, six as a minor-league trainer. Abraham capped his stay with the Marlins as coordinator of athletic trainers in 2001, but not before spending 2 seasons apiece with Calgary of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League and Portland of the Double-A Eastern League. He also worked with Single-A Elmira in 1995 and Single-A Kane County in 1996. Abraham earned a Bachelor of Science at the University of Illinois-Chicago in Kinesiology (specialty in athletic training). Tim and his wife Lora, make their home in Bethlehem, NH.

SCOTT LAWRENSON

Lawrenson, 41, was appointed as Nationals Assistant Athletic Trainer on January 5, 2004. He joins the Nationals after working in the Mets' organization from 1986-2004, the last eight seasons at the major league level. Lawrenson was named Mets' assistant athletic trainer on October 17, 1996 and accepted the head position in an interim capacity on September 1, 2001. He was named NYM's head athletic trainer less than two months later. Lawrenson served as Mets minor league training and conditioning coordinator from 1992-96. He is a 1986 graduate of Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA, and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association. Tim resides in Palm City, FL with his wife Julie, and daughters, Bree and Carly.

KAZUHIKO TOMOOKA

Tomooka, 33, is entering his 4th season with the Nationals as Strength and Conditioning Coordinator. Tomooka, better known as Kazu in the Nationals' clubhouse, join the Expos after spending the prior four seasons with the Florida Marlins, the last three as Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coordinator. Tomooka, who began his baseball career with FLA in '98 as an intern, is a '98 graduate of the University of Florida with a degree in athletic training. He received a scholarship from PBATS in '97 and is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the National Strength and Conditioning Association and the Professional Baseball Strength and Conditioning Society. Born in Tokyo, Tomooka came to the United States in '95. While in Japan, Tomooka played football for Rikkyo University. He is single and resides in Fujimi-shi in Japan during the off-season.

CHARTESE BERRY

Chartese Berry currently serves as Vice President of Communications for the Washington Nationals Baseball Club. She is responsible for leading the team's efforts in public relations, media relations, community relations, and government affairs. Prior to coming to the Nationals, Chartese enjoyed a brief tenure with the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) as Special Assistant to the Assistant Administrator for Public Affairs. At NASA, Chartese was responsible for leading Public Affairs programs, including Special Events, Astronaut Appearances, Exhibits, Visual Identity, and Space Shuttle Launch Guest Operations. Before then, Chartese served five years as Assistant Vice President of Communications for PLAYERS INC, the licensing and marketing for-profit arm of the National Football League Players Association (NFLPA). From 1991-1993, Berry was Assistant Media Relations Director with the National Basketball Association (NBA) in New York. Chartese began her career in sports communications at her alma mater Georgetown University in 1987, where she served four years in the Sports Information Office, before departing as Director of Sports Information in 1991.

DAVID COPE

Cope was named Nationals Vice President of Sales and Marketing on November 23. Cope is no stranger to the Washington, DC sporting landscape. He broke into the industry selling tickets for the Baltimore Orioles and quickly worked his way to Director of Marketing and Advertising. After seven years with the O's where, among other things, he closed down Memorial Stadium, he moved down Route 95 to Washington DC to help launch the Sports Business Daily. Cope then joined Washington Sports & Entertainment as General Sales Manager. While at WSE, David closed his first major stadium naming rights deal — MCI Center. Two years later, David ventured north again to support the NFL's long-awaited return to Baltimore as Vice President of Marketing & Sales for the Baltimore Ravens Football Club. Cope and his team re-opened Memorial Stadium and prepared to open a second HOK-designed new pro sports facility at Camden Yards. After closing Memorial Stadium yet again, Cope managed another record-breaking naming rights deal — PSINet Stadium. Back in our nation's capital, new ownership emerged in Redskins territory. Wanting the best man for the job, Dan Snyder hired Cope as his Executive Vice President for the Washington Redskins Football Club. After one year with his hometown club, which included managing the FedExField naming rights agreement, David joined Sara at Gilco Sports to capitalize on his years marketing to corporate America by broadening the scope of his dealmaking to include museums, performing arts organizations AND universities, amongst others types of clients.

ANDY DUNN

Dunn enters his fourth season with the Nationals and his first as VP of Ballpark Operations. Dunn spent the previous 3 seasons as the Expos' VP of Brevard Operations, where he oversaw all aspects of Expos' Spring Training in Viera, FL as well as serving as the General Manager of the Brevard County Manatees of the Single-A Florida State League. Prior to joining the Expos, he was a member of the Florida Marlins from 1997-2002, serving as Vice President of Sales and Marketing from 2001-2002 as well as the Director of Brevard Operations from 1997-2001. He has twice been named Florida State League Executive of the Year (in 1999 and 2000), the only person in the history of the FSL to win the honor twice. Dunn was also awarded the Florida State League's John Johnson Award in 2002. Dunn was the Sports Marketing Manager for Osceola County from 1996-1997. He began his career in professional baseball with a three-year stint (1992-94) with the Oklahoma City 89ers, the Triple-A affiliate of the Texas Rangers. From 1994-96, Dunn served as the Director of Marketing for the Double-A Orlando Cubs. Dunn graduated from Western Carolina University with a degree in Sport Management. Dunn and his wife, Kristi, currently reside in Virginia with their three daughters, Hailey (4/4/98) and Kolbey (4/14/00) and Kennedi (2/26/04).

ROB McDONALD

McDonald begins 4th season with the Nationals organization as the Director of Team Travel. Following a trying 2003 season, was voted by peers as the recipient of baseball's Don Davidson Memorial Award as the Traveling Secretary of the Year. Prior to joining the Expos, McDonald served three-year stint (1999-01) as Baseball Operations Assistant with the Florida Marlins. In the fall of 1998, McDonald was the Operations Manager for the Sun Cites Solar Sox of the Arizona Fall League. While there, worked closely with Frank Robinson, among others. In 1998, the D-Backs inaugural season, McDonald worked with the Major League Coaching Staff during spring training and the Marketing Department during the regular season. McDonald earned his Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from the University of Arizona. He also attended Northern Illinois University on a football scholarship. McDonald is single and resides in Tucson, AZ.

JOHN DEVER

Entering his 8th big league season, Dever joined the organization as the Montreal Expos Baseball Information Director on February 10, 2003 after spending the previous five seasons in various capacities within the San Diego Padres Media Relations Department. He made the vast majority of Montreal's road trips in 2003 and '04, including all six historic trips to San Juan, PR. Dever's day-to-day responsibilities include writing all major press releases and Game Notes, as well as facilitating player/management interviews for the local, national and international media. He also contributes copy for the Nationals regular- and post-season media guides, while periodically working on special projects for the club's Baseball Operations staff. Dever graduated from McQuaid Jesuit High School in his hometown of Rochester, NY, in 1990 before moving on to Syracuse University, where he graduated in 1994. He has also worked in sports media relations for the University of Virginia, the Richmond Braves, the Rochester Red Wings and Cal State University-L.A. John and his wife, Karen, were married in November of 2003.

MIKE WALLACE

Wallace begins his 33rd season in MLB, his fourth campaign with the Nationals organization. Wallace, who served as equipment manager during MLB's 2004 post-season Japan Tour, joined the Expos in February of '02 after spending the previous nine seasons as Florida's Equipment Manager. While in Montreal, he endured logistical challenges during the Expos' 6 Puerto Rican "homestands" in 2003 and '04. Wallace joined the Marlins on August 1, 1992 as the first equipment manager in club history. An every-day presence, Wallace enters the 2004 season with a streak of 1,877 consecutive games. His career in baseball also includes stops with Kansas City (equipment manager from 1989-91) and Texas (visiting clubhouse manager in Arlington from 1980-88 and Rangers clubhouse assistant from 1973-79). During his tenure with the Rangers, Wallace worked with many front-office personnel who were with Washington Senators in 1971. Wallace earned a Bachelor's degree in physical education and health with a minor in speech from the University of Texas-Arlington in 1984. He has served as President of MLB Equipment Manager Association in the past. Wallace is single and resides in Melbourne, FL.

MATT ROSENTHAL

Rosenthal, 35, enters 16th season in pro baseball, his 4th with the Nationals organization. Rosenthal began his baseball career in 1993 during Florida's inaugural season. During a nine-year tenure with the Marlins, Rosenthal was appointed visiting clubhouse manager in November of 1997 after spending the previous 5 seasons as the club's assistant clubhouse manager. He had previous experience with Atlanta's Instructional League club in West Palm Beach (1990-1993), and the West Palm Beach Expos (1988-1992). Rosenthal is a '92 graduate of Palm Beach C.C., where he earned a degree in political science, and later attended Florida Atlantic University. Matt resides in Coral Springs, FL with his wife, Jennifer, and 3 children: Robert James (11/7/98), Jordyn Marie (10/3/00) and Riley Matthew (12/9/03).

2004 YEAR IN REVIEW

WASHINGTON NATIONALS

2004 MONTREAL EXPOS TEAM NOTES

THANKS FOR THE MEMORIES

The Montreal Expos lost, 8-1, in their 5702nd—and final—regular season contest on October 3 at Shea Stadium...just 4 days prior, on September 29, Commissioner Bud Selig announced that the Expos franchise would be relocated to Washington, D.C. for the 2005 season...later that night, "Nos Amours" played their final game in Montreal, a 9-1 loss vs. FLA, in front of 31,395 old friends at Stade Olympique...the October 3 season finale capped Montreal's 36th season of National League baseball.

- Ironically, the Expos won their first regular-season game in club history, 11-10, at Shea Stadium, April 8, 1969...Maury Wills posted 3 hits for the Expos, who went 52-110 in their inaugural season.
- The Expos capped their 36-year run with an all-time record of 2755-2943-4.
- Montreal finished 13-23 all-time in season finales, including their final fond farewell on October 3 in Flushing.

SOME 2004 FACTS

The 2004 Expos employed the services of 46 players, including 22 pitchers...12 pitchers started games for the Frank Robinson.

- The Expos' 67-95 (.414) record ranked 15th in the NL (ARI went 51-111, .315) and 27th in MLB (only ARI, SEA and KC won fewer games)...Montreal's 67 wins matched totals posted by both TOR and MIL, but both the Blue Jays and Brewers played only 161 games due to rainouts.
- Montreal's 67-win campaign was the franchise's worst since posting an identical 67-95 mark in 2000.
- The Expos posted a win total in the 60s for just the 6th time in 36 National League seasons (including the 1981 strike-shortened campaign), however 5 of the 6 have occurred in the last 10 years.
- In 34 complete NL seasons (excluding 1981 and 1994 due to strikes), the Expos recorded fewer than 67 wins just 4 times: 65 wins in 1998, 66 in '95, 55 in '76 and 52 in '69.
- The Expos reached the .500 mark just once...that came with a 3-2 win on April 7 at FLA...the win evened Montreal's record at 1-1.
- Montreal finished under .500 when facing both opposing left- (21-28) and right-handed pitchers (46-67).
- The Expos also registered losing records in extra-inning games (5-8), one-run games (16-30), home games (35-45), road games (32-50), games in Montreal (28-31), games in Puerto Rico (7-14), games on grass (31-48), games on artificial turf (36-47), day games (19-26), night games (48-69), games against NL East rivals (28-48), games against the NL Central (17-19), games against the NL West (15-17) and in interleague play (7-11).
- Montreal did post a winning record in games decided by 2 runs (13-10).

SMOOTHER ROAD

Despite winning 16 fewer games than a year ago, the Expos did post more road wins 32 than in 2003, when they went 31-50 on the road.

- Montreal posted more wins on the road (19) than at Olympic Stadium (17) after the All-Star break...this, from a club that went 20-43 (.317) outside of Montreal (includes Puerto Rico) before the All-Star break.
- With the 3 Puerto Rico homestands finished, Montreal went 19-21 on the road after the All-Star break.

YOUTH SERVED

9 players, including 4 pitchers, made big league debuts as Expos this season: Chad Bentz (April 7 at FLA), Ryan Church (August 21 at COL), Shawn Hill (June 29 at PHI), Joe Horgan (June 12 at SEA), Maicer Izturis (August 27 at SD), Josh Labandeira (September 17 at PHI), Gary Majewski (August 26 vs. LA), Valentino Pascucci (April 26 at SD) and Terrmel Sledge (April 6 at FLA)...in addition, INF Brendan Harris made his big league debut (July 6 at MIL) for CHI before being acquired as the final piece of the 4-team mega deal on July 31.

BACK AT HOME IN SAN JUAN

Excluding games in Montreal, a closer look at some of the Expos' offensive numbers at Estadio Hiram Bithorn as opposed to true road games...also note that HBS's dimensions were altered in the off-season to mirror those of Olympic Stadium...in addition, FieldTurf replaced a traditional artificial surface.

SAN JUAN POWER OUTAGE

After homering in each of their first 17 games at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in 2003, the Expos hit a grand total of just 4 home runs in 21 contests in San Juan this season.

- Thanks largely to a steady cross wind at Hiram Bithorn Stadium, Expos right-handed batters went without a home run in 21 games in Puerto Rico this season...the last Montreal right-handed hitter to go deep at Hiram Bithorn Stadium: Todd Zeile on September 7, 2003 vs. FLA...Zeile's island blast came 24-plus games ago.

WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

Due to a myriad of injuries that included chicken pox, a sore lower back and a partial labrum tear, Omar Minaya and Frank Robinson were only able to enjoy having their 3 big off-season acquisitions—Carl Everett, Nick Johnson and Tony Batista—in the same lineup 18 times before Everett was dealt to CWS (with cash considerations) for righthanders Jon Rauch and Gary Majewski on July 18.

THE GOOD, THE BAD AND THE UGLY

The Expos won a season-high 7 straight games from August 7-14...4 of the 7 wins during the surge came against HOU.

- Montreal lost a season-high 8 straight games from April 11-19...the early-season 8-game slide was the Expos' longest losing streak in the month of April in 36 NL seasons.

APRIL SHOWERS

The Expos finished April with a franchise-low 5 victories for the 3rd time in 36 NL seasons...the 1970 Expos went 5-13 in April, while the '75 version finished 5-11 during the season's opening month (excludes strike-shortened 1995 season).

- Montreal entered May 10.5 games off the pace in the NL East...Montreal faced a double-digit deficit within its division entering May for the first time since 1998...that year, the 7-18 Expos trailed first-place ATL (18-9) by exactly 10.0 games at the end of April.
- The Expos did not win their first series of the season until taking 2 of 3 from COL, May 4-6 at The Big O...Montreal went 0-7-1 in their first 8 series of the season before the Rockies' visit.

EIGHT-GATE

On May 30 vs. CIN, Frank Robinson's starting lineup included Tomo Ohka batting 8th...with the team struggling mightily offensively, Frank sought to light a fire under his club...the plan worked, as the Expos snapped a 3-game losing skid with a 6-2 win over the Reds.

- Although Ohka went 0-for-2 with a walk and popped out in the first inning with the bases loaded, the Expos hit 2 homers (Brad Wilkerson, Endy Chavez) and earned a season-high 10 walks...the Expos won despite stranding 11 baserunners.

DUCKS (LOTS OF 'EM) ON THE POND

Montreal left a season-high 17 men on base in an 8-4 win on June 2 at ATL to establish a new club record for a 9-inning game...strangely, in the same game, the Expos also recorded 5 hits with RISP to establish a then-season high...the Expos had not left as many as 17 men on base since a 14-inning 3-2 win on June 27, 1989 vs. NYM.

HILL TOPPER

In Montreal's 6-4 victory vs. TOR on July 5 in Puerto Rico, Shawn Hill earned his first win, but not without the help of Joe Horgan, who retired the only batter he faced (Reed Johnson) with the bases loaded to notch his first big league save...the last time an Expos starter earned his first big league win and reliever pocketed his first major league save in the same games was September 27, 1997 vs. CIN, when Mike Thurman (win) and Anthony Telford (save) worked in tandem during an 8-5 victory.

LIVO BECOMES AN ALL STAR

Both Livan Hernandez and Frank Robinson represented the Expos during MLB's All-Star Celebration at Minute Maid Park in Houston.

- Although he did not pitch in the July 13 Mid-Summer Classic, Hernandez's All-Star invite was the first of his storied career...Livan went 6-8 with a 3.58 ERA in the season's first half and was named to the NL team by FLA manager Jack McKeon...Livan was the first Montreal pitcher invited to the All-Star Game since Ugueth Urbina in 1998.
- Robinson took part in ceremonies honoring the 14 living members of the 500 Home Run Club during the July 12 Gatorade All-Star Workout Day and Century 21 Home Run Derby
- Hernandez, Robinson and PIT's Jack Wilson flew to Houston from San Juan, where the Expos and Pirates ended the season's first "half" on July 11.

SLAM, SLAM

July 31 and August 3 (after a rainout and scheduled off day), the Expos—specifically Terrmel Sledge (7/31 at FLA) and Tony Batista (8/3 at STL) —hit grand slams in consecutive games for only the 2nd time in the club's 36 National League seasons...the first came on April 20-21, 1996, when Darren Fletcher (4/20) and David Segui (4/21) hit slams in back-to-back games vs. PIT.

- Both Sledge and Batista's grand slams were game-winning long balls...the same could not be said for Fletcher and Segui.

JULY HEAT

By virtue of a 15-13 record, the Expos posted their first winning July since going 18-8 in 1994.

MONTREAL'S COOPERSTOWN COLLECTION

By virtue of wins on August 8 at HOU and August 10 vs. ARI, the Expos became the first team to ever hand Roger Clemens and Randy Johnson losses in consecutive games (August 9 was an off day)...of course, Montreal was also the first team to ever face The Rocket and the Big Unit in 2 straight games.

- Regardless, by season's end Clemens and Johnson had combined on 574 career wins, 8478 strikeouts and 12 Cy Youngs.
- The duo also finished first (Clemens) and 2nd (Johnson) in the NL Cy Young Award voting.

RARE AIR

On August 13 and 14, Jon Rauch (4.2 no-hit innings on August 13 vs. HOU) and Tony Armas Jr. (5.0 no-hit innings on August 14 vs. HOU) became the first set of MLB teammates to not allow a hit in consecutive games as starting pitchers since Fritz Peterson (1.2 no-hit innings) and Al Downing (1.0 no-hit inning) turned the trick for the 1967 NYY on Sept. 29 (Game 2 of DH) and September 30 vs. KC Athletics.

PERFECT 10

The Expos matched a club record by stringing together 10 straight errorless games from August 4-14...the errorless streak lasted 95.0 innings...the club's only other 10-game errorless string came August 17-27, 1977.

THE AMERICAN WAY ...

The Expos-Marlins games on September 13 and 14 at US Cellular Field on Chicago's South Side—necessitated by the impending arrival of Hurricane Ivan in South Florida—were believed to be the first game between 2 National League clubs to be played in a primarily American League ballpark since May 28, 1927.

- That afternoon (no lights yet) in '27, the Braves and Phillies split a twinbill at Shibe Park, the home of the AL's Philadelphia Athletics from 1909-54...special thanks to Retrosheet.

ALL FOR ONE, ONE FOR ALL

During a September 15 doubleheader sweep at FLA, Ryan Church, Valentino Pascucci and Brendan Harris all hit their first big league home runs...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the last time 3 players on the same team hit their first major league homers on the same day was April 28, 1946, when the New York Giants hosted the Brooklyn Dodgers for, ironically, a doubleheader (21,325 days prior)...Bill Rigney, Buddy Blattner and Jess Pike all homered as the Giants took 2 from their cross-town rivals, 7-3 and 10-4.

- Rigney (41), Blattner (15) and Pike (1) would combined for 67 career big league homers...Rigney, a 1948 NL All-Star, would go on to manage the Giants (both NYG and SF), Angels and Twins.

COLD IN THE CLUTCH

The Expos rank 29th in MLB with a .239 batting average with RISP...only MIL (.221) fared worse.

- With 306, Montreal posted the fewest hits in MLB with RISP...MIL ranked 29th with 308.

BULLISH ON THE 'PEN

After starting the season with a 1-14 record through June 6, Montreal's bullpen went 26-15 the remainder of the season...the Expos' 'pen also posted more wins (26) than the starting rotation (23) after June 6.

- Beginning June 30 (87 games), Montreal's bullpen crafted a 3.51 ERA (126 ER/323.0 IP) to lower its season ERA to 4.00 from 4.70.

BRAD TO THE BONE

Following the season, Brad Wilkerson was named Expos Player of the Year by the local chapter of the BBWAA...in an interesting vote, Wilkerson won out over teammates Tony Batista and Livan Hernandez...Orlando Cabrera won the same BBWAA citation in 2003.

30-30 VISION

With 32 apiece, Tony Batista and Brad Wilkerson formed the first 30-30 homer tandem in Montreal's 36 NL seasons.

- Batista and Wilkerson recorded just the 11th and 12th 30-homer campaign in Expos annals...they are just the 7th and 8th players to turn the trick...they're joined by Vlad Guerrero (5 times: 1998-02), Henry Rodriguez ('96), Andre Dawson ('83), Gary Carter ('77), Larry Parrish ('79) and Rusty Staub ('70).

WHEN LEFT IS JUST RIGHT

Brad Wilkerson's 32 homers this season rank 2nd in Expos history among left-handed hitters...a closer look:

1.	Henry Rodriguez (1996)	36
2.	BRAD WILKERSON (2004)	32
3.	Rusty Staub (1970)	30

PATIENCE PAYS OFF

Brad Wilkerson became the first Expo in 30 years—or since Bob Bailey (100) turned the trick in '74—to record 100 or more walks in a single season...a closer look at the Expos' ultra exclusive 100-walk club:

RK	PLAYER	WALKS	YEAR
1.	Ken Singleton	123	1973
2.	Rusty Staub	112	1970
3.	Rusty Staub	110	1969
4.	BRAD WILKERSON	106	2004
5.	Bob Bailey	100	1974

- Wilkerson also became the first Expo to hit 30 home runs, score 100 runs and walk 100 times in a single season.

LIVAN LIFE TO THE FULLEST

Livan Hernandez led MLB by tossing a career-high 255.0 innings...ARI's Randy Johnson ranked a distant 2nd with 245.2 innings...in a testament to baseball's evolution, Hernandez's 255.0-inning campaign ranks "just" 9th on the Expos all-time single-season list.

- Hernandez is the first Expo to crack the 250-inning plateau since Steve Rogers turned in 273.0 innings in 1983.

HOTTEST AT THE HOT CORNER

Tony Batista's 32-homer campaign established a new Expos record for home runs by a third baseman...the former mark was held by Larry parrish, who blasted 30 long balls for the 1979 Expos.

CENTURY NOTE

With a team-high 110 RBI, Tony Batista became just the 9th Expo to reach the 100-RBI plateau in 36 National League seasons...Vladimir Guerrero (5 times: 1998-2002), Gary Carter (twice: 1980, '84), Andre Dawson (1983), Tim Wallach (1987), Al Oliver (1982), Henry Rodriguez (1996), Ken Singleton (1973) and Hubie Brooks (1985) comprise the remainder of the short list...Batista's 100-RBI campaign was the 14th in Montreal's 36 NL seasons.

MR. EVERYDAY

From September 24, 2002-July 30, 2004, Orlando Cabrera played in 271 consecutive games for the Expos...the streak ended when Cabrera was traded to BOS as part of a 4-team mega deal just one minute before the July 31 trading deadline...Cabrera helped the Red Sox end their 86-year Curse of the Bambino, but he came tantalizingly close to breaking Vladimir Guerrero club record for consecutive games played...Vlad played in 276 straight contests from April 21, 1998-August 30, 1999...along the way, Cabrera's streak became the 2nd longest in club annals, ahead of Rusty Staub (259 from June 22, 1970-September 30, 1971).

OPEN SEASON

The Expos dropped their 36th season opener, 4-3, on April 6 at Pro Player Stadium...the loss ended the Expos' 3-game winning streak in season openers, as well as a 3-game winning streak in season openers on the road...Montreal went 18-18 on Opening Day despite beginning the season on the road an astounding 30 times (15-15)...Montreal went 3-3 in season openers at Olympic Stadium.

BETTER LEATHER

After ranking 28th in MLB as recently as 2 seasons ago, the Expos again showed improved defense in 2004...for a 3rd straight season, the Expos saw their fielding percentage rise while both their errors and unearned runs allowed diminished...a closer look:

YEAR	FIELDING PERCENTAGE	ERRORS	UNEARNED RUNS
2004	.984	99	73
2003	.983	102	76
2002	.978	139	77

MILESTONE MADNESS

The following Expos reached significant milestones in 2004:

- The Expos' 6-3 win on August 25 vs. MIN was Frank Robinson's 900th career managerial victory...he became the 58th member of the managerial 900-win club.
- Jose Vidro notched both the 1000th hit (single on June 17 vs. MIN off Terry Mulholland) and the 100th home run (Game One of August 18 doubleheader at SF off Brad Hennessey) of his career...both came in his 8th big league campaign.
- Tony Batista recorded his 1000th career hit (single off Sean Burnett, July 9 vs. PIT in Puerto Rico) and his 200th career home run (12th inning grand slam on August 3 at STL off Dan Haren) in 2004, his 9th big league season.
- Livan Hernandez recorded his 1000th career strikeout in the April 6 season opener at FLA (Jeff Conine in the 3rd inning).

HISTORY & RECORDS

WASHINGTON NATIONALS

BASEBALL RETURNS TO OUR NATION'S CAPITAL

On Wednesday, September 29, 2004, Major League Baseball selected the Washington, D.C. proposal as its choice for relocation of the Montreal Expos. Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig made the announcement. Relocation of the club was subject to certain contingencies, including a formal vote of ownership at the next owners' meeting in November and passage of legislation by the District of Columbia Council to provide for financing and construction of a ballpark on the Anacostia River waterfront in Southeast Washington. MLB has also provided the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida the required notice of MLB's intent to move forward with relocating the team.

The D.C. agreement also includes financing for the refurbishing of RFK Stadium, where the Washington, D.C. franchise will play until a new stadium is completed.

"Washington, D.C., as our nation's capital, is one of the world's most important cities and Major League Baseball is gratified at the skill and perseverance shown by Mayor Williams throughout this long process," Selig said. "There has been tremendous growth in the Washington, D.C. area over the last 33 years and we in Major League Baseball believe that baseball will be welcomed there and will be a great success."

Selig also said: "I would like to thank the representatives who worked on behalf of Northern Virginia, Norfolk, VA, Las Vegas, Portland, OR, Monterrey, Mexico and others for devoting so much time and energy in their attempts to bring a Major League Baseball team to their communities."

At the time, Washington, D.C. was the largest market in the country in terms of population (5.4 million) and television market size (8th) without a Major League Baseball team.

Concurrent with the D.C. legislative process necessary to fulfill the agreement reached among the D.C. Government, the D.C. Sports and Entertainment Commission and the Expos, Major League Baseball will begin to accept and review bids of prospective ownership groups.

Even though Washington, D.C. baseball has a long history with the American League, the team will play in the National League East Division, which in fact marks its return to its baseball roots. The first Washington, D.C. franchise joined the National League in 1886 and was part of the NL, except for a two-year hiatus in 1890-91, until the National League contracted Washington and three other franchises in 1900.

But a year later, Ban Johnson organized the American League and included Washington, D.C. as one of its charter franchises. Although the original Senators were mostly mediocre throughout their history, they fielded one of the game's greatest all-time pitchers, Walter "Big Train" Johnson and made three trips to the World Series, winning it in 1924 in a seven-game series against the New York Giants. In 1925, the Senators lost in seven games to Pittsburgh and lost in five games to the Giants in 1933.

The second incarnation of the Senators came in 1961 in the form of an expansion team. Like its predecessor, the Senators often finished in the second division and had only one winning season in their 11-year history. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. has been without Major League Baseball since then.

THE HISTORY OF BASEBALL IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

When the first professional baseball games were played in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., the enduring symbol of freedom in America - the Statue of Liberty - was still two years away from being dedicated. There were 38 states in the Union and what would become the State of Oklahoma had yet to be settled. More than seven decades had passed since Washington, D.C. became the capital of the United States and baseball was quickly evolving into the National Pastime.

A Washington team was admitted to the National League in 1885 and played during the League's 10th professional season in 1886. Washington played 12 years in the National League - 1886-89 and 1892-99 - but was part of a four-team contraction in 1900 as the National League went from 12 franchises to eight.
Later that same year, former Western League president Ban Johnson was organizing a second Major League to compete with the National League and announced plans to include a franchise in the nation's capital. The new League was called the American League and began play in 1901.

This Washington franchise was awarded to James Manning and Detroit businessman Fred Postal. Manning retired later that year and Tom Loftus replaced him as the club's primary executive. The Senators finished in sixth place in 1901 with a 61-72 mark and would eventually be sold to an ownership group including Thomas C. Noyes, Benjamin Minor and Harry Rapley, among others.

The first of two individual tragedies struck the organization in only its third season as the Senators lost a key figure when future Hall of Fame outfielder Ed Delahanty was tragically killed in July 1903 when he was swept over Niagara Falls. Delahanty was the reigning American League batting champion and his sudden death took its toll on the team as the Senators finished the campaign with a 43-94 mark.

Effective for the 1905 campaign, the team name was changed to Nationals. Newspaper accounts use the names Senators and Nationals interchangeably for the next five decades.

While it took 12 years before the Nationals finished a season with a winning record, the signing of 20 year-old pitcher Walter Johnson in 1907 would signify a key moment in the franchise's history. Under first-year manager, Clark Griffith, the 1912 Washington Club posted a 91-61 mark and ended up in second place, 14 games behind the eventual World Champion Boston Red Sox.

Johnson appeared in a remarkable 50 games that year - 37 as a starter - and went 33-12 with a league-leading 1.39 ERA and 303 strikeouts. The following year he was even better as he led the Nationals to their second consecutive 90-win season. "Big Train" went 36-7 with 11 shutouts and a 1.14 ERA, which still stands today as one of the lowest ERAs by a starting pitcher in a single season.

In 1912, 40 year-old team president Thomas C. Noyes fell ill to pneumonia and eventually succumbed to the disease. Noyes had been instrumental in the franchise's improvements since he took over and was replaced as team president by Minor, a prominent Washington attorney. Minor, unable to devote the necessary time to the club, subsequently sold the controlling interest to Griffith and Philadelphia businessman William Richardson in 192x.

Following a 75-78 season in 1923, Griffith made a controversial decision by appointing 27 year-old second baseman Stanley "Bucky" Harris as field manager. Harris was the fifth manager in the previous five seasons for the Nationals , but he guided one of the great reversals in baseball history as the Nationals in 1924 won more games than ever before, 92, and captured their first American League pennant.

In the 1924 World Series, the Nationals took on famed manager John McGraw and the New York Giants. The Series was one of the closest in history as four games were decided by a single run, including the deciding Game Seven. On the strength of Walter Johnson's four innings of relief pitching - on two days' rest - and the Series clinching hit by Earl McNeeley in the bottom of the 12th inning, the Nationals won their first and only World Series Championship.

United States President Calvin Coolidge, who threw out the ceremonial first pitch on three occasions during the Series, paid tribute to the hometown victors immediately following the victory:

"I have only the heartiest praise to bestow upon the individual players of both teams. Naturally, in Washington, we were pleased to see Walter Johnson finish the final game, pitching for our home team. Everybody was pleased to see him come back at the close of the last game. The three contests I witnessed maintained throughout a high degree of skill, and every evidence of high-class sportsmanship which will bring to every observer an increased respect and confidence in our national game."

The following year, Harris once again led the Nationals to a record regular season finish as they posted 96 wins and clinched a second-straight American League pennant. Their second trip to the World Series was just as close but this time they came up short in a seven-game Series to the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Senators had a 7-6 lead entering the bottom of the eighth in Game Seven, but could not hold it as the Pirates scored three runs in the inning off Johnson and held on to clinch the Series victory.

Johnson concluded his amazing 21-year playing career with Nationals in 1927 with career totals of 417-279, a 2.36 ERA, 3,508 strikeouts and a Major League record 110 shutouts. He was among the first class of inductees into the Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY, in 1936.

The "Big Train" was not gone from the Washington scene long as Griffith brought him back to replace Harris as the Nationals' manager in 1929. Despite posting three straight 90-win seasons, Johnson was removed from his post after the 1932 season and replaced by Joe Cronin, the team's 26 year-old shortstop.

Cronin's first season with the Nationals produced the franchise's best regular season mark ever at 99-53 and its third American League pennant. Washington again faced the New York Giants in the Fall Classic but fell in five games to a team led by the pitching of Carl Hubbell (20 IP, 0 ER) and the hitting of Mel Ott, who clinched the Series for New York with a 10th inning homer in Game Five.

The Nationals franchise then fell on hard times. Washington's victory total dropped to 66 in 1934 and the team posted only two more winning seasons over the next 25 years. The team name was officially changed to Senators for the '56 campaign.

Calvin Griffith, who became team president after his father's death in 1955, was granted permission to seek relocation in September 1960, and an announcement was made in October 1960 that the Senators were being moved to Minneapolis, Minnesota.

At that time, the American League announced plans to expand by two teams for the 1961 season. One team would be located in Los Angeles and the other in Washington, D.C.

An expansion draft was conducted in Boston on December 10, 1960 and the Senators selected the following players at $75,000 each:

PITCHERS	CATCHERS	INFIELDERS	OUTFIELDERS
Pete Burnside	Pete Daley	Chester Boak	Joe Hicks
Dick Donovan	Dutch Dotterer	Bob Johnson	Chuck Hinton
Rudy Hernandez	Gene Green	Billy Klaus	Marty Keough
Ed Hobaugh		Dale Long	Jim King
Johhny Klippstein		Jim Mahoney	Willie Tasby
Hector Maestri		John Schaive	Gene Woodling
Carl Mathias		Coot Veal
Bobby Shantz		Bud Zipfel
Dave Sisler
Tom Sturdivant
Hal Woodeshick

The expansion Senators fared no better than their predecessors, as they lost at least 100 games in each of their first four seasons. In 1964, the Senators acquired five players in a deal with the Los Angeles Dodgers for pitcher Claude Osteen. One of those five players was slugging outfielder and the 1960 National League Rookie of the Year, Frank Howard.

An imposing presence at 6-7, 250 lbs., Howard brought a much-needed offensive punch to the Senators lineup and the Senators win total increased in each of his first three seasons in Washington. After struggling again in 1968, new team president Robert Short brought in Hall of Fame outfielder Ted Williams as the new manager of the Senators.

Howard and his teammates responded to the "Splendid Splinter" during his rookie managerial campaign as Washington's win total improved 21 games to 86 in 1969. It was also Howard's best year in the Majors, as he batted .296 with 48 home runs, 111 RBI and 111 runs scored and finished fourth in the balloting for American League Most Valuable Player.

Unfortunately, the team was unable to build upon their success in 1969. The Senators lost 92 games in 1970 and 96 in 1971. On September 21, 1971, owners approved the transfer of the Washington franchise to Arlington, Texas where it became the Texas Rangers.

After 71 years in the American League and nearly 100 since the debut of professional baseball in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., hosted its final regular season on September 30, 1971 at Robert F. Kennedy Stadium. The Senators moved after the 1971 season and Washington, D.C. has been without Major League Baseball since then.

BASEBALL IN WASHINGTON, D.C. — TIMELINE

1883	The first recorded meeting of a professional baseball team and the United States President took place at the White House. The Cleveland franchise in the National League met with President Chester A. Arthur.
January 1886	The National League admitted the Washington franchise to begin play in the National League for the 1886 season. Washington replaced the Providence franchise.
March 1900	Washington was one of four franchises contracted when the National League reduced its membership from 12 to 8. Reportedly, the franchise was purchased for $10,000.
January 1901	Former Western League President Ban Johnson formally organized the American League with eight franchises, including the Washington Senators.
April 26, 1901	Washington Senators played their first game in the newly established American League against the Philadelphia Athletics at Shibe Park. The Senators won 5-1.
April 29, 1901	The Washington Senators defeated the Baltimore Orioles, 5-2, in the first American League game played in Washington, DC.
July 2, 1903	Washington outfielder and future Hall of Famer Ed Delahanty was killed when he was swept away over Niagara Falls.
1904	Following '04 season, Washington team named changed, effective in 1905, to Nationals. Newspaper accounts use "Senators" and "Nationals" interchangeably for next 5 decades.
August 2, 1907	Nineteen-year-old Walter Johnson made his Major League debut with Washington and lost to Detroit, 3-2. The future Hall of Famer gave up his first hit to Ty Cobb, a bunt single.
September 7, 1908	Washington pitcher Walter Johnson shut out the New York Yankees (then called Highlanders) for the third consecutive game over a span of four days.
April 14, 1910	United States President William Howard Taft became the first President to throw the first pitch prior to a Major League Baseball game.
October 30, 1911	Clark Griffith was named manager of the Washington franchise, where he would remain a prominent figure - as manager and then owner — until his death in 1955.
May 19, 1918	Washington defeated Cleveland, 1-0 in 18 innings, in the first Sunday baseball game played in Washington, DC. Reportedly, a crowd of more than 15,000 was in attendance at American League Base Ball Park.
November 10, 1919	Clark Griffith became Washington club owner and president when he joined William Richardson in purchasing the controlling interest of the Senators for $175,000.
May 14, 1920	Walter Johnson defeated the Detroit Tigers for his 300th career victory.
July 1, 1920	Walter Johnson pitched first no-hitter in Nationals history, defeating the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park, 1-0. The lone baserunner allowed reached on a Bucky Harris error.
September 29, 1924	The Washington Nationals defeated the Boston Red Sox, 4-2, behind the pitching of Walter Johnson and clinched the first pennant in franchise history.
October 10, 1924	The Nationals defeated the New York Giants, four games to three, to win the World Series, the first and only in the history of the franchise.
May 2, 1926	Walter Johnson wins 400th career game with a 4-3 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.
August 2, 1927	Washington celebrated Walter Johnson Day at Griffith Stadium on the 20th anniversary of his big league debut. Johnson was presented with gifts prior to the game against DET.
October 15, 1928	Former Washington pitcher Walter Johnson signed a 3-year contract to manage the team.
August 8, 1931	Bobby Burke pitched the first no-hitter at Griffith Stadium by a Nationals pitcher, defeating the Boston Red Sox, 5-0.
September 21, 1934	The Washington Nationals defeated the St. Louis, 2-1, and clinched their third and final American League pennant.
February 6, 1936	Washington Nationals pitcher Walter Johnson was part of the first class of players voted into the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY.
November 5, 1940	Walter Johnson was defeated as a Republican candidate in an attempt to run for a U.S. House of Representative seat from the State of Maryland.
May 28, 1941	The Washington Nationals hosted the New York Yankees at Griffith Stadium in the first night game ever held in Washington, DC. Future Senators general manager George Selkirk hit a pinch-hit grand slam off future Senators pitching coach Sid Hudson in the top of the eighth inning to propel the Yankees to a 6-5 win.
1946	Washington surpassed one million fans for the first and only time in franchise history, establishing a new franchise record for single season attendance (1,027,216). The Senators also drew more than one million fans on the road (1,055,171) that season.
September 7, 1947	Washington's Joe Kuehl hit the only home run by the home team at Griffith Stadium all year long. It was an inside-the-park homer against the New York Yankees.

April 17, 1953	New York Yankees outfielder Mickey Mantle was credited with what many consider to be the longest home run in baseball history. It was estimated to have traveled 565 feet at Washington's Griffith Stadium off Senators pitcher Chuck Stobbs.
1956	Washington team named officially changed to Senators, effective for 1956 season.
1957	Washington's Roy Sievers became the first player in franchise history to lead the American League in home runs with 42. Sievers outdistanced future Hall of Famers Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox (34) (38) and Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees (34) to capture the home run title.
October 27, 1960	Washington Senators president Calvin Griffith was granted permission to move the franchise to Minneapolis. The American League also admitted an expansion team to Washington, DC, to replace the Senators.
November 17, 1960	A native of Washington and head of the Federal Aviation Administration, Elvin Quesada was awarded the expansion Washington Senators.
September 21, 1961	The Washington Senators played their final game at Griffith Stadium and lost to the Minnesota Twins, 6-3, before 1,498 fans.
April 9, 1962	D.C. Stadium, later renamed Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium in 1969, was opened as the new home of the expansion Washington Senators. The Senators defeated the Detroit Tigers, 4-1, before a crowd of 42,143 fans including President John F. Kennedy.
August 1, 1962	An all-time Washington record crowd of 48,147 fans attend a doubleheader at District of Columbia Stadium against the New York Yankees.
September 12, 1962	Washington pitcher Tom Cheney established a new Major League record when he struck out 21 batters during a 16-inning victory at Baltimore.
April 11, 1966	Emmett Ashford became the first African-American umpire to work a Major League game when he worked the Cleveland-Washington opening day game at D.C. Stadium. U.S. Vice President Hubert Humphrey was among the crowd of 44,468.
June 12, 1967	The Washington Senators defeated the Chicago White Sox, 6-5, in 22 innings at D.C. Stadium, marking the longest night game in baseball history. It required 6 hours, 38 minutes and ended at 2:43 a.m.
April 8, 1969	NYY spoiled the managerial debut of Ted Williams at RFK Stadium in Washington, 8-4. More than 45,000 fans - including President Richard Nixon - were in attendance.
June 5, 1969	Washington held the first overall pick in the Major League Baseball Rule 4 Draft for the first and only time since the draft's inception in 1965. The Senators chose outfielder Jeff Burroughs from Wilson High School in Long Beach, Calif.
July 22, 1969	For the first time in its history, the All-Star Game was postponed due to rain. The game was played the following day at RFK Stadium and hometown favorite Frank Howard delighted the fans with homer.
September 30, 1971	The 10,852nd and seemingly-final game played in Washington ended in a forfeit win for the New York Yankees. The Senators led 7-5 with two out in the top of the 9th when fans stormed onto the field, tearing it up. The field could not be cleared and the umpire called the game.
September 29, 2004	Baseball returns to Nation's Capitol for first time in 33 years as Major League Baseball selected the Washington, D.C. proposal as its choice for relocation of the Montreal Expos. Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig made the announcement. Relocation of the club was subject to certain contingencies, including a formal vote of ownership at the next owners' meeting in November and passage of legislation by the District of Columbia Council to provide for financing and construction of a ballpark on the Anacostia River waterfront in Southeast Washington. MLB has also provided the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida the required notice of MLB's intent to move forward with relocating the team. The D.C. agreement also includes financing for the refurbishing of RFK Stadium, where the Washington, D.C. franchise will play until a new stadium is completed.
November 22, 2005	At a ceremony held at historical Main Hall at Union Station, team President Tony Tavares announced the new Washington MLB franchise will be named the Washington Nationals, and that the team colors will be red, white and blue.

WASHINGTON, D.C. BALLPARKS

Professional baseball teams were formed in our nation's capital — Washington, D.C. — beginning in the early 1870s and those franchises played their games in ballparks commonly known as Swampoodle Grounds, Capitol Grounds and Boundary Field.

In 1892, the Washington Senators joined the expanding National League and began playing their home games at a site that would host professional baseball games into the early 1960s. From 1892-99, the Senators played at National Park, which had a seating capacity of approximately 6,500. Although never finishing above sixth place, the team drew fairly well, including more than 200,000 fans in 1896.

When the National League contracted from 12 franchises to eight following the 1899 season, the team was disbanded. However, it would only be two seasons before a professional team occupied that site again.

During those two years, former Western League president Ban Johnson was working to put together a second Major League to rival the National League. In 1901, the American League began play with eight franchises, including the Washington Nationals.

This franchise would play its home games on the same site as the previous National League Washington team, but the ballpark was appropriately renamed, American League Base Ball Park and the capacity was expanded to nearly 10,000.

On March 17, 1911, tragedy struck the American League Base Ball Park. The all-wooden ballpark and four surrounding buildings were completely destroyed by a fire started by a plumber's blow lamp and a strong wind. American League Base Ball Park could not be saved as plumbers working on the park's drain pipes had shut off the water supply and by the time fire fighters arrived, the grand stand and bleachers were engulfed in flames. At the time, the loss of the ballpark was estimated at $20,000.

Thomas C. Noyes, president of the Washington franchise, gained approval from the Club's Board of Directors to announce that work would begin immediately on a new ballpark with a steel grandstand. With the players at Spring Training and Opening Day less than a month away, crews worked tirelessly to get the ballpark ready for the home opener.

By Opening Day 1911, the grandstands were sufficiently erected for the Nationals to host the Boston Red Sox with President William Howard Taft in attendance. The work on the ballpark continued when the team was on the road and was completed on July 24, 1911 at a final cost of approximately $100,000. Seating capacity was more than 27,000, including a presidential box near the first base dugout.

In 1920, the American League Base Ball Park was renamed Griffith Stadium in recognition of the franchise's owner and president, Clark Griffith. The only major alteration to the ballpark was also made in 1920 as the double-decked stands were extended from the bases to the foul poles.

During the late-1930s and 1940s, Griffith Stadium had another part-time tenant - the famed Homestead Grays of the Negro Leagues. Originally from Pennsylvania, the Grays played half of their games at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh and half at Griffith Stadium when the Washington franchise was on the road. Some of the most revered players in Negro League history played for the Grays, including Josh Gibson, Buck Leonard, Cool Papa Bell and Sam Bankhead, as they won nine Negro League championships.

Griffith Stadium, which also hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1937 and 1956 and three World Series in 1924, 1925 and 1933, remained the home of the Washington franchise until it was moved to Minneapolis following the 1960 season.

The expansion Washington Senators played their inaugural season at Griffith Stadium in 1961 before moving into District of Columbia Stadium for the 1962 season.

After having been the site of professional baseball in Washington, DC, since 1892, the final game at Griffith Stadium was played on September 21, 1961 as the Senators fell to the Minnesota Twins, 4-3, before a crowd of 1,498 fans. Griffith Stadium was demolished in 1965 and is now utilized by Howard University. Nearly 1,000 of the original seats from Griffith Stadium were moved to a Spring Training facility near Orlando, Fla., Tinker Field. Those seats remain there today.

A federally-owned stadium, District of Columbia Stadium was a new three-tiered, multi-purpose facility constructed near the Potomac River at a cost of approximately $24 million. The Senators signed a 10-year lease on September 29, 1961 with the D.C. Armory Board for the stadium, which had a seating capacity of 45,016.

On April 9, 1962, the Senators played their first regular season game at District of Columbia Stadium. A crowd of 42,143 - including President John F. Kennedy — saw Senators pitcher Bennie Daniels defeat the Detroit Tigers, 4-1. Interestingly enough, Daniels suffered the loss at both the final game at Ebbets Field in 1957 and the final game at Griffith Stadium in 1961.

Under the direction of the D.C. Armory Board, the stadium was officially renamed Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium on January 18, 1969.

The 1969 Major League Baseball All-Star Game was the fourth hosted by the Senators and the second at RFK Stadium (also first game in 1962). Despite the American League dropping a 9-3 decision to the National League, Washington fans saw future Hall of Famer Willie McCovey hit a pair of homers and hometown favorite Frank Howard hit one as well.

In 1971, the Senators played their final season at RFK Stadium before moving to Arlington, Texas. The final regular season Major League Baseball game was played at RFK on September 30, 1971. Washington hosted the New York Yankees before a crowd of just 14,460 in a game that was never finished. The Senators were holding on to a 7-5 lead with two outs in the top of the ninth inning when fans rushed the field. The umpiring crew could not clear the field and the game was forfeited to the Yankees, 9-0.

RFK Stadium has hosted 16 exhibition games involving Major League teams since the Senators moved in 1971. A portion of the proceeds from most of the games was donated to various charities. Attendance at the 16 contests averaged more than 27,600 per game. Following is a listing of those games:

THE TRADITION OF OPENING DAY IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Each Major League Club has its own unique celebration to mark the opening of the Major League Baseball season, but Opening Day in the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., was always a special and sometimes historic event. Washington, D.C.'s Opening Day tradition dates back to April 14, 1910. William Howard Taft, the 27th President of the United States, attended the home opener of the Washington Senators against the Philadelphia Athletics. Numerous other government officials, including Vice President James Sherman, joined President Taft at the ballpark.

An overflow crowd of 12,000 fans—the largest baseball crowd in Washington at that time—gave President Taft an standing ovation as he made his way to his seats on the first-base side. Team president Thomas C. Noyes then took the 2 managers—Washington's Jimmy McAleer and Philadelphia's legendary Connie Mack—to meet the President.

Just prior to the start of the game, umpire Billy Evans walked over to President Taft's box and presented him with a new baseball. Evans instructed President Taft that he was to throw the ball from his seat in the stands to Senators pitcher Walter Johnson, who was standing at home plate, to officially commence the start of the American League championship season. After giving the ball briefly to First Lady Helen Taft, the President adjusted his gloves and made a good throw to Johnson, who immediately gave the ball to catcher Charles Street to have it secured in a safe place.

President Taft watched the entire game, a 3-0 Washington victory in which Johnson hurled a one-hit, complete-game shutout. After the game, Johnson sent the historic ball to the White House accompanied by a note to President Taft asking for his autograph on the ball. President Taft returned the ball after penning the following on it:

"For Walter Johnson, with the hope that he may continue to be as formidable as in yesterday's game. William H. Taft."

Although President Taft was the first to throw out a ceremonial first pitch, it was not the first time a President of the United States attended a Major League Baseball game. Benjamin Harrison, the 23rd U.S. President, is believed to be the first sitting President to attend a Major League game when he witnessed a NL game between Cincinnati and Washington in June 1892. That wasn't even the first interaction with a professional baseball team as nine years earlier President Chester A. Arthur welcomed the Cleveland franchise of the National League to the White House.

Having the President throw out the ceremonial first pitch at Washington's home opener was such an enormous success—not only in the nation's capital but around the country—that it led to the American League granting Washington permission to open the American League championship season one day before the rest of the League. This action was approved on December 13, 1927, in recognition of the U.S. President throwing out the ceremonial first pitch.

Including President Taft's precedent-setting throw in 1910, 11 different Presidents have attended a home opener of the Washington Senators a total of 46 times. The Senators posted a 23-23 mark in home openers with a President present.

President Taft (2-0) and Woodrow Wilson (3-0), the 28th U.S. President, were the only two to never see the Senators lose. The only U.S. Presidents never to see Washington win a home opener were Lyndon Johnson (0-3) and Richard Nixon (0-2). Following is the breakdown of Washington's record on Opening Day, listed by President:

PRESIENT OF THE UNITED STATES	WASHINGTON'S RECORD ON OPENING DAY
Woodrow Wilson (R)	3-0 (1.000)
William Howard Taft (R)	2-0 (1.000)
Calvin Coolidge (R)	3-1 (.750)
Warren Harding (R)	2-1 (.667)
Dwight Eisenhower (R)	4-3 (.571)
Franklin Roosevelt (D)	4-4 (.500)
Harry Truman (D)	3-4 (.429)
John F. Kennedy (D)	1-2 (.333)
Herbert Hoover (R)	1-3 (.250)
Richard Nixon (R)	0-2 (.000)
Lyndon Johnson (D)	0-3 (.000)
TOTAL	23-23 (.500)
Democrats	8-13 (.380)
Republicans	15-10 (.600)

Prior to the Senators move to Texas in 1972, each President since Taft was in attendance for a Washington Senators home opener at least once. Several Presidents had to miss on occasion, including President Taft in 1914 because of the sinking of the Titanic and President Wilson in 1918 and 1919 because of World War I.

Since 1972, the tradition of Presidents and Opening Day has continued in other Major League cities. The only President to never throw out a ceremonial first pitch at an Opening Day game was Jimmy Carter. President George W. Bush was the most recent as he threw out the ceremonial first pitch at the opening of Miller Park in Milwaukee in 2001.

ALL-STAR GAMES PLAYED IN WASHINGTON, DC

There have been 4 Major League Baseball All-Star Games played in Washington, DC...2 took place at Griffith Stadium (1937 and '56) and 2 at RFK Stadium ('62 and '69)...The venue was named D.C. Stadium for the '62 contest.

'37 ALL-STAR GAME – GRIFFITH STADIUM

July 7, 1937 at Griffith Stadium — AL 8, NL 3

The '37 All-Star Game was witnessed by President Franklin Roosevelt, who became the first president to attend a Mid-Summer Classic. The '37 contest also marked the beginning of the end for Dizzy Dean, who was hit by a liner off the bat of Earl Averill, and broke his toe. Dean's career was never the same. Lefty Gomez outduels Dean to win his 3rd All-Star Game. Lou Gehrig homered and posted 4 RBI for the American League, while Joe Medwick tallied 4 hits for the National League.

'56 ALL-STAR GAME – GRIFFITH STADIUM

July 10, 1956 at Griffith Stadium — NL 7, AL 3

The NL wins for the 6th time in 7 years, 7-3, behind solid pitching from Bob Friend (3.0 scoreless innings) and Johnny Antonelli (4.0 scoreless innings). Willie Mays, Stan Musial, Ted Williams and Mickey Mantle all homered, although Ken Boyer stood out, going 3-for-5 with one RBI. Boyer also made a trio of spectacular plays at third base that are still talked about in Mid-Summer Classic lore. Williams and Mantle hit back-to-back long balls in the 6th inning off Warren Spahn.

'62 ALL-STAR GAME – D.C. STADIUM

July 10, 1962 at D.C. Stadium — NL 3, AL 1

President Kennedy becomes the 2nd U.S. President to attend the All-Star Game, the first of 2 played in '62 (another All-Star Game was played on July 30, 1962 at Wrigley Field). Kennedy throws out the first pitch of game won by NL, 3-1. Maury Wills uses speed to help NL win game and become the first All-Star Game MVP. Wills entered the game in the 6th inning as a pinch runner for Stan Musial and promptly stole second base and scored on Dick Groat's single. He later singled and, using his speed, scored in the 8th inning. Don Drysdale and Juan Marichal combine on 5.0 scoreless innings for the NL. Roberto Clement collected a game-high 3 hits.

'69 ALL-STAR GAME – RFK STADIUM

July 23, 1969 at RFK Stadium/NL 9, AL 3

The NL plated 8 runs in first 3 innings and coasted to 9-3 victory in DC's 2nd ASG in 7 years. MVP Willie McCovey blasts 2 homers for the NL (becoming just the 4th player to hit more than one homer in an ASG), which wins its 7th straight. Johnny Bench, one of 4 National Leaguers with 2 hits, also went deep. Hometown-hero Frank Howard gives the DC faithful something to cheer about with 2nd-inning solo shot off Steve Carlton. The '69 Mid-Summer Classic was originally slated for July 22, but heavy rains forced the game's postponement for a day.

WASHINGTON, DC AND THE WORLD SERIES

Washington, DC has hosted three World Series, with the original Washington Nationals claiming the 1924 World Championship. Washington needed 7 games to top the favored New York Giants, a club that was appearing in its 8th World Series in 14 seasons and was managed by John McGraw. The Nationals won despite Walter Johnson losing each of his first 2 starts. However, Washington won, 4-3, in 12 innings as Johnson came out of the 'pen to earn the win in Game 7. The 1924 World Series remains the 2nd of only 4 World Series to be decided in extra innings of the decisive 7th game.

The Washington Nationals would go on to play in two more Fall Classics, losing both. As defending World Champions in 1925, the Nationals won 92 games and claimed another NL Pennant, but lost to Pittsburgh in 7 games. The Pirates topped the Nationals, 9-7, in Game 7 as Walter Johnson squandered a 4-0 lead after the first inning and eventually suffered the loss. The New York Giants provided payback for the '24 Series by winning the 1933 World Series over the Nationals in 5 games.

THE HISTORY OF THE MONTREAL EXPOS (1969-2004)

The city of Montreal had a long association with professional baseball even before it was awarded a Major League franchise in 1968. On April 18, 1946, the Montreal Royals, a minor league affiliate of the Brooklyn Dodgers in the International League, secured their place in baseball history when Jackie Robinson made his professional debut and became the first African-American to play professional baseball in the 20th Century.

More than two decades later as the National League was seeking to expand by two franchises, former Montreal city councillor Gerry Snyder presented the city's formal bid during an owners' meeting in Mexico City, Mexico. Six months later on May 27, 1968, it was announced that Major League Baseball was expanding outside the United States for the first time as Montreal was awarded a National League franchise to begin play in 1969.

Despite some early concerns about the team's financing, Montreal met its initial deposit deadline and officially became a member of the National League on August 14, 1968. Charles Bronfman, a distillery magnate and an original investor, was named chairman with Paul Beaudry and Lorne Webster as vice-chairmen. John McHale was named president and chief executive officer, while Jim Fanning was appointed the team's first general manager.

On September 5, 1968, the Montreal franchise named Gene Mauch field manager. Mauch was returning to familiar ground as he played two seasons for the minor league Montreal Royals in 1943 and 1944. McHale also announced that the team would be known as the Expos, in recognition of Expos 67, an international exhibition that attracted 50 million visitors to the city in 1967.

Only five days later, pitcher Dave Hartman became the first player to sign a contract with the Expos. Hartman never actually played for the Expos or made it to the Major Leagues. However, an expansion draft was conducted on October 14, 1968 and the Expos selected the following 30 players:

Manny Mota, Mack Jones, John Bateman, Gary Sutherland, John Billingham, Donn Clendenon, Jesus Alou, Mike Wegener, Skip Guinn, Bill Stoneman, Maury Wills, Larry Jackson, Bob Reynolds, Dan McGinn, Jose Herrera, Jim Williams, Angel Hermoso, Jim Grant, Jerry Robertson, Don Shaw, Ty Cline, Garry Jestadt, Carl Morton, Larry Jaster, Ernest McAnally, Jim Fairey, Jose Laboy, John Boccabella, Rob Brand and John Glass.

The Expos' first home ballpark was Jarry Park, a converted minor league stadium named after former councillor Raoul Jarry in 1927. Jarry Park's initial capacity was 3,000, but was expanded to 28,450 as the ballpark met MLB standards.

Montreal made its National League debut on April 8, 1969 at Shea Stadium in New York against one of the National League's last expansion teams, the Mets. The Expos held off a furious 9th inning rally to claim an 11-10 victory. Pitcher Dan McGinn hit the first home run in franchise history, a solo shot off future Hall of Famer Tom Seaver in the 4th inning.

Jarry Park hosted its first regular season game six days later as 29,814 fans witnessed Major League Baseball in Canada for the first time. Despite facing a St. Louis Cardinals lineup that featured names such as Lou Brock, Curt Flood, Dal Maxvill and Joe Torre, the Expos treated their fans to an 8-7 win.

One of the highlights of the inaugural season came on April 17 at Connie Mack Stadium in Philadelphia. Bill Stoneman, later a general manager of the Anaheim Angels, pitched the franchise's first no-hitter in defeating the Phillies, 7-0. The Expos would go on to finish the season with a 52-110 mark.

The following season saw Montreal improve by 21 games under Mauch. 26 year-old pitcher Carl Morton went 18-11 with a 3.26 ERA en route to being named 1970 NL Rookie of the Year. In 1973, the Expos made their first pennant chase as they won 79 games and were in the race for the National League East title until the last weekend of the season.

After a few disappointing seasons, the Expos in 1977 moved into Olympic Stadium, which was the main venue for the 1976 Olympic Games. A crowd of 57,592 fans attended the first game at The Big O as the Expos fell to the Phillies, 7-2.

Montreal begun to form the nucleus of a team that would bring home its first National League East title with players such as Ellis Valentine, Andre Dawson, Warren Cromartie, Gary Carter and Steve Rogers. The Expos won 95 games in 1979 only to fall two games shy of the title and was again in the pennant race until the final game of the season 1980.

In '81, the Expos finally cleared the hurdle as they won the NL East's second half title in a season shortened by a players' strike. In a best-of-5 Divisional Series, Montreal topped first-half champion Philadelphia, three games to two, and advanced to its first NLCS.

The NLCS against Tommy Lasorda's Los Angeles Dodgers went down to the ninth inning of the fifth and deciding game. With the game tied at 1-1, Dodgers outfielder Rick Monday hit a two-out solo homer off Rogers. The Expos put two runners on in the bottom of the ninth, but could not tie the score as Los Angeles advanced to the World Series.

In 1982, Montreal hosted the first Major League Baseball All-Star Game to be held outside of the United States. The National League won its 11th consecutive Midsummer Classic on the strength of a home run by Cincinnati's Dave Concepcion. Five players represented the Expos on the NL squad: Carter, Rogers, Dawson, Tim Raines and Al Oliver.

Montreal remained competitive throughout much of the next decade, including 91 wins in 1987 by a team led by Raines, Andres Galarraga, Hubie Brooks and Tim Wallach.

Bronfman sold the franchise to team president Claude Brochu on June 14, 1991. The next season Brochu appointed long-time Montreal coach Felipe Alou as field manager. Alou guided the Expos to 87 victories and a second place finish in his first year at the helm and then improved upon that with 94 wins in 1993.

The 1994 season saw a core group of players such as Larry Walker, Marquis Grissom, Moises Alou, Pedro Martinez, Ken Hill and John Wetteland storm out to a 74-40 mark - the best in the Major Leagues - and a six-game lead in the newly-formed National League East on August 11. However, the season was never completed. A players' strike began the following day that would wipe out the remainder of the 1994 schedule.

After the changing economics of the baseball landscape forced the Expos to trade some of those core players, the '95 team finished in last place in the NL East. It was only the second time since '77 that Montreal finished in last place.

Two years later, Martinez continued to establish himself as one of the top starting pitchers in the Major Leagues. He posted a 17-8 record with a 1.90 ERA, 305 strikeouts and 13 complete games en route to being the first Expos' pitcher to win the National League Cy Young Award. That winter, Martinez was traded to the Boston Red Sox.

The 1998 season was marked by stellar individual performances on the field and uncertainty off the field. 22 year-old outfielder Vladimir Guerrero displayed his immense talent by setting six Montreal records, including the club single season home run mark. Also, 24 year-old closer Ugueth Urbina recorded 34 saves with a 1.30 ERA, and Alou became the franchise's most successful manager with his 521st victory on August 19.

Off the field, Brochu continued to struggle in an attempt to finalize funding for a new downtown ballpark and announced his willingness to sell his shares of the franchise. In 1999, Jeffrey Loria was officially approved as the Expos controlling person following a buy-back of Brochu's shares. In February 2002, Major League Baseball approved the sale of the Florida Marlins to Loria and the sale of the Expos to Major League Baseball and the 29 other Major League Clubs. A new Expos senior management team was announced: Tony Tavares (president), Omar Minaya (general manager) and Hall of Famer Frank Robinson (field manager). Baseball Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig also announced the formation of a relocation committee to seek a permanent home for the franchise.

The 2003 and 2004 seasons saw the Expos make baseball history by playing a portion of their home schedule at Hiram Bithorn Stadium in San Juan, Puerto Rico. Fans in Puerto Rico celebrated the return of Major League Baseball to the island country. The Expos drew nearly 530,000 fans and posted a 20-23 mark over their 43 games played at Hiram Bithorn Stadium during the two-season trial. On September 29, 2004, Commissioner Selig announced the formal approval of the relocation of the Expos franchise to the nation's capital, Washington, D.C., for the 2005 season.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS RADIO

On February 17, the Washington Nationals named Bonneville International Corporation as its radio partner for the 2005 baseball season.

Z104-FM will be the flagship station for the Washington Nationals baseball broadcasts. 10 Spring Training games, the April 3 charity game at RFK Stadium vs. New York (NL), and all regular-season games will be broadcast on WFED. A total of 122 games will be broadcast on Z104, all being late afternoon and night games, with the exception of three holiday games and the season finale.

With this partnership, the Washington Nationals will enjoy the benefit of significant news, updates, and promotions on all-news sister station WTOP.

"I'd like to welcome the Bonneville International Corporation to the Nationals family," said Washington Nationals President and CEO Tony Tavares. "I am confident that Z104-FM and WFED 1050-AM, as well as WTOP, will deliver blanket coverage, both on the field and off, of our historic inaugural season."

BROADCASTER BIOS

CHARLIE SLOWES

Slowes, 47, joined the Nationals on February 24, 2004 as one half of the club's first radio play-by-play tandem...is joined by Dave Shea, who was appointed the same day...spent the previous 7 season as a play-by-play voice of Tampa Bay on the Devil Rays Radio Network...joined the Devil Rays for their inaugural season in 1998...returns to the Washington, DC market, where he served as the play-by-play voice of the Washington Bullets from 1986-97...during tenure with the Bullets, did two seasons of television simulcasts and enjoyed representing the Bullets in a variety of community-related functions...also worked in St. Louis for three years (1984-86), during which was exposed to broadcasting greats Bob Costas and Jack Buck while working in a variety of on-air functions for, among others, St. Louis University, the St. Louis Blues, the St. Louis baseball Cardinals and the St. Louis football Cardinals...broadcast Tidewater Tides Triple-A baseball for parts of 4 seasons from 1986-92...has broadcasting experience with NBC (television) and CBS (radio) for their MLB Game of the Week, as well as with the Baltimore Orioles and New York Mets radio networks...has also dabbled in bowling, boxing and MISL soccer (play-by-play with New York Arrows in 1983) during two-plus decades as broadcaster...married to Christina...couple has 2 sons, Jimmy and Alex.

DAVE SHEA

Shea, 54, joins Charlie Slowes as the first radio play-by-play tandem of the Washington Nationals...spent previous 7 seasons as the New England Sports Network's play-by-play voice of the Boston Bruins (road games only)...also served in various broadcast roles for the Bruins from 1980-1995...like his new partner, also brings inaugural season experience with service as the part-time radio voice of the Minnesota Timberwolves for their first NBA season in 1989...during a 31-year broadcasting career, has served in a variety of radio and television play-by-play posts with the Boston Red Sox, the Triple-A Pawtucket Red Sox, Big East baseball, ESPN/ESPN2's NCAA Frozen Four hockey, Hockey East and Boston College hockey, Harvard and Boston College football, Yankee Conference football, Georgia Tech basketball, NASL soccer (Atlanta Chiefs) and Boston Breakers USFL football...while working Bruins' games in 1995, won a New England Emmy Award for best play-by-play coverage...edited and published nationally and internationally distributed publication, The Hockey Magazine, from 2001-03.

WASHINGTON NATIONALS

BALLPARKS IN WASHINGTON, D.C.

Professional baseball teams were formed in our nation's capital — Washington, D.C. — beginning in the early 1870s and those franchises played their games in ballparks commonly known as Swampoodle Grounds, Capitol Grounds and Boundary Field.

In 1892, the Washington Senators joined the expanding National League and began playing their home games at a site that would host professional baseball games into the early 1960s. From 1892-99, the Senators played at National Park, which had a seating capacity of approximately 6,500. Although never finishing above sixth place, the team drew fairly well, including more than 200,000 fans in 1896.

When the National League contracted from 12 franchises to eight following the 1899 season, the team was disbanded. However, it would only be two seasons before a professional team occupied that site again.

During those two years, former Western League president Ban Johnson was working to put together a second Major League to rival the National League. In 1901, the American League began play with eight franchises, including the Washington Nationals.

This franchise would play its home games on the same site as the previous National League Washington team, but the ballpark was appropriately renamed, American League Base Ball Park and the capacity was expanded to nearly 10,000.

On March 17, 1911, tragedy struck the American League Base Ball Park. The all-wooden ballpark and four surrounding buildings were completely destroyed by a fire started by a plumber's blow lamp and a strong wind. American League Base Ball Park could not be saved as plumbers working on the park's drain pipes had shut off the water supply and by the time fire fighters arrived, the grand stand and bleachers were engulfed in flames. At the time, the loss of the ballpark was estimated at $20,000.

Thomas C. Noyes, president of the Washington franchise, gained approval from the Club's Board of Directors to announce that work would begin immediately on a new ballpark with a steel grandstand. With the players at Spring Training and Opening Day less than a month away, crews worked tirelessly to get the ballpark ready for the home opener.

By Opening Day 1911, the grandstands were sufficiently erected for the Nationals to host the Boston Red Sox with President William Howard Taft in attendance. The work on the ballpark continued when the team was on the road and was completed on July 24, 1911 at a final cost of approximately $100,000. Seating capacity was more than 27,000, including a presidential box near the first base dugout.

In 1920, the American League Base Ball Park was renamed Griffith Stadium in recognition of the franchise's owner and president, Clark Griffith. The only major alteration to the ballpark was also made in 1920 as the double-decked stands were extended from the bases to the foul poles.

During the late-1930s and 1940s, Griffith Stadium had another part-time tenant - the famed Homestead Grays of the Negro Leagues. Originally from Pennsylvania, the Grays played half of their games at Forbes Field in Pittsburgh and half at Griffith Stadium when the Washington franchise was on the road. Some of the most revered players in Negro League history played for the Grays, including Josh Gibson, Buck Leonard, Cool Papa Bell and Sam Bankhead, as they won nine Negro League championships.

Griffith Stadium, which also hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1937 and 1956 and three World Series in 1924, 1925 and 1933, remained the home of the Washington franchise until it was moved to Minneapolis following the 1960 season.

The expansion Washington Senators played their inaugural season at Griffith Stadium in 1961 before moving into District of Columbia Stadium for the 1962 season.

After having been the site of professional baseball in Washington, DC, since 1892, the final game at Griffith Stadium was played on September 21, 1961 as the Senators fell to the Minnesota Twins, 4-3, before a crowd of 1,498 fans. Griffith Stadium was demolished in 1965 and is now utilized by Howard University. Nearly 1,000 of the original seats from Griffith Stadium were moved to a Spring Training facility near Orlando, Fla., Tinker Field. Those seats remain there today.

A federally-owned stadium, District of Columbia Stadium was a new three-tiered, multi-purpose facility constructed near the Potomac River at a cost of approximately $24 million. The Senators signed a 10-year lease on September 29, 1961 with the D.C. Armory Board for the stadium, which had a seating capacity of 45,016.

On April 9, 1962, the Senators played their first regular season game at District of Columbia Stadium. A crowd of 42,143 - including President John F. Kennedy — saw Senators pitcher Bennie Daniels defeat the Detroit Tigers, 4-1. Interestingly enough, Daniels suffered the loss at both the final game at Ebbets Field in 1957 and the final game at Griffith Stadium in 1961.

Under the direction of the D.C. Armory Board, the stadium was officially renamed Robert F. Kennedy Memorial Stadium on January 18, 1969.

The 1969 Major League Baseball All-Star Game was the fourth hosted by the Senators and the second at RFK Stadium (also first game in 1962). Despite the American League dropping a 9-3 decision to the National League, Washington fans saw future Hall of Famer Willie McCovey hit a pair of homers and hometown favorite Frank Howard hit one as well.

In 1971, the Senators played their final season at RFK Stadium before moving to Arlington, Texas. The final regular season Major League Baseball game was played at RFK on September 30, 1971. Washington hosted the New York Yankees before a crowd of just 14,460 in a game that was never finished. The Senators were holding on to a 7-5 lead with two outs in the top of the ninth inning when fans rushed the field. The umpiring crew could not clear the field and the game was forfeited to the Yankees, 9-0.

RFK Stadium has hosted 16 exhibition games involving Major League teams since the Senators moved in 1971. A portion of the proceeds from most of the games was donated to various charities. Attendance at the 16 contests averaged more than 27,600 per game. Following is a listing of those games:
